ELECTRIC FLASHES.

Items the Reporters Pick up Along the Line.

It is stated upon very reliable authority that by the first of April, next, the Shenandoah Traction Company will have over $100,000 at its disposal to complete the construction and extension of its lines between Shenandoah and Ashland, and the latter place and Centralia.

The Traction Company paid out over $8,000 in wages on Saturday, not counting the pay roll of the Mahanoy Plains and Mahanoy City divisions.

The car shed section of the power house at Rappahannock has been raised four feet.

An additional large generator will replace the two small ones now in use at the power house in a few days. This will add greatly to the power of the line.

Cars are now running between Rappahannock and Ashland every half hour.

As soon as the Rappahannock-Mahanoy Plains section is completed the line from Ashland to Mahanoy City, via Gilberton, will be known as the through line and ten cars will be put on schedule time.

The construction of the Shenandoah-St. Nicholas branch will begin in either the latter part of this month or first part of April.

The HERALD's statement that the electric road will be extended down East Coal street has been confirmed. It is intended to make a crossing at Emerick street and run south to Centre, where it will run on the St. Nicholas main line as far as the fork in the road just east of Indian Ridge colliery and then switch off and run on to Yatesville.

G. A. R. NOTES.

Obituary by the Veterans in Various Sections.

The National Encampment meets at Indianapolis, Ind., this year. The delegates elected at the Department Encampment of this state will be announced through general orders.

The new Department Commander is a sample of the kind of soldiers elected to command the "Boys in Blue."

Congressman "Jack" Robinson, of Mealia, will be the orator in town on Decoration Day.

There are over 43,000 G. A. R. members in this state.

Pennsylvania wants the next National Commander.

At the meeting of Watkin Waters Post in town last Friday evening, Past Commander Gibson made a verbal report of the annual Encampment, held at Lebanon, in which he said: "There were many resolutions acted upon, many subjects discussed and many suggestions offered, all having for their aim the good of the organization. One of the principal topics was the future of the Grand Army of the Republic, the best methods of providing for the posts in isolated districts where they are likely to disband for want of members and the government of such posts. The question of bringing back members of the order who had fallen from grace by reason of non-payment of dues or other causes was also discussed. Another topic was the raising of funds for the decoration of southern Federal cemeteries where the posts are too weak to attend to such duties properly."

"A resolution was adopted by which the Legislature was to be memorialized to adopt measures looking toward the proper observance of Decoration Day. Some of the comrades felt that the day should not be one of festivities; that they should be prohibited, and that in particular the sale of intoxicants should be forbidden on that day."

THE THEATRE

References to Ferguson Theatre Coming Attractions.

The second presentation of Marie Hubert Frohman's great success, "The Witch," will be a dramatic event of great interest to our theatregoers. So much has been said and written commendatory of this strange play and its powerful interpretation by Miss Frohman, that those who failed to see it last year are infected with a pleasant and excited anxiety to see and hear for themselves. While those who have already witnessed the performance will want the pleasure renewed. At Ferguson's theatre this evening.

"ALVIN JOSLIN."

That "Uncle Alvin" is as popular now as he was a score of years ago is attested everywhere by crowded houses and screams of laughter. It seems destined to never wear out. Fifteen years is a long time for a play to remain before the public and still continue to be valuable property, but this is true nevertheless of "Alvin Joslin." Mr. Davis brings with him this season the best company he has ever had supporting him, while the special scenic effects are said to be marvelously realistic and grand. There has been an active demand for seats and inclinations point to one of the largest houses of the season. At Ferguson's theatre on Friday evening, March 10th.

Lorenzo J. Connor, 104 Green St., Albany, N. Y., says: "I have used Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup and find it very beneficial, and can safely recommend it as a good remedy for coughs."

AN IMMENSE ASSORTMENT!

Ladies' and Children's Underwear!

A Few Days Ago!

Our Coat Room was dark and wintry looking—with fur-lined and fur-trimmed coats. Behold the change of a few days! Outside, gloomy winter; inside, spring warmth, light, beauty. Coat room no longer—but underwear room, arrayed in pure white with here and there a touch of color, just enough to give proper light and shadow. Be prepared to find everything changed.

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR—Pure and spotless, now has the post of honor. We have a complete line of every garment in need that a lady requires.

CHEMISE—All styles, from a neat trimming to the most elaborate work.

DRAWERS—Bleached and unbleached, ranging in price from 25c up to those handsomely trimmed. Corset covers neatly made and good wearing—all styles and prices, to suit all tastes and purses, from 25c up.

SKIRTS—Full length and full width, from a neat skirt at 50c to one ruffled, pleated and embroidered. You will find them here to suit all tastes—little trimmed, greatly trimmed, and very much trimmed.

NIGHTGOWNS—We wonder when we see the quality of muslin and trimming, the really good work put on them, the time it requires to complete such a garment, how they can be sold for such little money. They range in price from 50c up to several dollars.

WHITE GOODS—We must not forget White Goods. Flannelings, Hamburgs, 45 in. wide, from 25c a yard up. Embroideries, white and colored, all patterns, widths and prices. One of the latest fancies in embroideries is the colored edge. Fashion says they are to be the correct trimming for any style of dress becoming to the wearer.

We would like to impress upon every lady the wisdom of buying ready-made underwear. Don't waste time, energy and temper, but save it for more useful and congenial work. Prove your appreciation of our efforts to please by making your selection while lines are unbroken. We invite all ladies to call and make a thorough inspection.
