THIRD EDITION
CENTRALIA.

Miss Alice Garvin, of Minersville, is spending a few days with town friends.

Miss Hannah Donohoe, one of our popular young ladies, left this morning for the Quaker City.

Miss Jennie Black and Messrs Oscar Fetterman and Joseph McDowell, who are attending the Bloomsburg Normal School, arrived home yesterday.

Miss Edna Davis is confined to the house with a severe cold.

Mrs. John Davis, who has been confined to the house for the past few days with a severe cold, is recovering.

The Dandy Social Club gave a surprise party to one of their members, Claude Kress, on Wednesday evening. Quite a number of young people of this place and the surrounding towns were present and spent a most delightful evening in dancing and playing all kinds of games. The young folks enjoyed themselves in royal style until midnight, when lunch was served, which, under the management of Mrs. J. F. Kress, was of the first class order. After lunch the sport was resumed as before and kept up until 4 a. m., when they disbanded, each avowing that they had had a delightful time and hoping that the "bandits" will give another such party in the near future.

The following are the names of those present: Misses Ruby Yost, Lottie and Hattie Burkhardt, Maude Kelper, Mabel Straub and Guy Kelper, Shenandoah; Misses Ida and Dolly Sigfried, Katie Scott, Maude Stillman, Lottie Dileham and Messrs. Guy Hoover, John Thomas and William Wynn, Ashland; Messrs. Maggie Garner, Blanche Rich and Carrie Schor, and Messrs. Harry and Frederick Hughes, Exochlor, Moore, Bush, Kress, Bruce Foster, John Hellyer, Bernard McBrearty, Joseph Browell, Patrick Heffer and Daniel Reese, Centralia.

Miss Inspector William Stein, of Shenandoah, was in town to-day, looking up furnishings for the handsome office that he is fitting up, to take the place of the one recently gutted by fire.—Ashland Telegram.

The local letter carriers will celebrate the third anniversary of the free delivery system in town on April 1st by giving a banquet to a few of their friends.

The fair to be given by the Grand Army of the Republic, commencing April 15th, for the benefit of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund, is well under way and the committees are hard at work perfecting arrangements.

Political Points.
It is reported in one of our exchanges that Charles H. Hagenboch, of Shenandoah, has been announced as a candidate for County Commissioner of Schuylkill county. His many Bloomsburg friends not only hope that his reported candidacy is correct, but that he may succeed in being elected.—Bloomsburg Republican.

Candidates from the Union will not be considered by either party this year, so far as Schuylkill county is concerned. Those townships will be in the new county by the time the conventions are held.

Republicans should not count on any serious dimensions in the Democratic ranks this year and make a general scramble for the offices to be nominated. No matter how hard they fight among themselves they will come together on election day. To win the Republic must drop all personal differences and preferences and join in and nominate a good clean ticket.

THE MARCHING OF THE MULES.
While they're javin' them at Washin'ton, an' waitin' for a place.
We're happy here, in Georgia, where we're got amazin' grace!
We're a makin' of a livin' an' we're working by the rules,
And keepin' time like music to the marchin' of the mules!
You kin hear us in the mornin', at the very peep o' day
A hitchin' up fer business an' 'jast singin' on the way!
For we all have graduated from the politician's schools,
An' we're keepin' time like music to the marchin' of the mules!

Atlanta Constitution.
An evidence of the sincerity of the stock cry of the Democratic statesmen against Republican nepotism is afforded by the fact that nearly every Democratic Senator has appointed a son or other relative as his private clerk or secretary.

Hon. Tinsley Rucker, of Georgia, and Senator George, of Mississippi, having sought the White House to find out where they were at, each came away, thanks to nimble fingered typical Democratic spoilsman, who grabbed everything in sight minus his 'at.

Judge Ermentrout, of Reading, from which place some say "fat oxen and dumb people" come, has set a number of good examples for other Judges. He has caused our people to do a good deal of thinking and the more they think the better they like the Judge's way of doing business.

That old established cough remedy, Down's EXHIER, still more than holds its own in the public estimation, despite sharp and active competition. It is a "home remedy," and in this locality needs no word of praise from us, so well and favorably known is it. It is the standard remedy for coughs, colds and all throat troubles, with great numbers of our people, and their continued use and unhesitating recommendation of it speaks volumes in its favor.—Burlington, Vt., Free Press, January 26, 1892.

An Epoch in Journalism.
On Sunday, March 12, The Sunday Press (New York), started a feature that will mark an epoch in American journalism. It consists of an art cover, in which the paper when folded to the quarter size, is encased, and it has created an unprecedented demand for the Sunday Press among all classes of people. The front page of the art cover next Sunday will show a beautiful reproduction of the German masterpiece, "St. Cecilia," and for the four Sundays in April it will present an original water color design with an art calendar, an original painting in the original colors by an eminent American artist, and two reproductions of famous paintings, admitted masterpieces. The inside pages of the art cover will always contain exquisite half-tone portraits and illustrations of people and topics of the then current week. Every copy of the art cover of an issue of the Sunday Press would command in any art store at least $1.00.

And So It Goes!

When Sewing Machines are mentioned the name of the STANDARD rises instinctively to the lips. Why? Because it will sew as much in four hours as others do in five. Because it is a labor-saver, and makes less noise than any machine on the market. Pay no attention to the disparaging talk of our competitors, as that only proves that it is their most dangerous rival. Call and see it for yourself.
