Points.
Obscene and flimsy literature must go. War on this detestable and noxious stuff has already been commenced in Philadelphia by Superintendent R. J. Linden and will soon spread throughout the state.

A spring of pure whiskey has been discovered in the mountains of Eastern Kentucky. There is every possibility that a big city will be built around that spring. Here is a good place for opponents of the Keeley cure theory.

Shoe store clerks say that women who find they have holes in their stockings when they are being fitted, always appear to suffer agonies of mortification.

It is your duty—the duty of every one to clean in and around their premises. Order a supply of lime at once. It is the cleanest and best disinfectant to be had.

It has been a good winter for the men who had old clothes to wear out. A closely buttoned overcoat has enabled many to appear respectable at times when a critical examination would have been cruel.

No matter if a newspaper was teeming with news, there would be a thousand and one cranks to grumble. The HERALD gives more news for the money than any other paper in this section.

Merchants who want good job printing at fair, living prices, come to the HERALD job rooms. Poor ink, poor paper stock and poor work does not enter into the details of printing turned out there.

An exchange says most editors are acquainted with the man who takes more papers than he can read, consequently he has no time for the local papers. He usually takes a paper that is published in Portland, Maine. It contains the latest news about "The Smuggler's Cruise, or the adventures of Big Moss, the Bandit King," and while he is storing his mind with such information his wife is reading the almanac.

A Happy Man
is he who uses Red Flag Oil for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Toothaches and chronic pains. It's a remedy which cures every time. Try it, 25 cents. Red Flag Oil is sold at P. P. D. Kirkin's Drug Store.

Ballot Reform.
The Pennsylvania Ballot Reform Association, of which Hon. John Russell Young, of Philadelphia, is president, has issued a circular setting forth that two elections under the new law has developed a strong popular demand that party "groups" should be abolished (except for the electoral ticket) and all candidates' names should be marked separately, as the only safe way to vote and no voters should be helped in marking their ballots unless actually unable to read (either from blindness or illiteracy) or to mark them, otherwise there will be no secrecy.

USE DANA'S SAIBAPARILLA, ITS "THE KIND THAT CURES."

The Academy Restaurant.
The Pottsville headquarters for Shenandoah people and others living North of the mountains, for hot bottles, hot punches, beer tea and all kinds of wines and liquors of the best brands, is the Academy Restaurant, John P. Cooney, proprietor, M. A. Cooney, assistant.

Not as Bad as Reported.
The reports of the Mahanoy City explosion Saturday night published in the Philadelphia papers were exaggerated. The facts are the fire box of P. & R. engine No. 304, which was considerably worn, blew out. The clothing of a brakeman caught fire from flying coals, but the man was only slightly burned. Two neighboring stables were also set on fire by flying coals and were gutted. An old horse in one of them was destroyed.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

By having this work done in town the parties desiring it save freight and express charges and have the advantage of personally inspecting the work before it is delivered and thus avoid embarrassing mistakes.

THE BOLAND CASE.

A Judgment for the Creditors by Agreement of Counsel.
The suit instituted by Christ. Schmidt, Solomon Husk and Louis Klime, creditors of the missing Paul Summa, to require Constable Boland to show cause why executions should not issue against him for the amount of their judgments was concluded before Squire Shoemaker Saturday night.
After lengthy examinations, cross-examinations and arguments, during which it was shown that Constable Boland had expended all the money he received from the sale of Summa's property in paying claims, expenses and costs, Mr. Wadlinger, counsel for Mr. Boland, stated that he would admit that his client had no right to pay $15 for counsel, and $1.04 for his share in making the levy, and that he had no right to claim $29 for services as watchman pending the sale of the goods.

These admissions having been recorded Squire Shoemaker, upon agreement of counsel entered judgment against Boland and in favor of Christ. Schmidt for the sum of $30.04.

BOLLERS EXPLODE.

One Man Killed at Mahanoy Plane—One Injured.

At 10 o'clock yesterday morning the inhabitants of Mahanoy Plane were suddenly awakened by a loud report which proved to be the explosion of two of the West Bear Ridge colliery boilers. At the time John and Michael Donnelly, brothers, were in the act of cleaning out the fires. John was instantly killed, being buried under the falling walls and terribly scalded. Michael was thrown some distance and so badly scalded and injured that he cannot recover.

The force of the explosion was so great that one of the large boilers was thrown a distance of three hundred yards.

That old established cough remedy, Down's Elixir, still more than holds its own in the public estimation, despite sharp and active competition. It is a "home remedy," and in this locality needs no word of praise from us so well and favorably known is it. It is the standard remedy for coughs, colds and all throat troubles, with great numbers of our people, and their continued use and unqualified recommendation of it speaks volumes in its favor.—Burlington, Vt., Free Press, January 26, 1892.

Division No. 1, A. O. H., took part in the parade at Locust Gap on March 17th. They left here on the 10-10 train with about sixty members, headed by the Centralia Cornet Band.

The funeral of Mrs. George H. Jones took place yesterday. Services were held in the M. E. church and interment was made in the Odd Fellows' cemetery. The deceased was a well known and respected lady.

Patrick Cain, a former resident of town, but now of Philadelphia, is spending a few days here.

The ball which was held on March 17th, under the auspices of the Silver Star Social Club, proved a success in every way. A large number of young folks were present and passed an enjoyable night.

John Murphy is happy. It's a boy.

Mrs. Andrew Rooney and daughter, Jennie, are visiting Mrs. A. J. McDonnell, of Philadelphia, Mrs. Rooney's daughter.

Messrs. Slattery and Cassidy, two of Shenandoah's pleasant young men, were in town Sunday.

Michael Conroy, who had his hand injured at Logan colliery on Wednesday so badly that it had to be amputated, is recovering slowly.

A slight fire broke out on Sunday evening in the left of the barn belonging to John Keniff. After a small quantity of hay had been burned it was extinguished.

Who Were They?
Two well-known fast young men of Shenandoah came to town Wednesday evening, and unobtrusively paraded the streets with two young women of ill repute. After imbibing freely of the cup that intoxicates they went to the P. & R. depot to take a night train for home and were deserted by their gay companions. When they had recovered their scattered wits the foolish young bloods discovered that they had been robbed, one of $15 and a gold watch, and the other of $10, all the money in their possession. It is presumed that the women had deliberately played a game on them which proved highly successful. They were compelled to borrow money to get home. If the word of Coleridge, "Sadder and wiser," does not apply to them, it is because they are just the teachable period.—Mahanoy Tri-Weekly.
