QUEEN KEPT OUT OF THE PALACE

A Hawaiian Editor Arrested for Contempt of the Legislative Council—Minister Stevens Says He Has Assurance that the United States Will be Upheld—Our Vessels in the Harbor.

New York, March 8.—Another case has come to light in which Dr. Ellis Landau, who was recently arrested and discharged on the charge of performing an alleged operation on Miss Crosswell, of Atlanta, Pa., who died in Bellevue Hospital about one month ago, is alleged to be implicated.

Through evidence furnished by the Medical Society, Justice Ryan held the doctor yesterday in default of $1,000 bail for alleged practicing without a license, and the woman is now in the Tombs awaiting trial.

Left in the house of the doctor was a girl 22 years of age, who was sick in bed, suffering from an operation. She is Miss Black, the daughter of John and Mary Black, said to be of Middletown, N. Y. She had been in the city a short time, and had come to the house of the doctor for treatment.

The only other occupant of the house was a young servant girl, who became alarmed when she heard that her mistress was in the Tombs, and would not return.

Knowing that the young patient was laid and thinking she would die in the house without medical treatment, the young servant girl hastily dressed herself and went to Bellevue hospital, where she told the hospital authorities there was a young girl sick in the house.

An ambulance was at once sent to the house, and the young girl was taken to the hospital.

As she was found to be suffering from the effects of an operation she was arrested and placed in the female prison ward.

Dr. Washburn, of Bellevue hospital, after examining the girl, decided that another operation was necessary to save her life. It was performed late last night by the doctor and his assistants.

Dr. Washburn, when seen immediately after the operation, stated that the girl was doing well.

"She had an operation performed upon her," he said, "but of course beyond that I know nothing. I think she will be strong enough to leave the hospital in a week."

Miss Black is described as a tall brunette, with a pretty face and a good figure. She has large features and is a powerfully built woman. It is said she has made no statement incriminating any one. When she entered the hospital she said that she had no occupation and was an orphan.

The police made an investigation in Mrs. Landau's house and found there her 10-year-old daughter and a month-old baby. The daughter was given in charge of the Gerry society and the baby was taken to police headquarters.

The First Crescent Club Fight a Rattling One.

New Orleans, March 8.—After a fierce battle of 31 rounds, Austin Gibbons, of Patterson, N. J., defeated Mike Daly, of Bangor, Me., in the arena of the Crescent City Athletic club last night.

Gibbons, who was the younger and cleverer of the two, outboxed his opponent from the start, and always held the battle safe.

Daly showed wonderful endurance and gameness from start to finish, but he was really outboxed by the Patterson boy, who had not only youth and science on his side, but was also taller and longer in the reach.

The men fought for a $3,500 purse, of which the loser took $500. The mill was witnessed by about 3,500 spectators.
