Argument in the Shenandoah
Water Company's Infraction Suit Against This Borough
Again Postponed.

Special Herald Correspondence.

POTTSVILLE, March 2, 1 p. m.

LL anxiety regarding the vacancy on the bench caused by the death of Judge Green is at end. Governor Pattison has made his appointment and Mason Weidman, Esq., one of the most brilliant and popular lawyers of this place, is the appointee. The news of the appointment has just reached here and is authentic.

Many people of Shenandoah were visitors to this city to-day and called at the court house. Most of them were here to attend the argument on the infraction case of the Shenandoah Water Company against the Borough of Shenandoah, but they were disappointed, as the argument has again been postponed indefinitely.

"The Burglar."

The presentation of the above named play at Ferguson's theatre last night was a decided success in every way, but the attendance was far smaller than it should have been. The play is adapted from Mrs. Fannie Hodgson Burnett's story "Editha the Burglar," and is full of interest from beginning to end. The character of Editha as portrayed by little Dora Brisson, is that of a simple-hearted little child who knows no fear, and has a little knowledge of evil that she treats the "Burglar" with the greatest politeness, and even volunteers to show him what he had better take. In quietness and originality of expression Editha suggests Little Lord Fauntleroy. The play is clean and wholesome, and teaches a powerful lesson of the danger of evil companionship for young men.

The Longfanz Case

A case that has been attracting the attention of our town people for some time past is that of Mrs. Longfanz against Mr. Malin for stander. Both parties are residents of town. It seems Mrs. Longfanz charged that some time ago, in a wordy quarrel, Mrs.
Malin made statements imputing her (Mrs.
Longfanz's) chastity. Yesterday the case was arbitrated at Pottsville before Messrs.
H. B. Bartholomew, S. M. Mortimer and Jeremiah Selinger and an award of six cents damages was given Mrs. Longfanz. but she was directed to pay half the costs, W. J.
Whitehouse, the plaintiff's counsel, says he will appeal the case.

Young Men to the Front.

Reference to another column of this paper will show that Mr. B. R. Severn, the enterprising and successful merchant of town, has announced himself for County Commissioner.
In Mr. Severn will be found the right material for such a position. The gentleman comes from a patriotic family, several members of which served their country faithfully and died in its defence. He has hosts of friends and if they go into the fight they will win. In addition to this Mr. Severn can rally to his support a great portion of the young element of all parties.

About Gambling.

EDITOR HERALD:—The question asked by a reader of your paper, yesterday, concerning the pulling of gambling dens in town is to the point, but too much credit is being given the Pottsville police for this great act. Pottsville is full of such holes that ought to have been cleaned out long ago. It remained for them, at this late day, to pounce upon a few lizards. It is a beginning. They should continue the good work.

Is joined at Philadelphia.

Information was received here to-day to the effect that Jacob Wanamaker, formerly of Delaware and employed as conductor on the local Lehigh Valley branch, was seriously injured in the Pennsylvania yards in Philadelphia when coupling cars yesterday. He was squeezed between bumpers.

LATE.

A later authentic report states that Mr.
Wanamaker was run over by a train. His left leg was cut off and the other so badly crushed that amputation was necessary.

Obituary.

Henry Laebler, 41 years of age, died at his home, No. 209 West Centre street, yesterday, of asthma and heart failure. It has been five years since he was able to follow his calling and during that time his vitality had gradually become weaker. On Friday last he became much worse and from then on his illness was rapid. The funeral will take place on Saturday morning, at 9:30 o'clock, to proceed to the Catholic church for High Mass. Interment in Catholic cemetery.

The seventh week of the HERALD'S popular teachers' contest will not close until Saturday evening yet the grand total of votes to-day is very short of the 75,000 mark.
This is ample proof of the stupendous success the contest has met with, an average vote above 10,000 votes a week and 1,000 votes a day, excluding Sundays.

