William Willman, of town, who has charge spect and low in price. Don't buy an of one of the oil tank wagons that pay inferior article when you can get the periodical visits to the business places in best for the sacre money. Don't forget town and neighboring places, had an uncomfortable experience. While driving up to Delano he passed on to a part of the rend that had been undermined by water. Other vehicles had passed over the weak spot with safety, but the weight of the tank wagon was too great and when the surfaces gave way the wagon sank down to the depth of the axles. Willman unblished his horses and went to Mahanoy City for configuree. He secured four hories in addition to his own and a pair of jacks, and after over three hours' work the wagon was raised from the hole and put on good ground. It was nearly midnight when Willman got

ALL RIGHT FOR THE FAIR. The P. R. R. Demonstrates its Ability to Accommodate Crowds,

The passenger and freight traffic on the ennsylvania railroad system during the ast month has been enormous. Hundred of thousands of people have been existed to and from Washington. No accident has be fallen any of the trains or passengers. This is another feather in the cap of the Pennsylania Company and shows that its road is no of the safest in the country to travel over The road bed is solid and well ballasted, th rails are heavy and of the best steel, and the passenger trains are combinations of strength. actry and comfort. The fastest time is made and accidents by collision or otherwise are of rure occurrence. The block system used by this company in running trains is on-eded to be the best and safest plan in existence

The Penusylvania railroad will have ig undertaking this summer carrying people If Georgia colonels seeking office would to and from the World's Fair at Chicago, but gency and able to transport the vast throng without delay or danger.

Rie Eye Twinkled.

He was not a very elegant specimen of the genus gentleman as he shambled in toward the kitchen door of s house on Foundry street, nor was he altogether a vicious looking fellow, and there was in the corner of his eye a sly twinkle, that even all the blear had not obscured. The heavy of the house opened to his knock, and she was undoubtedly handsome woman.

"Bog pardon, ma'am," he said in undisguised admiration. "I think I have made a mistake.

"Nothing now, ma'an," he answered, faintly amiling "Then why did you knock at the

"I said, ma'am.it was a mistake." "Did you think some one lived here that you knew?" she asked, with a forting to hear even though a strain of sarcasm ran through it.

"Hardly that, ma'am," he said, humbly. "What I did think was that I was bungry and cold, ma'am, but the sight of your face has made me warm, ma'am, and your sweet voice has been food to me, ma'am. Good morning, lady," and he started away, but she wouldn't have it so. She took him in by the fire and gave him his breakfast, and that queer little twinkle in his eye twinkled more than ever.-Detroit Free Press.

First Opening of

Spring and Summer Millinery

Our first Opening of Spring and Summer Millinery will take place on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 30 and 31 and April 1. Our Millinery Department will be on second floor, reached by a broad, easy stairway-is a spacious, well-lighted room, 70x22 feet, and suitable in every respect for the purpose, having large mirrors between every window and furnishings of the latest and most approved

This department will be in charge of an experienced and courteous forelady. We have secured the services of a noted trimmer, from abroad, whose skillful, stylish and artistic work has never failed to please the most fastidious. We shall keep everything in trimmed and untrimmed Hats and Bonnets; everything in Flowers, Laces, Feathers, Aigrettes, Ribbons and jets of all kinds.

Novelties will be added as they appear during the season. We shall make a specialty of Trimmed Hats and Bonnets; shall keep a select assortment from which any lady can, at a moment's notice, make a satisfactory choice.

As this is our first season for millinery, we have spared neither trouble nor expense to make it a model department, and the result is even more than we anticipated.

THIS will also be our OENERAL SPRING OPENING for the entire store. Each department will have something new, choice and seasonable. Orces Goods will represent all domestic zoods, as well as the finest importations of wool, sills and wool, and all silk. All the new weaves, fancies and mixtures, with odd, unfamiliar names, but very beautiful in design and libid, will be found here. A next little book will be given away to all purchasers of milliners goods. Exergingly cordially invited to be present at our Pirst Opening of Spring and Summer Milliners, Thursday, Priday and Saturday, March 30 and Wand April 1.
