TO SMASH THE SLATES.

The President Talks With a Congressman

ON THE APPOINTMENT QUESTION.

The Members of the House Not to be Allowed to Deal Out Federal Patronage—President Cleveland's Declaration on This Point Spreads Dismay Among Some of the Congressmen.

Washington, March 31.—Mr. Cleveland gave out some bad news for congressmen and their favorite constituents, if report be true. A member of the house is authority for the statement that the president will not allow the congressional delegations to appoint the federal officers in their respective states. A number of state delegations have united in enforcing slates prepared by them, distributing the offices according to mutual agreement. The congressman who is the authority for the report that the slates would not stand in their entirety, asked Mr. Cleveland what he proposed to do with reference to these prepared slates. "I will smash them," is the answer attributed to the president.

This information has, of course, spread rapidly among the members of these state delegations who have united in appointing out of office in their states. While it is not known to what extent the new rule will reach, and while the belief is that the president will not ignore candidates simply because they are not on the arrangement of parceling out offices, the statement of Mr. Cleveland has left congressmen and those selected by them for positions in doubt as to where they stand.

A strong pressure is being brought to bear on Mr. Cleveland to have him select a committee of persons from a state east of the Alleghenies. Mr. Cleveland has given no sign as to his selection if he has made any, but he has intimated that the new commission will be a young man of known ability not too closely allied to practical politics.

Bayard's Nomination No Surprise.
Washington, March 31.—The nomination of ex-Secretary Thomas F. Bayard, of Delaware, to be ambassador extraordinary and plenipotentiary to Great Britain caused no surprise here.

It is understood that when President Cleveland selected General Greason as the premier of the cabinet, he told Mr. Bayard that the latter could have his pick of the foreign service.

This is the first time the word "ambassador" has been attached by the country as a prefix to the title of our foreign representatives. It is stated that Mr. Cleveland regards Mr. Bayard as a model as a minister.

Thomas Francis Bayard was born in Wilmington, Del., Oct. 29, 1828. He is, therefore, in his sixty-third year. Mr. Bayard comes from a family of statesmen. His grandfather and father, both named James A. Bayard, and his uncle, Richard H. Bayard, were all United States senators from Delaware.

At the Democratic National convention of 1850, Mr. Bayard got 153 1/2 votes on the second ballot. Hancock had 171. In 1854 he got 170 votes on the first and 151 1/2 on the second ballot, standing next to Cleveland. He then became Cleveland's secretary of state. He retired to private life at the end of Cleveland's first administration.

Mr. Bayard was twice elected to the United States senate, and at different times he held the most responsible offices in the gift of his native state.

John M. Reynolds, nominated to be assistant secretary of the interior to succeed General Bussey, is a well-known lawyer of Bedford, Pa. It is not known whether he is a soldier, but he will have charge of all pension matters, with supervision of the pension office.

James D. Porter, of Tennessee, named for Minister Egan's successor as minister to Chili, is ex-governor of Tennessee and was assistant secretary of state eight years ago.

Lewis Baker, of St. Paul, who will go as minister to Nicaragua, Costa Rica and Salvador, is proprietor of the St. Paul Globe.

Edwin Dun, the new minister to Japan, is a young man and resident of London, O. He was appointed upon the recommendation of Senator Bruce, ex-Governor J. E. Campbell and Allen W. Thurman, of Ohio, who was also United States minister to London, England.

McKenzie, Governor Campbell's private secretary for four years and is a professional newspaper correspondent.

Mr. S. L. Shreve, of Louisiana, who is nominated to be second secretary of the legation at Paris, is the son of the newly appointed minister to Paris.

James A. McKenzie, of Kentucky, the new minister to Peru, will be very well recommended by the nomination he made at the Chicago convention last June. Mr. McKenzie also made an excellent impression on the entire nation by his beautiful tribute to Secretary Blaine, who arrived in Chicago during the convention to attend the funeral of his son. Zimmerman, of Cincinnati, nominated to be solicitor-general, is a member of the well-known law firm of Ramsey, Maxwell and Ramsey, one of the most prominent at Cincinnati. He is a young man and a brilliant advocate. His firm are the attorneys for the C, H. and D. railroad and figure conspicuously in the largest equity cases in Ohio.

Tim, Pierce M. B. Young, of Georgia, who has been appointed to the mission of Guatemala and Honduras, is a native of South Carolina, having been born at Spartansburgh, in that state, in 1838. He was graduated at the Georgia military institute in 1857. In 1858 he was appointed consul general to St. Petersburg by President Cleveland, but resigned after serving for two years.

Vouchers on Riskey.
Washington, March 31.—Senator Voorhees yesterday sent the following dispatch to his law partner, Mr. John F. Lamb, in regard to the Golden Circle charges made against Minister John E. Riskey:

WASHINGTON, March 30.

HON. JOHN E. LAMB, Terre Haute, Ind.

The statement that I ever connected Mr. Riskey's name with the papers seized in my former law office by Carrington in 1864, is utterly false. Riskey was married and went to Terre Haute in the spring of 1860, and has continued to do so at least once a year from that time to this.