Few people realize the great amount of time and labor that has been consumed in the handling of the coupons already in hand and the amount of paper consumed in their manufacture. Try to think of the proportions the contest has assumed, reader. There are 74,149 coupons in hand. If these were pasted one to another at the narrow ends they would make a string in length 444,941 feet, or a fraction over 37,074 feet, or a string that would extend from Shenandoah to Lakeside.

As the record in the table below shows one of the contestants, Miss Baird, has gone above the 15,000 mark and Miss Wesley is above 13,000. Miss Stein is third with over 12,000 votes to her credit, and the fourth, fifth and sixth contestants each have more than 5,000 votes.

In comparing our returns with those of the similar contest now being conducted by the New York Press we find much upon which to congratulate ourselves. Of the five leaders in that contest no one has 5,000 votes.
Our leader, as our table shows, has 15,020.
The lowest of the five Press leaders has but 3,750 votes, while the lowest of our five has 5,270. The combined vote of the first twelve contestants in the New York City teachers' contest is 39,728. The combined vote of our twelve is 68,328.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETING.

REPORT OF ITS PROCEEDINGS LAST NIGHT.

MR. BRENNAN ELECTED A MEMBER

Ex-Secretary Gable Has Engaged Counsel to Make Collection of the Difference Between His and Other Salaries.

SCHOOL BOARD met last night in the office of Superintendent Freeman, in the High school building. Despite the ravages of the fire a few weeks ago the quarters presented their old-time appearance and were very comfortable.

The members who attended the meeting were Messrs. Conry, O'Hara, Burke, Lynch, Brennan, Hanna, Beddall, Ogden, Muldoon, Brennan, Gallagher, Treasie and Davenport.

Ex-Secretary Gable, who is still a member of the board, was not present, but had a representation in the person of S. G. M. Hollopeter, Esq., his counsel. The latter sprung a little surprise on the board by stating he had been retained by Mr. Gable to present a claim for the difference between the amount usually allowed secretaries of the board for salary and the amount paid Mr. Gable.

Mr. Hollopeter said that according to the facts furnished him he learned that at the time Mr. Gable was elected secretary of the board, June 1st, 1891, the salary of the office was $300 and the additional salary for the secretary as librarian was $75, making a total of $375 a year. That on June 3d, 1891, after Mr. Gable's election, the board reduced the salary of secretary to $25 a year and that of librarian to $10, a total of $35.

The counsel then proceeded to enumerate the number of pages of minutes written and number of orders drawn by various secretaries of the board since its organization in order to compute the work done by Mr.
Gable with that done by the secretaries who were allowed the full combined salary of $275 a year, and closed with the statement that during the term of 1891-92 there was more business transacted by Mr. Gable, as secretary, than has been done by any other secretary of the board since its organization, with possibly the exception of Mr. Yost, when he served his first year in the office.

Mr. Hollopeter said his object was to give the board a chance to arrange the matter amicably. He did not wish to take the matter into court and have any dirty item washed there. There is no doubt that his client had a good claim, Mr. Hollopeter said, and they have too much respect for the School Board to drag it into any litigation without first affording ample opportunity for a settlement.

The board decided to refer the matter to its solicitor.

As the school month will not end until Tuesday next, Superintendent Freeman could not make a statistical report. The superintendent stated that Miss Ramage, the teacher of music, has recovered sufficiently to give more attention to the classes, but the physician advises Miss Ramage not to undertake the drilling of the schools for the graduating exercises, as the work might cause the teacher to break down again. For that reason Mr.
Freeman asked, in behalf of Miss Ramage, that the board allow the teacher to employ assistance for the drilling exercises.

After some discussion Mr. Freeman stated that Miss Ramage's health would allow her to continue the ordinary duties of her position and assistance was only required for the arduous work of drilling the classes for the commencement exercises; that the teacher wished to keep that department of the schools up to the standard and for that reason would pay the assistant from her own purse.
The board granted the request. It is understood that Prof. Thomas B. Hughes, the well known choir leader of town, will be the assistant, although the definite announcement to that effect has not been made.

