AMUSEMENT NOTES

Plays to be Produced at Ferguson's Theatre.

"The Old Soldier" proved a decidedly interesting attraction at the Academy last evening. Peters is certainly great, he provided the audience with rich enjoyable amusement. The play gives good scope for his clever surroundings and they made the best of it.—Times, Scranton, Pa. "The Old Soldier" Company will appear at Ferguson's theatre to-morrow evening.

On Monday evening of next week Thos. E. Shea, who is known to the whole region as one of the best all-around actors on the boards, will open at Ferguson's theatre for a three-night stand. Shea is a great actor. There is no limit to his capabilities, and he will have them all with him. From the cast, as we have read it, the company is a most excellent one and fully capable of giving splendid support to the star in whom lead they follow. Great is Shea, great is his company, and great will be the pleasure afforded to the audience that will flock to see him next week. The opening bill will be that delightful comedy, "Mixed Up."

There are seven railroad melodramas on the road this season, but "The Fast Mail," the original, stands pre-eminent above them all. "The Fast Mail" will be produced at Ferguson's theatre on Thursday evening, April 29th.

FINE DRESS GOODS

DRESS GOODS is such a bewildering topic that we will not attempt a full description, but give a partial outline, which you can fill in by a personal inspection. There are the plain and changeable diagonals; plain, plaid, striped and invisible plaid serges; fancy mixtures in all sorts of odd weaves, dots, threads, cross-threads, hair-lines, lines here and there, many at a glance appearing alike, but upon examination are found entirely different. Our assortment of silks is complete—china silks, china surah, plain surah, bengaline, plain, figured and changeable silks, in all the new shot effects. Full line of fancy braids to match any color of dress goods.

....In Wraps

We find the most stylish and the prevailing mode to be the Cape, in some of its variations, single, double or triple capes. Some are plain, others very highly decorated, with fancy intricate braid, butterfly colors, or some full arrangement at the neck, so much approved this season by the feminine fancy. To some, coats only are the correct garment. To those we would say coats are equally fashionable and stylish, many of these having capes also attached—sometimes one, two or three, as the taste or inclination of the wearer may desire.

We have this season, for the first time, added a Millinery Department, and have spared neither trouble nor expense to make it a success. The result exceeds our most sanguine expectations. This department will be under the same management and conducted on the same principles that have always characterized our entire business. We shall keep everything in trimmed and untrimmed hats, novelties of every description. Having secured a trimmer noted for her artistic and skillful work, we are enabled to suit all tastes. We invite a careful inspection of our entire store. All welcome.
