A NOTED MEDIUM DEAD

Margaret Fox Kane Passes Away in Brooklyn, N. Y.

REVIEW OF AN INTERESTING CAREER

After Discovering that She Was a Spiritualist She, With Her Sister, Began to Give Seances Throughout This Country and Great Britain—Her Marriage to Dr. Kane—Her Death in Poverty.

New York, March 9.—Margaret Fox Kane, who died in Brooklyn yesterday at the age of 59, was well known 40 years ago as a spiritualistic medium in this country and Europe.

Her death recalls strange and interesting memories of a generation ago. Her father, John D. Fox, who was a sporting man, lost all his money, and went to live in a shanty which he had built near Hydeville, Wayne county, N. Y. He dwelt there with his wife and three daughters, Anna, Katherine and Margaret.

They had been established there but a few days when footpats pattered over the bare floors. The peculiarity of these demonstrations was that they only occurred when Margaret and Katherine were in the house.

One night Margaret heard the sounds and called upon the uneasy spirit to do as she did. She then clapped her hands three times, and was surprised to hear the same noises in reply. The spirit was then questioned, and it told the Foxes it was the wandering soul of an old Jew peddler, who had mysteriously disappeared five years before.

The name of the murderer and the manner to which the killing was done was told, and it was finally announced that the body was buried under the house. The news of this spiritualistic interview spread all over the neighborhood, and soon the people began to dig. They found bones seven feet below the surface.

The Fox sisters became famous at once. They went to Rochester and gave seances. The sisters then came to New York, where their seances were attended by such men as Horace Greeley, Bryant, Fenimore Cooper, George Bancroft, Gen. Lyman and many other well-known men. Then the sisters went abroad and were equally successful in their spirit manifestations there.

In 1856 Margaret Fox met Dr. Elisha Kent Kane, the Arctic explorer, and, it is said, was married to him according to the Quaker rite. She lived for several years on what her husband had left, but this soon gave out, and she was left to the care of her friends.

Her melancholic power decreased and she lived a life of solitude and retirement until death found her in absolute desolation.

MISS HALL SUICIDES.

She Threw Herself in Front of a Locomotive at Middletown.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., March 9.—Miss Julia Hall, of New Canaan, Conn., daughter of Russell Hall, the banker, of that town, committed suicide yesterday by throwing herself in front of a locomotive on the Connecticut Valley division of the New York, New Haven & Hartford road. She was instantly killed, and her body was frightfully mangled.

Miss Hall was recently sent to the insane asylum here from New Canaan, and was the young woman who created so much excitement last November by wandering away from her home.

She disappeared twice, and on each occasion hosts of men in the vicinity of her home turned out to search the woods for the girl.

She was out walking in the grounds with an attendant, when suddenly she started for the railroad tracks, and before the attendant could overtake her Miss Hall threw herself in front of a fast approaching train.

Getting Ready for a Switchmen's Strike.

New York, March 9.—For several days past advertisements have appeared in the newspapers of this city stating that railroad switchmen and yard trainmen were wanted "away from New York," to whom good wages and steady employment would be given. It is generally believed that they are being lured to the West in anticipation of a strike of switchmen.

CHILDHOOD AND OLD AGE.

The Tender Grandchild and a Well-to-do Old Gentleman of 73, Acknowledge Obligations.

The preparation that can be taken with safety and benefit by the tender infant, and that nourishes, strengthens, and cures the aged and infirm, is one that can truly be called scientific. Such a preparation was discovered by Dr. David Kennedy and named Favorite Remedy. It is prescribed and recommended the world over by the medical profession, as the best medicine produced for the cure of all diseases arising from an impure condition of the blood.

This beautiful child whose picture is shown here, is the grandchild of Mr. J. E. Palmistery of Athens, N.Y., who had been cured of gravel in the kidneys and insomnia, (sleeplessness) finishes his letter by saying:

"But this is not all. Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy has done for our family what no other medicine could do. My little daughter had eczema the worst way; she was a mass of running sores from her ears around the entire neck to her small feet, and what was the result? To-day she is smooth and clean and fat and rosy and as bright as a silver dollar."

Mr. Solomon Davis of North Kropfright, N. Y., finds himself at 72 years, suffering from neuritis, felt tired all the time, weak, in a quiver, poor appetite, and no ambition. Thought at his age nothing could do him any good, but he had heard of other people in his condition.

