After trying various remedies, I gave her Carters' Little Liver Pills. The first bottle seemed to relieve the disease, but the symptoms soon abated, and in a short time she was cured.

WHY FIELD RESIGNED.

He Thinks He Was Discourteously Treated.

THE OFFICIAL FACTS IN THE CASE.

Postmaster General Russell's Delay in Approving a Promotion Made by Philadelphia's Postmaster Given as the Cause of the Difficulty—No Discourtesy Intended, Other Washington News.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—First Assistant Postmaster General Evans, who, at the request of the postmaster general, will continue to discharge the duties of his office until his permanent successor is appointed, was questioned yesterday as to the facts connected with the resignation of Mr. Field, postmaster of Philadelphia. He said: "I have been advised that Postmaster Field has resigned because of alleged discourtesy treatment at the hands of Postmaster General Russell and myself. The facts, which in justice to the postmaster general should be given, are these:

"The superintendent of city delivery in Philadelphia died March 15th last. Postmaster Field a few days ago recommended for that position, a gentleman, whom I believe from the records of his bureau to equal in experience, capacity and energy to meet the requirements of that service. I presented the facts to the postmaster general and his approval of the proposed promotion was withheld for the time being, and the postmaster so notified.

"I took the necessary steps to place the department in possession of further and more definite information on the subject, but before receiving the information, Mr. Field's resignation was announced through the newspapers. I am quite sure there was no intention to be any way discourteous to the whole object of my action was to improve the efficiency of the service."

The New Minister to Turkey. WASHINGTON, April 14.—Alexander Watson Terrell, of Texas, who was yesterday notified to be minister to Turkey in succession to David P. Thompson, of Oregon, is a native of Virginia. He is about 65 years of age, and is a resident of Austin, the capital of Texas, where he occupies one of the finest residences in the city. He is the owner of a great ranch of 8,000 acres, lying about twelve miles out from Austin, where he spends most of his time. He is a man of fine culture, a graduate of the University of Missouri, his education being supplemented by a special course at Heidelberg. "Judge" Terrell, as he is known in his own state, is a fine orator, and thousands of people think he never had his equal in Texas. In local politics he has been an adherent of Governor Fogg, and his appointment was endorsed by both of the Texas senators, especially by Senator Mills, Speaker of the House, and Judge Terrell said in 1888: "He is a president whose general policies seem wise and democratic, but whose ideas regarding gold, the people of the south and will not approve. The president's recommendation to suspend the change of silver means practically to abolish silver as a circulating medium, to accomplish which proposition, bondholders and money monopolists are banding together against the interests of everybody else." The salary of the minister to Turkey is $10,000 per annum.

Against Senator Martin. WASHINGTON, April 14.—The senate was in session for only a brief hour yesterday and nearly half of that hour was spent in a heated discussion of a resolution introduced by Senator Martin, of Ohio, to amend the constitution of the United States so as to give the people of the several states the right to elect their representatives to congress. The resolution was introduced by Mr. Martin, and was referred to the committee on privileges and elections, declaring that Mr. Martin's election as senator had been affected by a house of representatives, ten of whose members had not been members of congress, and that the resolution was not legally and fairly passed.

The resolution reported Wednesday from the committee on privileges and elections for the investigation of that question came up again yesterday, but was, on objection by Mr. Harris, laid over till to-day. The motion for an executive session was refused by the regular members and was carried by a party vote. When the doors were reopened Mr. Chandler took the floor to speak on the French resolution, but he consented to defer his speech till to-day.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—Secretary Gresham said yesterday afternoon that the action of Minister Eglin, in forwarding an asylum to two of the revolutionists in Cuba, who had returned to Santiago, was the subject of correspondence by the department of state, but that in the absence of full information of all the facts in the case, there was nothing that he could say regarding the matter. Until that he received instructions from the guidance of Mr. Egan will be withheld.

Tins, of that place, because the latter objected to the suit of the young lawyer's father, a pilot at Tins' head, but the bullet only grazed his chest. Dury has escaped with the girl and officers are in pursuit.

Lily Larkin, 21. LILY LARKIN, 21.—Lily Larkin, the prettiest girl in the city, died yesterday afternoon at her home, but a few days ago she had an attack which lasted about twenty hours and it was believed that she could survive another day.
