McLeod's Resignation: The resignation of A. A. McLeod from the presidency of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company...

With this settlement goes the opinion that Mr. McLeod is too practical a railroad man to be released by the company at this juncture.

Mr. McLeod has suffered a terrible ordeal since he assumed the presidency, but by his tact and common sense has brought the property to the front rank.

THE RAPID TRANSIT BILL

Brought Before the House at Harrisburg.

A LONG DISCUSSION THE RESULT.

Philadelphia Shows on the Part of the Philadelphians to Pass the Measure—A Resolution Adopted That No New Bills Shall be Introduced After April 18—The Evening Session of the Senate.

HARRISBURG, April 6.—The proceedings in the house yesterday were of an interesting nature and a great deal of important legislative business was transacted.

Regulating the election of trustees of chartered academies.

Providing for the appointment of a receiver in cases where corporations have been dissolved by writ of mandamus.

The Niles tax bill as originally reported and re-committed.

Relating to the inspection of school houses.

To prevent the issue of unauthorized policies of insurance.

Mr. Lytle, from the committee on rules, reported a series of resolutions to the effect that no new bills shall be introduced after April 15.

Mr. Harrison moved an amendment that Fourth of July and February 22 be included in the provisions of the bill.

Mr. Fow wanted Good Friday and Christmas brought under the bill.

Mr. Crawford denounced such amendments as frivolous and burlesque.

Mr. Ekiner objected to leading the bill down with objectionable amendments.

Mr. Harrison objected to anybody tampering with his motives.

Mr. Crawford insisted that he was in order, and said that men who were advocating these amendments would be taken by their consciences.

The speaker said Mr. Crawford was out of order to impugn dishonest motives to any member.

MR. RUSSELL WOULD NOT ACCEPT THE GOVERNOR'S FRIENDS SAY HE WOULD DEFEAT A FEDERAL APPOINTMENT.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—It is whispered among the politicians here, and apparently comes from reliable sources that Hon. William E. Russell, the young governor of Massachusetts, will be urged to accept an important appointment under the present administration.

WILLIAM EVERTS RUSSELL.

The governor's friends here decline to state what position he will be asked to fill, but all unite in the declaration that whatever it might be Mr. Russell would respectfully decline to accept it and step aside to allow some other democrat to take the place.

Mr. Russell is said to be in the gift of the people of his state, he feels in duty bound to hold the office until the expiration of his term, and that he would not resign under any circumstances.

THE RUSSIAN TREATY UNNOTICED AT THE SENATE'S SESSION BEHIND CLOSED DOORS.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—The session of the senate yesterday afternoon behind closed doors, was devoted entirely to routine matters.

The Russian treaty was not mentioned and it is considered doubtful whether the senate will release the text of the treaty so as to permit the public to know its exact purport.

Democrats oppose the removal of the injunctive of secrecy, because they are unwilling that the treaty as finally agreed upon should go out accompanied by the original draft of the contents, and republicans insist that it shall not go out in any other way.

In this condition of things it becomes doubtful whether the text of the treaty will ever be made public until it is proclaimed in the usual manner by the two governments.

Some doubts are now beginning to be expressed as to whether that proclamation will be made.

There seems to be an explanation of the strange delay in our minister at St. Petersburg notifying the state department of the exchange of ratifications unless it be true that he has received instructions to delay the exchange.

This, however, has been officially denied.

Will Hold Important Offices. WASHINGTON, April 6.—Following are brief sketches of the careers of the four men nominated yesterday by President Cleveland to fill important offices.

Thomas I. Crittenden of Missouri, who is named as consul general to Mexico, is perhaps best known to the public through his pursuit and destruction of the celebrated James brothers, who terrorized the state for many years.

He lived at Kansas City and represented that district in congress in 1880. He was a lieutenant colonel in the Union army during the late war.

Mr. Crittenden is a lawyer about 35 years of age. James S. Ewing of Illinois, who is nominated to be minister to Belgium, is a law partner and cousin of Vice-President Stevenson.

