PAYING HIS DEBTS: The New York Press says...

Whenever President Harrison appointed an editor to office, a general Democratic outcry went up that he was "betraying the press." Magrump and Democratic organs savagely denigrated the President for every newspaper appointment that he made...

It would be interesting to know just how many editorial and Democratic journalists have manifested their willingness to be "betrayed" by applying for office under the Cleveland administration...

This Medical World quotes Sir Charles Cameron as saying he had come to the conclusion that typhoid fever in Dublin and perhaps elsewhere was miasmatic, or "earth born." In Dublin in the last decade one person in every 144 living on clay soils had typhoid fever...

A hose company came to the wall. The directors made the application. Their financial statement shows $30,000 assets and $22,000 liabilities.

A little girl burned to death. While playing with matches at the home of her parents, little Madam Peckola ignited the box. Her parents were out visiting. Madam's dress caught fire and she was soon enveloped in flames.

Under Democratic Management. Atkinson, April 4.—Hon. S. M. Hooper, democrat, entered upon the duties of mayor of this city yesterday.

Let 'em all die. Hooper, April 4.—John Healy, whose death occurred last week, in his 80th year, was interred in the Lutheran cemetery.

Traffic Again Resumed. TAMARCA, April 4.—The bridge on the Philadelphia and Reading railroad at Job's leg dam, near Harrisville, was burned Sunday night. The fire was caused by a hot coal from an engine.

Died in Indian Territory. CARLENA, April 4.—Information was received here yesterday announcing the death of Anna Maria, Indian Territory, of Mrs. John H. Green, the only daughter of the late Mrs. Green, who was interred in the Presbyterian church.

Business Failures at Carlisle. CARLENA, April 4.—Misses Barbara, former, Samuel Klein and John C. Moser, lumber dealers, yesterday made assignments for the benefit of their creditors. The liabilities are heavy.

FROM AROUND THE STATE

Happenings of Importance from All Sections.

GATHERED FROM HERE AND THERE.

An inmate of the Norristown Insane Asylum outside by hanging. The Norristown Bridge at Harrisville rebuilt. Pensions granted to Pennsylvania Soldiers—Other State News.

NORRISTOWN, April 4.—George Ziegler, of Philadelphia, an inmate of the State Hospital for the Insane, was found dead yesterday, hanging from a post of his bed in a room which he occupied alone. Ziegler was sent to the hospital about two or three years ago. He was suffering from a mild type of insanity, and as there was no reason to suspect that his malady was of the nature of suicidal mania he was allowed a sleeping apartment alone.

THE YOUTH FINALLY REPLIED. BRAYTON, April 4.—A day or two ago William Arnold, an employee of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal, was inducted into a big "chuckle" crew. The crew consisted of a boatman and six men, and they were engaged in pulling a barge up the canal. Arnold was the only one who was not a member of the crew, and he was looking on with interest. The boatman was a man of about 40 years of age, and he was a very good swimmer. The crew was pulling the barge up the canal, and they were making good progress. Arnold was looking on with interest, and he was wondering how long it would take them to get to the end of the canal.

FATAL QUARTER OVER A GAME OF CARDS. PHILADELPHIA, April 4.—Gustav Giamanelli, an Italian, was shot and instantly killed in a rooming house in Germantown, Pa., yesterday afternoon. Giamanelli was a man of about 30 years of age, and he was a very good card player. He was playing cards with a man named Giamanelli, and they were playing for a large sum of money. Giamanelli was the winner of the game, and he was taking the money. Giamanelli was angry, and he shot Giamanelli in the chest. Giamanelli was killed instantly.

A UNIVERSAL STRIKE FAVORED. Belgium is threatened by the Socialists Party. Belgium, April 4.—The Socialists met in convention in Ghent, principally to determine the attitude of their party should universal suffrage be denied.

TO INCREASE THE AUSTRIAN ARMY. The Infantry and Artillery to be Greatly Strengthened. VIENNA, April 4.—Despite repeated denials, it is certain that the war office plans to increase shortly the peace effective of the Austrian army.

THE FLOT TO KILL THE PRINCE. Sofia, April 4.—A dispatch from Berlin says that three railway guards and four village men have been arrested for plotting to kill Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria. Their plan is said to have been that they should blow up with dynamite the train which will carry him this week to Vranovo, where he will be married to Princess Marie Louise, daughter of the Duke of Parma.

Fred Youngling Not Guilty. New York, April 4.—Fred Youngling was acquitted in the court of special sessions of the charge of assault upon John D. Stein, a lawyer's clerk. The alleged assault occurred at Hotel Vendome, January 24, while Stein was endeavoring to serve a paper for a supplementary proceeding against the actress Japonese Inano.
