Baltimore Has a Mystery for the Police to Unravel.

BALTIMOUR, March 14,-Patrolman Fitzmorris says that at an early hour in the morning he, as usual, called to awaken Annis Little, who worked in an underwear factory. When he rapped at the door Annie Prior, a 18-year-old cousin of Miss Little, ran to the window and told the officer that at midnight she was awakened by the cries of her brother. On booking up she saw a large black man with side whiskers who had both knees on the bed beaning over her, whils he supported him-self with his left arm. In his right hand
