TWO UNFORTUNATE MEN

"THE KING OF SPAIN" DIES AT THE ALMSHOUSE.

HE WAS A REBELLION VETERAN

A Sabre Wound Received in an Engagement Ruined Him Thomas Welsh, of the First Ward, Insane.

THERE was an exciting scene at the Lehigh Valley depot this morning which was occasioned by the struggles of an athletic young man who was being taken to the insane department of the Schuylkill Haven almshouse. The young man was Thomas Welsh, 28 years of age and unmarried. He was at one time employed as brakeman on the local division of the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad.

Welsh has exhibited signs of insanity for some time, but only recently became violent. Yesterday he heard he was to be sent to an institution and he disappeared. After a long search he was found in the bushes on the mountain.

While at Squire Monaghan's office last night he became very violent and threatened everybody who approached him with bodily harm. At one time Constable Toomey and ex Poor Director Tracey found it necessary to force the unfortunate man to the pavement to get him under control.

This morning Toomey and special officer Anthony Alexis took Welsh to the Lehigh depot, handcuffed. While they were standing on the platform Welsh went into a fit of rage and a desperate struggle with the officers ensued. The latter succeeded in getting the man into the waiting room and kept him there until the train arrived. Welsh was apparently in a quiet mood when the train left.

Another case which has aroused the sympathy of town people is that of John Rooney. He died in the insane department of the Schuylkill Haven Almshouse on Thursday evening. Rooney was about fifty years of age and resided here for many years, but had been at the almshouse for a number of years. He was a notable figure there by reason of the dignity he assumed under the delusion that he was the King of Spain.

Those acquainted with Rooney's history say he had an excellent war record. He served throughout the rebellion and remained in the army five years after it ceased. During a cavalry engagement he received a sabre wound on the side of his head and it is said that wound led to his unfortunate end.

It is said that before Rooney was discharged from the army he exhibited symptoms of insanity and at one time walked all the way from Washington, D. C., to Ashland His object in walking to the latter place he said at the time was to visit the war department and secure his discharge.

Rooney has a brother in Columbia county, but he is said to be too poor to undertake the expense of the funeral and the veteran will probably be buried in the almshouse cemetery. A telegram was sent to the brother yesterday, but brought no answer.

About two years ago some of Rooney's friends took steps to secure a pension from the government for him, but the proceedings were never pushed.

Said a noted man of 60 years, "my mother gave me Downs' Elixir for coughs and colds when I was a boy." 1m

Letter From Mexico.

Mr. R. C. Knight, of this place, who is at present at Chihuahua, Mexico, writes to the HERALD stating that the telegraphic reports from Chihuahua under date of March 7th, last, are exaggerations. Mr. Knight says no wonderful strike in gold and silver has been made at "Boss" Shepherd's mines in the District of Batopilas. The Mexican government, the letter says, gave Shepherd a very large and valuable tract of land in the heart of the silver district of Batopilas and Shepherd has on that tract one hundred mines, but only works three, and they are silver producing. Not one mine owned by Shepherd, says Mr. Knight, has a gold vein. The object of Mr. Knight is to give credit where due. He says the three gold and silver mines of Batopilas are bonanzas. In the last three months they sent to Chihuahua about $275,000 each.

Another important change took place in the HERALD'S popular teachers' contest yesterday afternoon. Miss Baird regained first place which Miss Stein took from her on Wednesday. Miss Wasley has not been polling many votes the past few days, but she still holds third place with a great margin. Miss Fairchild holds fourth and will soon have 10,000 votes to her credit. The grand total of votes is almost 150,000, although the eleventh week of the contest will not close until the count is made to-night. In all probability the figures will be reached by that count.

Rev. H. G. Russell, formerly pastor of the Primitive Methodist church of town, and now located at Youngstown, O., has sent a number of coupons to the HERALD for the teachers contest with the following letter:

EDITOR HERALD:—I am very pleased to see the EVENING HERALD again. It seems like looking into the face of an old friend. This World's Fair contest will certainly enhance the deserved popularity of the HERALD. I think this contest is a very happy thought of the proprietors and a commendable feature of broad-hearted enterprise. Miss Haird we have known from childhood and believe her to be a painstaking, patient and good teacher. Shenandoah schools are very highly spoken of in many of the surrounding counties that we have lived in. Shall be glad to learn the close of the contest.

Yours truly,
H. G. RUSSELL.

Electric Railway Notes.

John Grooly, one of the most popular employes of the Schuylkill Traction Company, is now running the "Royal Blue" car between Girardville and Ashland.

Electric locomotive No. 2, which has just been turned out of the Garner shops at Ashland, ran from Girardville to Wiggans yesterday.

Car No. 21 yesterday made a through run from Mahanoy City to Girardville.

The road connecting the Girardville and Mahanoy City lines via Mahanoy Plane will not be thrown open for general traffic for several days, as the company wishes to have everything in first class condition before putting it in use.

