NORMAL SCHOOL.

Days of Costly Dresses and Finery Have Special Herald Correspondence.

BLOOMSBURG, March 11—At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the State Normal School of this place it was decided that hereafter no lady will be allowed to graduate in an elaborate or costly dress, such as is often seen on graduating occasions.

The board believes that many young ladies are led to expend on their graduating outfit more money than they can afford to spend, and that very often the fifty dollars received from the state at graduation is used for finery instead of equipping the recipient for professional work.

The days of white silk gowns, with kid gaiters, gloves and their accompaniments are over at the Bloomsburg school.

It is interesting to note that when the announcement was made to the lady students of the school it was met with round after round of applause, which shows the growth of public sentiment in the right direction.

The trustees of the school have also decided to place in the dormitory, for the use of the students, a hydraulic passenger elevator of 2,800 pounds lifting capacity, and of sufficient size to accommodate twenty-five persons at once.

Lorenzo J. Connor, 34 Green St., Albany, N. Y., says: "I have used Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup and find it very beneficial, and can safely recommend it as a good remedy for coughs."

THE THEATRE.

References to Ferguson's Theatre Coming Attractions.

"Forgiveness" is a beautifully-told dramatic story of the heart, full of humanity, pathos and fun, and Mr. Bryton's John Diamond is among the finest characterizations of the day.—New York Daily News. At Ferguson's theatre on Wednesday evening, March 15th.

"CIRCUS DAY."
A charming comedy with an uproariously funny plot is "Circus Day." It is interpreted by a large company of singers, comedians, and dancers, including a bevy of pretty girls. In addition a company of circus celebrities are carried who give a grand circus performance in a portable ring. The colossal feature is "Mahomet," the talking horse, who has been justly billed "the wonder of the 19th century." At Ferguson's theatre on Saturday, March 16th.

A bad cough or cold calls for a good remedy—the cure for it. For Coughs, Colds, La Grippe and Consumption, a perfect and permanent cure is WATERBURY'S, the worst cases yield to its healing properties. Price 25 cents. Put-Tins is sold at P. P. D. K. R. R. drug stores.

The League to Act.

It is understood that the local branch of the liquor league has decided to see that all applications for the transfer of license shall be scrutinized and protest against transfers that are not based upon gift-edged grounds. The gentleman who gave this information to-day stated that the license court is becoming too much like a real estate exchange. Licenses are procured merely to give property a good selling price or give an excuse for high rent, and the system is hurting the legitimately licensed places.

"I have tried Salvation Oil in my family, on a broken and dislocated foot and can recommend it to any one as a good liniment." Mrs. William Tolley, Joplin, Mo.

- NIGHTGOWNS—We wonder when we see the quality of muslin and trimming, the really good work put on them, the time it requires to complete such a garment, how they can be sold for such little money. They range in price from 50c up to several dollars.
- WHITE GOODS—We must not forget White Goods, Flouncings, Hamburgs, 45 in. wide, from 25c a yard up. Embroideries, white and colored, all patterns, widths and prices.
