Clean up! CLEAN UP! CLEAN UP! Have you given anything to the monument fund?

The Legislature is drawing to a close. The school children are already counting the days to vacation.

"Pick eggs" will soon be the cry. The tidy housewife needs not to be told to clean up.

Moving time is already here. The lime-burner is busy supplying house-keepers.

That old established cough remedy, Down's Elixir, still more than holds its own in the public estimation, despite sharp and active competition. It is a "home remedy," and in this locality needs no word of praise from us so well and favorably known as it. It is the standard remedy for coughs, colds and all throat troubles, with great numbers of our people, and their continued use and our solicited recommendation of it speaks volumes in its favor.—Darlington, Va., Free Press, January 20, 1892.

Extensive improvements are being made to several properties on Jardin and Main streets and all the carpenters and builders are finding their services in demand. On Jardin street, just north of Centre, workmen have been especially active. They have given the T. J. The Cole property on Main street, just above Lloyd, has also received an entire new front. On the west side of the street, on the same square, carpenters are working like beavers on the Kerns property recently purchased by Max Schmidt. This place will have a large store-room and a hall suitable for lodge meetings.

THE ALLEGED CONSPIRACY.

A Prominent Lithuanian of Town Makes Reference to It.

EDITOR HERALD:—With great interest I read in yesterday's EVENING HERALD the news on the conspiracy of the Catholic clergy to overthrow the Republic.

Although the HERALD disbelieves the existence of a conspiracy of this kind, I am confirmed in my anticipations which had been formed before Rev. J. J. White, of Stamford, Ill., solemnly announced that he is in possession of proofs to that effect. I will try to give briefly some material for reflection in this serious matter.

The English speaking public does not take much care as to what is going on in the life of the Lithuanians, especially what tendencies exist among the leaders of this nationality. The Catholic clergy represents the interests of one party. What does the Lithuanian Catholic clergy teach in sermons and during the confession?

In the first place, Lithuanians should avoid to have any mental or social intercourse with the pagans (and pagans are called by the Rev. Barba, of Plymouth, all who are not Catholics); in this way our brother-fellows remain without regular knowledge of the liberties and rights and manners existing in this Republic.

Furthermore, the Lithuanian Catholic clergy preaches against the common public school system; they represent the public schools as foes of religion, hearths of atheism, means of combating to Catholicism and of checking the propagation of this "alone saving" church. Especially Rev. Paulinus, of Baltimore, preaches to that effect.

Next, our clergy publicly announces in the sermons that all means are allowed to attain the high aims of the Catholic church, that Catholics are morally excused for crimes committed on the enemies of the church (Rev. Barba).

Besides teachings of this kind, an Alliance of the faithful has been created which works in the interests of the clergy, which, among other purposes degrading our people to the serfs of the clergy and of the Pope, prepares the minds of our brother-fellows for the reception of the Pope if he should be obliged to leave Italy and to come as an exile to the United States. At the same time, although quietly, suggestions are made of the changes in the political aspect of this country when the Catholic church in a short time shall become the ruling principle! As at the present day, money is power, the Lithuanian clergy accumulates large sums in possibly shortest time (there are priests who in a span of 35 years made $50,000 and more); even requirements are made that good parishioners should make gifts for the poor Pope!

Things of this meaning are propagated and divulged not only from the pulpit, but even in newspapers, like the Vengas, of Plymouth, the principal organ of the Lithuanian clergy. Against these teachings and tendencies combat and eagerly fights the Lithuanian Educational Society, whose members have to endure the most atrocious persecutions from the Catholic clergy. Filing that comes from the pulpit do not bring in the desired fruit, our clergymen published last year a pamphlet of the filthiest kind against the Lithuanian lovers of this country, against those who desire to enlighten the working classes in the spirit of liberty and progress against those who desire to enlighten the working classes in the spirit of liberty and progress, against those who require freedom in science as well as in religion. Members of the said progressive society are expelled from their places. They are chased by the Lithuanian priests from one place to another, they are denounced as the worst men on earth and bitterest foes of Catholicism.

I could give some more information about these matters, but I am convinced that enough has been said to make us suspect that some morsel of truth might be found in the announcement of Rev. White, of Stamford, that a danger is imminent to this glorious Republic.

PROPOSALS TO BUY A LIEUTENANT.

A Wealthy Young Woman Will Pay $17,000 for a Husband.

TOWSON, Md., March 30.—Miss Annie Marie Wilkins, who formerly resided here, but whose home is now in Germany, inherited a fortune from her father. Miss Wilkins caused a petition to be filed in the Baltimore county court which states that she is now betrothed in marriage to Hahn Throgott Martin Von Bosa, a second lieutenant in the Third Battalion of infantry in the German army; that under the German law a junior officer of the rank of Lieutenant and Von Bosa cannot marry without the consent of the king, and, as Lieutenant Von Bosa is in the Saxony army, he must obtain the consent of the king of Saxony to the marriage, and after such consent is obtained he must further show, before the marriage can be celebrated, that he has an annual income of 2,500 marks; and in case the officer has not such income it is customary in Germany for the bride-elect to furnish the necessary principal to produce this income; that the law requires that German government 4 per cent. bonds to an amount necessary to produce this annual income of 2,500 marks shall be purchased and shall be deposited with the royal minister of war in Dresden, Saxony; that Lieutenant Von Bosa is not able to deposit the necessary funds, but his bride-elect is willing and anxious to have the same purchased by her trustees, in order that the marriage may be celebrated at an early date; that the bonds bought in Germany will be put in their names as trustees and the income will be paid by them to Anna Marie Wilkins for her husband so long as he remains in the German army. If he be promoted to the office of first lieutenant a portion of said bonds will be returned to the petitioner, and if he would get to be captain, another portion will be returned, while if he should be promoted to major all the bonds will be returned, as he will then have under the German law, a sufficient income from his pay as major to support his family. If he should be killed in battle or die, or should leave the service, the bonds will be returned to the minister of war. To purchase the bonds necessary to produce the 2,500 marks requires $17,000 worth of securities. The petition was granted.

W. J. Morgan, the latter, will move to No. 10 South Main street on April 1st.

THE READING HEARING POSTPONED
Receivers Ask to File a New Petition in Court.
PHILADELPHIA, March 30.—Holders of Reading railroad securities were well represented yesterday in the office of George L. Crawford, the master in the receivership, in anticipation of a hearing on the petition of the receivers to issue certificates to the amount of $5,500,000.
Nothing, however, was done for Thomas Hart, Jr., of counsel for the receivers, announced that the latter were not ready to proceed, as they desired to amend the petition recently filed in court.
What the nature of this document will be when it will be presented in court was not divulged and the gathering dispersed, subject to the call of the master.
Among those present were Charles C. Beaman and John R. Don Passos, counsel for the New York committee of general mortgage and income mortgage bondholders, and James Speyer, of Speyer & Co., the New York bankers who came to the Reading's aid with a $3,000,000 loan.
Reduced Rates for the Fair.

The question of the World's Fair rates was under discussion and it was agreed to issue round trip tickets to Chicago at the reduced rate previously settled upon which is 30 per cent. reduction on regular fares on ordinary trains between Chicago and New York.