The electric locomotives which have been made for the Schuylkill Traction Company are to be used for pulling three "trailers," which will be devoted to the miner traffic between Mahanoy City and Locust Dale in the mornings and evenings. The "trailers" are awaiting the arrival of wheels, which are expected within a few days.

Street Paving.

BEFORE the close of next week the work of paving the squares on Main street will probably be well under way. Grant Bros., the contractors, have the rollers and other materials required on hand and to-day they had a man out making a selection of workmen. None of the Belgian blocks have arrived, but the work will not be delayed on that account, the surface of the street must be reduced to grade and by the time that is done the blocks can reach here. The contractors think they will start cutting down the street on Tuesday.

There is considerable interest in the project, as a number of property owners have said that if the paving meets with their expectations they will be petitioners to Council before many weeks.

CLASS CONFIRMED.

Good Friday Services in the Trinity Reformed Church.

Rev. Robert O'Boyle conducted special services in the Trinity Reformed church on West Lloyd street last evening and administered confirmation and membership rites to a class of thirty-one. The church was crowded. A number of very beautiful floral offerings decorated the pulpit. Rev. O'Boyle dispensed with the sermon and substituted in its stead practical talks to the catechumens before and after the confirmation services. Holy Communion will be administered in the church to-morrow morning and evening.

The Lansford Eisteddfod.

The eisteddfod held at Lansford yesterday was a very successful affair. The attendants from this town were Messrs. J. J. Price, William Waters and Morgan Bevan; and Edith Morgan and Jeanette Bevan. Mr. Price and Prof. Herbert, of Pottsville, won the prize offered for the tenor and bass duett, "Martial Spirit;" and the prize for the trio, "How Excellent," was won by Messrs. Price and Herbert and Miss Morgan. Rees Rosser's Mahanoy City choir won the $200 and $100 prizes. The Nesquehoning band also won a $100 prize.

Obituary.

Pottsville lost another of its bright legal lights by the death of John W. Ryeberry last night. He died after a brief attack of typhoid pneumonia. The deceased was 70 years of age and was born at Orwigsburg. His career at the bar was a brilliant one and he served as chairman of the Bar Examining Committee and president of the Schuylkill County Bar Association.

Lost His Arm.

The accident Louis Shistle, of North White street, met with at Boston Run colliery yesterday was more serious than at first supposed. Shistle was oiling the breaker machinery and his right arm was caught by the cogs of the rollers. When Shistle arrived at the Miners' Hospital it was found necessary to amputate the arm above the elbow.

Removal.

April 1st, next, S. L. Brown will remove his boot and shoe store into the room now occupied by Sell, No. 25 S. Main street, where he will continue to sell boots and shoes at the lowest prices. J. S. Williams, formerly with A. B. Lamb & Co., will have charge of the repair department. 3-27-1w

A MOVE MADE.

Shenandoah Will Follow Ashland's Example and go Farther.

The base ball articles published in the HERALD the past few days has stirred up the local lovers of the national game, especially since the announcement that the business people of Ashland have decided to put a club in the field and try to organize an anthracite league of six or eight clubs. Shenandoah will also have a club in the field. Michael Hefron, the well-known player of town, gives this assurance and he says if the electric railway people push the St. Nicholas connection with this town and thus afford a cheap and convenient means of conveyance to the trotting park the people of Shenandoah will be given a series of first-class games during the coming season. Mr. Hefron says the base ball section of the trotting park has already been leased and the organization of a board of directors to control the park and club. It is intended that the directors will select some experienced man to organize and manage the team, subject of course to the endorsement of the directors. Mr. Hefron says that two men who will back the project with their money have already been secured to act as directors and the other four will be secured by the early part of next week. In addition to giving the team a full equipment it is also intended to plant trees in the park and otherwise improve it to make it a resort for picnics and other gatherings.

HERE IS A CHANCE.

One Home Industry is Paying. Why Not Have More?

The announcement in yesterday's HERALD of the hat and cap manufacturing firm of Robbins & Hounsetick branching out into a stock company has again brought on discussions and speculations on the advantages the town would derive from more of such industries. Among those who have been discussing the firm's success is a very prominent gentleman who says that with a capital of about $12,000 he could transplant to an excellent site in this town a good paying shoe factory that is now giving employment to from 75 to 100 hands. This factory, the gentleman says, is now located in a place where labor is scarce, and he is confident that if it were brought here the producing capacity and earnings of the plant would double within a few months. The cost of purchasing the plant and the site would not exceed $12,000, and it would coin money from the start. This seems to be an excellent opportunity for any one who may be seeking a chance for a good business investment. There should be no difficulty in duplicating the hat and cap factory's success.

The Tempest Engagement.

The three-night engagement of the J. L. Tempest company will begin at Ferguson's theatre on Monday night with the production of Tempest's new play, "The Plucking of a Rose," which is a story of Irish life told in a manner entirely different to any other play seen here. During the engagement Mr. Tempest will also produce his two great plays, "Joe" and "Honest Rube," which will be given with thousands of feet of excellent scenery and a first-class cast. The prices of admission have been fixed at the very low rate of 10, 20 and 30 cents.
