THIRD EDITION
THAT DECISION.

Justices to the Hard-worked Letter Carriers.

The letter carriers—that hard-worked and poorly paid class of Government officials—have at last secured what it has taken them a very long while to obtain, that is, simple justice. They have received from the highest tribunal in the land, the Supreme Court of the United States, a decision which says that they were right in every interpretation they put on the eight-hour law of Congress, as it applied to them, and that the officials of the Post Office Department, who used their every endeavor to make the law practically nugatory, were wholly wrong. The court says that when a man is employed to work eight hours a day and his employers order him to be on hand at a certain time to begin his labor, that is the time when his eight hours commences, no matter whether the work he is expected to perform is ready for him or not.

If the work he is to perform is not ready for him that is not his fault. Nor can he be assigned to other work in the meantime. The court says that the eight-hour law with the letter carriers means just what it means with any other class of workmen either in public or private business. It is a contract that has but one interpretation. It has been the policy of the officials of the Post Office Department to get away from and around this law in every way conceivable. This came from a desire they had to get extra work out of the carriers without extra pay, so as to keep down the expenses of the Department, and thus make a favorable showing when they came to Congress to ask for their annual appropriations. It looks like a small matter, but it meant a change of several hundred thousand dollars.

The decision is of the utmost importance to every laboring man in the country, as it shows the attitude of the greatest court in our land on a question that is most vital to them. We believe the principal credit of pushing the fight to the finish is due to the organization of letter carriers connected with the Philadelphia post office.

TWO LABORERS INSTANTLY KILLED.
A Funeral Train Crushes Them to Death at Dobb's Ferry, N. Y.

Dobb's Ferry, March 16.—A horrible accident occurred at the railroad station here which resulted in the death of two laborers.

The men had stepped from a south-bound train and at that moment a special funeral train, carrying the remains of Mrs. Nathan Gilford, who died in New York to Poughkeepsie for burial, came along. The two men were caught and before they could get away were run down, being ground to pieces under the wheels. The bodies were horribly mutilated. The two were strangers in the village and there was nothing on their persons to identify them.

Longshoremen Growing Suspicious.
New York, March 16.—The sugar handlers are growing suspicious as Port Warden Edward S. Scott shows no signs of giving in, and are resorting to violence to prevent new men from working. Yesterday Salvador Estrange, an Italian, while passing through Kent avenue, was attacked by two longshoremen and knocked senseless. His assailants spring into a wagon and drove off just as the police appeared.

On Trial for Her Life.
WELLSBURG, V. Va., March 16.—The trial of Mrs. Missy Spence, who is charged with murdering her adopted daughter, Nora Wells Starr, last November, is on trial here. The heartless actions of Mrs. Spence in the court room have done much to offset any feeling of sympathy that might be had for her.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Political Points.
General Clark's appeal is a "ringer." The spring elections in New York and New Jersey were very encouraging to the Republicans.

"Four years more" of Cleveland will be more than enough for any Democrat. If the Republicans want to secure any of the county offices this year there will have to be a reconciliation of the different factions.

It would not be a bad idea for delinquent Republicans to pay their taxes now. In speaking of the chances of a certain Democrat for office, the other day, a gentleman said "It depends all on 'Jack' Toole." Is it possible "Jack" has yet a mortgage on Shenandoah?

Our townsman, B. R. Severn, is making a good canvass for the County Commissionership, and has met with much encouragement from unexpected quarters.

Congressman "Jack" Robinson is sawing wood and saying nothing. He'll be heard from before long.

General Gobin is getting to be too staid-warlike to suit the Pottsville magwumps. If the Republican party of Schuylkill county is to be kept together just for the furtherance of one man it is time a new party, with more liberal ideas, be organized in the county.

W. D. Seltzer, Esq., of Pottsville, will be a candidate for Judge next fall whether that little coterie of "hickers" in Pottsville like it or not. Mr. Seltzer is built of material that will wash and should be fortunate enough to be elected to that position Schuylkill county will be the gainer by many thousands of dollars a year. He is a hustler and would break down many old-time obsolete barriers.

Under the State Rules of the Republican party, State Conventions in off years cannot be held before the second Wednesday of August. In Presidential and Gubernatorial years the State Committee has authority to fix earlier dates. Under the County Rules the Republican nominating convention must be fixed for a time within two weeks of the State or National convention. It is therefore quite certain that the Republican primaries and convention of this year, in this county, cannot be held much if any before the 1st of August. These rules give ample time for a canvass of all the names presented, whether for state or county offices.

Gen. St. Clair Mulholland, of Philadelphia, a veteran of the war and well known personally to many of our citizens, will probably succeed Pension Agent Shelmore. In a lecture in Philadelphia, the other night, he gave out some very interesting facts. Starting from the White House, which he said was built by an Irishman after the fashion of a famous Irish mansion, he continued his tour across the water to Queenstown; thence to Cork, "God's own city," as the natives call it; up the river Lee, through the Killarney region, showing Blarney Castle, St. Ann's church, where swing the sweet Shandon Bells, and all the famous scenes of Erin. One statement made by the General is interesting from a statistical point of view. There was only 4,000,000 Irishmen left in Ireland, for the island had sent over 5,000,000 of her sons and daughters to America during the past sixty years, and these, with their descendants, formed at least 20,000,000 of America's present 65,000,000 of population.

Medical Testimony.
W. Thornton Parker, M. D., Recorder, As sociation of Acting Assistant Surgeons of the U. S. Army, writes:
"SALEM, MASS., March 23, 1891.
"When at Stuttgart, Germany, during the winter of 1881-82, I was suffering from a severe attack of bronchitis, which seemed to threaten pneumonia. I met, at the Hotel Marguerite, Commander Beardlee, of the United States Navy. In speaking of my sickness, he remarked, 'Doctor, you can cure that chest trouble of yours by using an Allcock's Porous Plaster.' 'That may be true,' I answered, 'but where can I get the plaster?' 'Anywhere in the civilized world, and surely here in Stuttgart. Whenever I have a cold, I always use one and find relief.' I sent to the drug store for the plaster, and it did all that my friend had promised. Ever since then I have used it whenever suffering from a cold, and I have many times prescribed it for patients.

"The Allcock's Plasters is the best to be had, and has saved many from severe illness and undoubtedly, if used promptly, will save many valuable lives. Whenever one has a severe cold they should put on an Allcock's Plaster as soon as possible. It should be placed across the chest, the upper margin just below the neck; some hot beef tea, or milk, will aid in the treatment.
"This is not a patent remedy in the objectionable sense of that term, but a standard preparation of value. The Government supplies for the U. S. Army and Indian Hospital Stores contain Allcock's Plasters, and the medical profession throughout the world are well aware of their reliability and excellence. I shall always recommend it, not only to break up colds, but as useful in allaying pains in the chest and in the back. It is a preparation worthy of general confidence."

Stereotyping.
The HERALD is now prepared to do all kinds of stereotyping in the best workmanlike manner at reasonable rates. By having this work done in town the parties desiring it save freight and express charges and have the advantage of personally inspecting the work before it is delivered and thus avoid embarrassing mistakes.

USE DANA'S SASSAPARILLA, THE "THE KIND THAT CURES."
"Circus Day."
A charming comedy with an uproariously funny plot is "Circus Day." It is interpreted by a large company of singers, comedians, and dancers, including a bevy of pretty girls. In addition a company of circus celebrities are carried who give a grand circus performance in a portable ring. The colossal feature is "Mahomet," the talking horse, who has been justly billed "the wonder of the 19th century." At Ferguson's theatre on Saturday, March 15th.