He tried Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and began to get better at once, and now feels as hale and hearty as he ever did. It is particularly pleasing when sickness is so common as now, to know that there is a remedy that cures disease, builds up the weak and debilitated, strengthens the nerves, and restores to health and strength, men and women who have been confined to their homes for months on beds of sickness.

BURNED THEIR BODIES

Mrs. Loesch Adds to Her Former Crimes Before Dying.

HER OWN DEATH THE HAND OF FATE

The Alleged Malpractitioner Found Dead in Bed by Neighbors—The Real Cause of Her Sudden End Only Surmised—She Had Told Acquaintances that She Had Operated on Herself, Born Twins and Destroyed Them.

New York, March 9.—Mrs. Annie Loesch, alias Kramer, who had gained considerable notoriety for the numerous cases of criminal operation she had been engaged in from time to time, has been found dead in bed in her apartments at No. 145 Humboldt street, Brooklyn. The police have had her in custody on numerous complaints beside that mentioned. It is probable that she died through a criminal operation performed by herself.

The police are still of the opinion that Mrs. Kramer, as she was best known, was the direct cause of the death of Jessie White, 19, on Stagg street, which created a sensation at the time. Since that time her escapades have been numerous.

She recently walked into a saloon, cleaned it out of its occupants at the point of a revolver, and then made the bartender give her a drink.

Her first husband, John Loesch, caused her arrest for bigamy, but when asked for proof said she had bewitched him. She was discharged.

Some time later one Kramer appeared in court and claimed to be her husband. He said she had also bewitched him.

A few months ago she was arrested for abducting a young girl for immoral purposes, but the case was never brought to trial.

Neighbors say that the woman and a strange man passed the night drinking. The man was seen to leave hurriedly in the morning. She failed to appear, and when neighbors entered the room they found her dead in bed.

Cotner Creamer says: "Neighbors told me that Mrs. Kramer informed them that she had operated on herself. The result was that twins were born two days ago, and that she disposed of the bodies by burning them in the kitchen stove."

ANOTHER CHARLIE ROSS.

Samuel Cousins, of Toronto, Says He is the Long Lost Boy.

TORONTO, March 9.—Samuel C. Cousins, a paper cutter, 23 years of age, left here to-night to visit Christian K. Ross, whose long lost son Charlie he imagines he may be.

Cousins came here from England about five years ago.

He says he remembers distinctly the time he was kidnapped. He says he was taken to France and was baptized in the cathedral at Lomones.

When Cousins was eleven years of age the man with whom he lived took him to England where he deserted him and he has since that time drifted around the country finally coming to Canada.

Still Fighting for Sunday Opening.

CHICAGO, March 9.—Another big fight is likely to come up over the Sunday opening of the World's Fair. The local directory will not accept the $7,700,000 appropriated by Congress for paying the jurors of awards as a loan. They claim that Congress, in granting it as a loan, has violated its agreement, and it is therefore not incumbent upon the local people to observe the Sunday closing clause of the contract.

Two Priests Excommunicated.

TRAYTON, N. J., March 9.—An official proclamation has been published by Bishop O'Farrell announcing that Manager Sattell had excommunicated the Treaty brothers, priests, at Swedesboro and Burlington for continued disobedience to the orders of the ecclesiastical authorities. They will also be proceeded against in the courts for refusing to surrender their church property.

The Hawley Will Sustained.

BIRMINGHAM, Conn., March 9.—The jury in the Stephen Hawley will case has sustained the will in the Superior Court. Mr. Hawley left an estate of over $50,000, which was inherited from his wife, and her relations. He willed it to his relatives, ignoring his wife's nephew, Albert W. Gunn, of Brooklyn. Gunn appealed from the probate of the will.

A Maryland Railroad to be Sold.

BALTIMORE, March 9.—Charles A. Cousins, a receiver, has been appointed for the Annapolis and Baltimore Short Line Railroad by Judge Morris of the United States Court. The road will be sold at public auction within six weeks. The bondholders and the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company are prospective bidders.

Catholic Republicans for France.

Edward Jones, aged 24, was the only man in the mill at the time, and his body was found several hundred feet from the mill, horribly mangled.

At Last an "L" Road for Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, March 9.—Work has really been started on Philadelphia's first elevated railroad. About fifty workmen began digging holes for the foundation piers on Front street, near Arch, for the Northeastern Elevated Railroad, which is to run well out in the suburbs.

A Young Wife Ends Her Life.
