HE REBALD yesterday galled the attention of the public to a lette of received by Chief of 2 J Police Davis from Mrs. Margaret Kerwick, of New Hope, Bucks county, in which the Chief was asked for in-ormation concerning the whereabouts of her on for whom she had been scarching for

The HERALD was not on the streets half an hour when a reporter of the paper and Chief Davis were informed that the boy was in a house on West Coal street. The information was followed by a visit to the house designated and the boy was found. He had heard of the HERALD's article and was on alort for callers. When Chief Davis Chief Burgess Smith and the reporter approsected the house some boy friends of the whom the management referred in its article one sought gave warning and it was only after many assurances that no arrest was in tended and some persuasion that the boy ould be induced to meet the officers.

Satisfied that he was not to be taken but istedy the boy, whose name is George, let the way into the house of the friends with whom he has been staying. Chief Davis then told George of the letter written by the mother and advised him to go home. The oy said that he, too, received a letter from is mother and answered it vesterday. He aid he would not go home and when asked why replied that he did not thrust be would lke n step father.

Chief Davis considered he had done his uty in floding the boy and advising blue b so bome and that after writing to the mothe he would let the matter drop.

George Endrine is about seventeen years of ge. He ran away from Girard Colleg Philadelphia, about two years ago and hi ace resided with the West Coal stremily. He works in the Boston Run min-The family he is staying with has trusted im very kindly and this with the knowle edge of his mother's re-marriage and a few hat be could not get along with a step ther has made him adverse to return to his ome. Members of the family with which e is living told the Chief of Pelice tha bey had not induced the boy to remain here out on the centrary and repeatedly advised im to go to his home.

Owing to the absence of the President Judge, who was recuperating at the sembore. after a serious attack of stemach trouble, all be rapidly accumulated work of the court levolved upon the associates, Judges Bachtel and Green, and the sudden death of the latter, on the 6th ult., threw the catire burden apon the only remaining official in actual barness, Judge Bechtel, who has been, as was the Inmented Judge Green, untiring in his levotion to the duties which devolved upon

Be that as it may, slekness and death have ought about an unfortunate state, of things n this county, so far as our court business I ate Judge Green and which requires the peedy restoration to health of his honor, the omident of the court, to complete it.

It was during the recent protraged can dien which involved the election of a sucmor to Judge Pershing, and which reulted in his re-election, that the events ccurred which are referred to in the be inning of this communication. The Reubilicans of the county had placed a ricket I. Kech. Esq., then serving his last year as District Attorney, and the Democrats non-tated in July, plucing at the head of their and encored the field yielding to the mallel office, untiling seal as a lewyer and the exigency of court matters which demanded work and whose popularity had our shown when he can three years before on the Re- number of new applicants and ratic county. As is always the case in such ontests the lawyers divided on this Judge their own ends. Most of the Republic however, who remained true to Mr. Koch did so because of their knowledge of and confidence to his superior attainments and ecause just such a man was needed on the Bench, it being very seldom the case that a man of his standing and success at the Bar can be induced to relinquish a lucrative practice and the independence of an advocate for the more confining, excludive and sacrificing duties which are demanded by a udicial position. The wisdom of making Mr. Kuch a candidate was manifested by the esuit when the winner only won by a little over 1.100 plurality in a county which had dven Governor Patrison over 1,000 majority. Building, therefore, on the known strongti of Keeh, the managers of the opposition ffered for sale. RESORTING TO BEHOM METHODS. All the machinery of a mammoth and sowerful corporation was not sufficient, alhough many promises were made by houses o ollieries to men to your against Koch, and ead the desired effect, but measures were taken to organise another and more effective way of insuring the defeat of this popular nan, and one which was as disgraceful; genloos. A cotorie of lawyers organised and held secret meetings, and for the purspecial sales of dry goods, boots and shoes, as pose of their crusade, their actions were a guarded as those of the now defunct Mollis Maguire organization. Their watchworddefeat Koch at all hazardo-was used at all gatherings and every precaution was taken to admit none but those who had been previously tested as to their fealty to one or ther of their party nominees. Heretofore the court in this county has been chary in cranting Recuses to sell liquor and many men of well known political influence have been ases, it must be admitted, from just reasons. An opportunity to corral these people late a band which could be effectively manipulated to join the conspirators in their campaign now presented itself and to that end a lis was made up of the names of all persons who had been refused Homess year after year and to it was added the names of hundreds who were known would be applicants for new All the ministers are requested to be present. places this year.
