DISPRESSING ACCIDENT AT MAHANOY PLANE. THE BRAKE WHEEL BROKE OFF.

Although Terribly Mangled the Victim Retained Consciousness and Told His Friends How the Accident Happened.

HERE was an accident at Mahanoy Plane yesterday in which John Smith, a young man 24 years of age, lost his life. He was employed as a brakeman on a P. & E. coal train and met his death while on duty.

When Smith was taken from the track it was found that both legs had been cut off. He was conscious and gaspingly told how the accident happened.

Political Points. And it snowed again the next day. The spring election and inauguration being over, it will now be in order for every Democracy to elect every appointment and county office until the next heavy snow fall which is expected to take place in 1896.

ORGANIZATION OF COUNCIL

ALMOST COMPLETE CHANGE IN THE OFFICIAL RANKS. HOW THE SEVERAL BALLOTS WENT.

Betteridge Chairman, Coakley Secretary, Bradigan Treasurer, Pomeroy Solicitor, and all the Police are New Men.

COUNCIL met last night—that is Councils met. The old Council met, and wound up its business and what was done was of a routine character. The Finance committee, through Mr. Lamb, recommended that $2,000 of the bonded indebtedness be cancelled, and the recommendation was adopted.

NEW COUNCIL

Immediately after the adjournment of the old Council Mr. Scheilly arose and nominated Mr. James for temporary chairman. Mr. Kane seconded the nomination. The motion was carried. Mr. McGuire nominated Mr. Coakley for temporary secretary and that motion also prevailed.

An election of permanent chairman was next called for and Mr. Lamb nominated Mr. T. J. James. Mr. Scheilly nominated Mr. Betteridge. A vote was taken and resulted in: Betteridge, 5; James, 5; and Holman responded "Holman"

Mr. Holman subsequently explained that he had entered into no caucus and had concluded to vote for himself. This policy he upheld with the exception of the Supervisorship, when he voted for Mr. Williams.

The Supervisorship was next taken up and Mr. Finney nominated J. H. Pomeroy, Esq., who was elected as the treasurer.

Then came the Supervisor. Mr. Gable nominated Mr. Edward Williams, the then policeman. Mr. Scheilly nominated ex-Supervisor D. H. Liewellyn. On the first ballot the former received six votes and the latter seven. Chairman Betteridge had not declared himself and Mr. Holman was declared elected by a vote of 8 to 5.

For first lieutenant Mr. Coakley nominated William Flaherty, of the First ward. Mr. Lamb nominated James Tempest. Mr. Flaherty was elected by a vote of 8 to 5.

Mr. James nominated David Rennie for second lieutenant and Mr. Dougherty named Martin McGuire, ex-Supervisor. Mr. McGuire was elected by a vote of 8 to 5.

Frank Wilcom was nominated by Mr. Gable for first patrolman. Mr. Gaffigan named James Dougherty. The latter was elected by a vote of ten to three. Messrs. Stout and Lamb adding their votes to the controlling eight on this previous election.

The second patrolmanship concluded the elections and Mr. Gable nominated Michael Makarawica. Mr. McGuire nominated Martin Casey. The latter was elected by a vote of 8 to 5.

Coakley, Kane, Gaffigan, Dougherty, Gaffigan and Betteridge, Democrats, and Messrs. Finney and Scheilly, Independents, knocked the Sunday night calculations in the head—and there you are!

THE ORGANIZATION

A Few Brief Points for Serious Reflection by the Citizens' Party. The Citizens' party received a severe blow last night and none but the members of the party are responsible for it.

The Citizens' party received a severe blow last night and none but the members of the party are responsible for it. The trouble originally started through disappointment of Federal office seekers nearly four years ago and it has been kindled and re-kindled by them ever since.

In consequence of this narrow-gauged sentiment the first five above mentioned members of the Citizens' party got together and decided to take in three Democratic members and give Holman, Hopkins, Amour and their friends the "freeze out," and upon that basis all business in connection with the borough affairs were conducted the past year.

These are facts established by the public records of the past year and no one can honestly controvert them.

The spring election of 1893 arrived and the same old warfare was renewed as soon as John F. Finney declared himself a candidate for Council in the Second ward, but it failed in effect and Finney became an Independent member of Council.

The usual dickering and bickering for a re-organization of Council followed. Five of the old Citizens' members showed an inclination to abandon their narrow-gauged policy and deal with Finney and Scheilly, the Independents, for a re-organization, but the negotiations fell through.

The five referred to, Messrs. Stout, Lamb, Gable, James and Van Dusen, professed to be anxious to do anything for the sake of harmony, but they technically held on to a claim to the chairmanship of Council and nothing could induce them to relinquish it.

As self preservation is the first law of nature, the seven frozen out were obliged to do something. Yesterday afternoon they got together and considered grievances. The consultation lasted several hours, but before the hour fixed for the organization of Council expired they agreed upon a plan of operations and pulled three members of the Sunday combination—Messrs. Betteridge, Gaffigan and Dougherty—over with them.

Now the question arises, "What shall we do to be saved?" The Citizens' party can do but one thing. Brace up! Stop crying over spilled milk, drop foolish ideas, cast off that awful, tired feeling of suspicion, look to the interests of the party's people and by getting together wipe out old scores, and try once more to make a united struggle to regain the great losses of the past three years.