He is about 39 years of age and lives in Bloomington, Ill. He is one of the old Ewing family of Kentucky, where he was born and educated.

He has for thirty years practiced law, and is regarded in Illinois as one of the best lawyers in the state.

Louis C. Hughes, who becomes governor of Arkansas, is one of the political powers in that territory, and is a newspaperman, editing a paper at Phoenix. He is about 45 years of age and was a delegate to the Chicago convention.

William E. Houston, the newly appointed governor of New Mexico, is considered for 17 years in the territory and practiced law at Santa Fe. He was a member of the territorial legislature and of the council in 1881 and 1882.

The Senatorial Question. WASHINGTON, April 6.—There were two speeches made to the senate yesterday on the question of the admission of senators appointed by the governors of Montana, Washington and Wyoming.

Mr. Chandler contended for a broad and liberal construction of the clause of the constitution bearing on the subject, while Mr. Palmer reminded the senate of a paragraph in Washington's farewell address, warning the people of the danger of changing the constitution by construction rather than in the manner prescribed in the instrument itself.

Mr. Chandler reviewed the Rosh incident by a resolution calling on the treasury for copies of the report of the Citizens Bank of Washington, D. C., from 1875 to 1882 and of bank examiners on its condition.

The resolution went over on the objection of Mr. Gorman.

Confirmed by the Senate. WASHINGTON, April 6.—The senate has confirmed the following nominations: William H. Seaman, of Wisconsin, to be United States district judge for the eastern district of Wisconsin; James Blackburn, of Kentucky, to be marshal of the United States for the district of Kentucky; Ezra W. Miller, of South Dakota, to be attorney of the United States for the district of South Dakota; Felix A. Beever, of Tennessee, to be solicitor of the treasury; Herman Stump, of Maryland, to be superintendent of immigration.

Investigating the Weather Bureau. WASHINGTON, April 6.—The weather bureau investigation was begun yesterday afternoon by Assistant Attorney General Colby, but nothing of importance was elicited. The investigation will be continued.

Brian May be Government Printer. NEW YORK, April 6.—It is rumored that Captain H. T. Brian, who has been head foreman for the government printing office at Washington, D. C., for more than twenty years will be appointed government printer. He is thoroughly conversant with all the details of the office and is highly spoken of for his long and faithful services.

Shot Down by a Crazy Man. NORWICH, Conn., April 6.—Mrs. Daniel Mordock, of Huckleberry Hills, was shot in the temple by a supposed stray man, who made his escape. Mrs. Mordock was found unconscious on the sitting room floor of her house by her daughter, who was in the room when the shooting took place. A posse is searching for the man.

Found a Headless Corpse. WILMINGTON, April 6.—While hunting muskrats along the Delaware River near Condo, Alloway, Young and David Hyde found the body of a decomposed body of a man lying along the river bank. The body was headless and murder is suspected.

Rescued from Death. Mrs. Elizabeth Messer, Baltimore, Md.

All Said She Could Not Live a Month. Now Alive and Well—Thanks to Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"I must praise Hood's Sarsaparilla for it is wonderful medicine. I suffered for years with Neuralgia and Dyspepsia and fainting spells. Sometimes I would be almost wild with cold perspiration. I spent a great deal of money for medical attendance, but I did not get any benefit until my daughter told me about Hood's Sarsaparilla. I bought a bottle and took it. I feel like a new woman. I weigh 140 lbs. and was 110 lbs. in perfect health. I owe it all to Hood's Sarsaparilla."

A Picture of Misery. Every one who saw me thought I could not live another month. But I began to improve at once after beginning with Hood's Sarsaparilla, and now gradually regain my usual weight and am in perfect health. I owe it all to Hood's Sarsaparilla."

Hood's Sarsaparilla. Instead of being dead now, I am alive and perfectly cured. I feel like a new woman. I weigh 140 lbs. and was 110 lbs. in perfect health. I owe it all to Hood's Sarsaparilla."