Another important piece of business transacted was the election of a director to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of William P. Williams, who represented the Second ward on the board and recently moved to Strong, Northumberland county.
The question of filling the vacancy was brought up at the last meeting of the directors, before the last spring election, but it was decided to leave the vacancy open to see who the people of the Second ward would elect on election day.

It was generally believed that after the election the elected party would be selected by the board to fill Mr. Williams' chair until the beginning of the term in June, next, but the result of last night's transaction showed that the belief was erroneous.

The board decided to proceed with an election to fill the vacancy and nominations were called for. Mr. Muldoon nominated Mr. F.
J. Brennan, who was defeated at the public election by Mr. H. W. Titman, the Citizens' candidate. Mr. Beddall named the latter. A vote was taken and Mr. Brennan was elected on the first ballot. The eight Democratic members present voted for him and the six Citizens' members stood by the School Director-elect. As a result of the election Mr.
Brennan will fill the place until June 1st, next, when Mr. Titman will step in by virtue of his public election.

Mr. Gallagher stated that he understood that some of the High school pupils are taking advantage of the teachers. He was informed that pupils in Mr. Ebbert's room and one in Miss Cline's asked permission at the same time to leave the rooms and are frequently absent together for as long as half an hour. Mr. Gallagher also hinted that some of the pupils have been taking courses in some places that are not embraced in the High school curriculum.

Superintendent Freeman said he will investigate the matter and put the teachers on their guard.

Mr. Ogden made a report in behalf of the Finance Committee, showing the balance in the School Board's treasury is $14,833.10.

ADVICE TO OFFICE SEEKERS.

Washington Preparing to Act the Part of a Legalized Highwayman.

Schuykill county Democrats who intend visiting Washington for the purpose of persuading the new Administration to turn out the recently Republican office-holders, a word of advice may not come amiss. Don't go until after March 4, and then go prepared for a long stay. The first part of this injunction is made in the interest of the hungry plum hunter. If he goes to visit the incumbent with the idea of impressing Mr.
Cleveland with his importance he will be disappointed and will spend a great deal of money. Washington only gets a chance once in four years to rub the general public and she makes the most of her opportunity. She is preparing to act the part of a legalized highwayman this week. The excise tax rates to be charged have roused the criticism of even the most bigoted of the national capital papers.

The advice to go prepared for a long stay is given because of the repeated intimations of Mr. Cleveland's lieutenants that changes will be made slowly, and the prospect for an extra session is growing. In the latter case Mr. Cleveland will have his hands full directing Congress and will have no time to spend on office seekers. It is reported that he has called off his leaders and given up hope of accomplishing any financial legislation this week, which is taken as an indication that he will call an extra session for the purpose of putting his ideas into laws.

THE THEATRE.

References to Ferguson Theatre Coming Attractions.

Miss Agnes Herndon will appear at Fergu-son's theatre in "La Belle Marie, or a Woman's Revenge," a five act comedy drama, this evening.

"THE WITCH."

Marie Hubert Frohman will play a return engagement presenting for the second time in this city "The Witch," by Philip Hamilton and Marie Madison. "The Witch" is a peculiar play descriptive of the operation of the blue laws in the old days when witches were supposed to exist. It is a work of fiction, but is based on historical facts and the dress and manners peculiar to the days of witchcraft in Massachusetts. To the student of history the play must prove instructive, and even of absorbing interest, while the average theatregoer who seeks recreation at the play house will doubtless find it an interesting novelty. "The Witch" will appear at Ferguson's theatre on Monday evening, March 6th.

Political Points.

Office-seekers are off for Washington.

On and after Saturday the Democrats will have a mortgage upon the whole country.

There is much uneasiness among the officeholders in Washington.