"During this period of twenty-eight years he has spent weeks at a time at Indianapolis and in different parts of the state in trial of cases in court and in construction of the Indiana, Decatur and Springfield railroads. He never received a hint or a suggestion that he owed anybody anything on account of the transaction spoken of until his appointment appeared in the

THE BILLS REPORTED AND PASSED

A Bill Passed in the Senate Designating the Days to be Observed as Legal Holidays—The Nesbit Road Bill Again Comes Up for Discussion—The Proceedings in the House.

HARRISBURG, March 31.—Yesterday's session of the legislature was drawn out to considerable length and both branches were busy throughout the entire day. A number of bills were reported from committees and others were introduced and still others were brought up for final passage, many of which were put through with a rush. Among the bills reported in the senate were the following:

The judicial appointment bill, with amendments, the act to provide for the continuation of the publication of the Twenty-ninth volume of the Reports of the Supreme Court of this State, the act to amend the act of March 11, 1888, relating to the appointment of judges, the act to amend the act of March 11, 1888, relating to the appointment of judges, the act to amend the act of March 11, 1888, relating to the appointment of judges.

These were among the bills introduced:

Bills—Relating to such manufacturing corporations as shall surrender all corporate franchises possessed by them not pertaining to manufacturing purposes.

Ordinances—Amending the printing schedule fixed in 1872 so as to conform to the times of the fiscal year.

Fruit—Authorizing the formation of corporations for carrying on wholesale or retail hardware business.

Smith, Philip—Authorizing cities to make appropriations for establishing and maintaining free libraries and to acquire by construction eligible sites for the location thereof.

Kline—Amending the act for the formation of partnership associations so as to protect interests of innocent members.

These bills passed finally.

House bill increasing the maximum punishment for the first conviction of murder in the second degree to twenty years.

Providing for the trial of cases of fact by a jury in lieu of a master, when demanded by any party to a cause.

An act to authorize the superintendent of public instruction to issue state teachers' certificates to graduates of regularly chartered colleges who have taught three full terms in the public schools of this Commonwealth since graduation.

Resolving that the days and half days to be observed as legal holidays, and for the payment, acceptance and protesting of bills, notes, drafts, checks and other negotiable paper on such days and on Sundays.

To require boards of school directors and controllers to provide for the better protection of the health and morals of school children in the respective school districts.

Declaring it to be a misdemeanor for any person to give or promise to give any elector or voter, or for any elector or voter to take money or other valuable thing in nomination or delegate election within this Commonwealth, and providing punishment therefor.

House bill relative to the uniformity of process.

To provide for the consolidation of boroughs and the government and regulation thereof.

Resolving that the day and half days to be observed as legal holidays, and for the payment, acceptance and protesting of bills, notes, drafts, checks and other negotiable paper on such days and on Sundays.

Proceedings in the House.

Among the bills reported from committee in the house yesterday were the following:

Regulating the duties of county auditors.

For the punishment and prevention of cruelty to animals.

To authorize foreign mineral spring companies to hold real estate.

Providing for the settlement by lot of an election which is held in more than one precinct.

Making an additional appropriation of $50,000 to the World's Fair managers.

In reporting the bill Mr. Maxwell offered a resolution fixing Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday next for the consideration of the bill. After considerable discussion, during which it was manifest that the house was very much in favor of the appropriation, if necessary, the resolution was adopted.

Mr. Reese presented the appeal of Mr. O'Kell from the decision of the Lackawanna court, which Mr. Quinnman was given a chance to make in the committee on elections which will investigate.

When the Nesbit road bill came up for second reading, Mr. Boyer attacked it on the ground that the state cannot afford to pay $3,000,000 per year for roads under his present estimate of revenues. If this bill passes and other appropriation asked for are acceded, there will be a deficit of $9,000,000. To commence with $3,000,000 per year for roads under our present road system would simply be a waste of money.

Mr. James opposed the bill on the same ground as Mr. Boyer, and said the money would simply be thrown into a mud hole.

Mr. Casson favored the bill as doing the greatest good to the greatest number, and felt sure the money to pay the appropriation would be forthcoming when needed.

He intimated that other things besides a fear of lack of revenue influenced Mr. Boyer in his objection, and that the bill was indignantly denied by Mr. Boyer.

Mr. Hewitt thought he might as well aim high and we may perhaps hit somewhere. He knew no place where the appropriation would do more good to every man, woman and child than on the public roads.

Mr. Whalton said that for twenty-five years this subject of roads has been before the legislature and nothing had been done yet. The old cry always goes up "we have no money." It is time now to do something and we should no longer heed the cry of no money.

We appropriate $5,000,000 to the schools, when by reason of the bad condition of the roads the children are not enabled to go to school. It would be in good taste this year to cut off a few millions from the schools and give them to the roads.

Mr. Row objected to the bill on the ground that it is unconstitutional.

The bill passed second reading. Other bills passing second reading were as follows:

To prevent the adulteration of drugs, food and spirits, fermented or malt liquors.

For the establishment of a forestry commission.

The house concurred in the senate amendments to the bill making appropriation for repairs to the state capitol and building of a new fire-proof library by 187 yeas to 5 nays.

A number of important bills were then brought up and passed finally, after which the house adjourned until next Monday.
