THIRD EDITION

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Plays to be Produced at Ferguson's Theatre.
As an actor Mr. Shea is looked upon as being particularly talented and as a man who is bound to occupy a particularly high place in his profession. He is a prime favorite all over the country and particularly so in Shenandoah, and his three-night engagement promises to be exceedingly successful in every way. Monday evening Mr. Shea appears in "Mixed Up," one of his strongest and best plays and as it is replete with pleasing situations it is more than appropriate as the opening bill.

"THE FAST MAIL."
Lincoln J. Carter's superb scenic production, "The Fast Mail," which will be presented at Ferguson's theatre on Thursday evening, April 17th, by an excellent company, is one of the most successful plays put upon the stage in recent years. The story is thrilling, and justice is done the startling and realistic scenes by a perfection of mechanical effects. Among other reproductions is a representation of an engine room on a Mississippi river steamer, with the furnaces under the boilers fired up; a train of cars shoots across the stage in one scene, and in another there is a vivid, beautiful and awe inspiring representation of Niagara Falls by moonlight, with the singing waters and graceful mist that rises above and about it. The company is said to be excellent throughout.

Another Success.
The entertainment which was held in the All Saints' Protestant Episcopal church Wednesday evening, under the auspices of the Daisy Chain Society, was repeated last night with splendid success. The programme consisted of vocal and instrumental musical selections, recitations and tableaux and all who participated in the entertainment acquitted themselves very creditably. W. J. Jacobs and daughter, Nella, were encored for their rendition of "Puck-a-Boo" and Mr. Ed. Simmers' banjo solos were received in like manner. Special mention is due Misses Lucy Hughes, Nella Jacobs, Lizzie and Marietta Smith, Mame Beecher, Mattie Beach, Beatrice Haskins and Lizzie Golden for recitations; Messrs. T. Timmons and W. J. Jacobs for bass and tenor solo, and Misses Annie Downham, Mame Beecher and Daisy and Lucy Hughes for vocal selections. The tableaux were beautiful. Misses Elzbie Holman, Fay Kirlin and Nella Jacobs represented "Faith, Hope and Charity," and Miss May Holman, "Rock of Ages."

Said a noted man of 60 years, "my mother gave me Down's Elixir for coughs and colds when I was a boy."

PULLMAN CARS.
Reservation Accommodations for the Fair on the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company announces that arrangements have been perfected whereby passengers intending to go to Chicago may reserve their Pullman car accommodations in advance. Passengers taking a train at New York may reserve the requisite Pullman space one month in advance of departure, those from other points on the system two weeks in advance. This arrangement may be made upon application to ticket agents of the Pennsylvania Railroad, who, after securing the space, will deliver a reservation slip to the passenger. Passengers thus reserving space in advance will be required to purchase their tickets seven days before the date of departure, otherwise the reservation will be considered as forfeited.

Accommodations in Pullman cars for the return trip may also be secured upon application to ticket agents of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

This arrangement will prove a great benefit to visitors to the World's Fair.

HILL PAYS THE DEATH PENALTY.
Camden's Colored Murderer Dies on the Scaffold.

CAMDEN, N. J., April 14.—John Hill, the youthful colored murderer, was hanged in the jail here to-day.

The scaffold on which Hill paid the death penalty was constructed especially for the occasion from designs furnished by Sheriff Henry West. It was a substantial affair and was erected by Charles Smith, a contractor of Gloucester City. When tested last week it worked perfectly. The scaffold was erected yesterday in the jail building.

The crime for which Hill was executed was the murder of Joseph Dodson, in October last. After his conviction Hill confessed being guilty of the crime and exonerated Reed and Derrickson, the two saloonkeepers who, it was at first supposed, conspired with Hill to take Dodson's life. The execution passed off without special incident.

SHE HELD ONE OF THE THIEVES.
A Nery New York Woman Captures a Bold Bad Criminal.

NEW YORK, April 14.—Three men entered a jewelry store at No. 219 Madison street and asked to be shown some watches. When a tray of gold timepieces was placed before them, each man grabbed a watch and started for the door.

Two of the men got away, but the third was seized by Mrs. Anna Schudsky, wife of the proprietor, who was waiting on them, and she held him despite his struggles until the arrival of a policeman. In Essex police court yesterday he described himself as William Harris and was held for trial.

THE PROMINENT DEAD.

Wilson de Meza, the famous artist, died at Laurel House, Lakewood, N. Y., of consumption.

Major L. G. Calmes, widely known as a stockman and capitalist, died in Pontiac, Ill., of heart disease.

Miss Kitty Arline, one of the dancers in Rice's "Surprise Party," Philadelphia, died suddenly in that city.

Noble W. Clark, for many years a hotel proprietor in Sandy Hill, N. C., and the last of the stage drivers on the route from Whiteshall in Albany before the introduction of railroads, died of apoplexy.

BE AIN' NOTHING FOR THREE MONTHS.
BETHLEHEM, April 14.—Deanda Mulhearn died yesterday at the Northampton county almshouse. He suffered from paralysis of the lower extremities but had no sense three months without eating anything. His disease was regarded with great curiosity by physicians.

STOCK AND PRODUCE MARKET.

And So It Goes!

When Sewing Machines are mentioned the name of the STANDARD rises instinctively to the lips. Why? Because it will sew as much in four hours as others do in five. Because it is a labor-saver, and makes less noise than any machine on the market. Try no attention to the disparaging talk of our competitors, as that only proves that it is their most dangerous rival. Call and see it for yourself.

Grand Display of FINE DRESS GOODS

DRESS GOODS is such a bewildering topic that we will not attempt a full description, but give a partial outline, which you can fill in by a personal inspection. There are the plain and changeable diagonals; plain, plaid, striped and invisible plaid serges; fancy mixtures in all sorts of odd weaves, dots, threads, cross-threads, hair-lines, lines here and there, many at a glance appearing alike, but upon examination are found entirely different. Our assortment of silks is complete—china silks, china surah, plain surah, bengaline, plain, figured and changeable silks, in all the new shot effects. Full line of fancy braids to match any color of dress goods.

....In Wraps We find the most stylish and the prevailing mode to be the Cape, in some of its variations. Some are plain, others very highly decorated, with fancy inebriant braid, butterfly colors, or some full arrangement at the neck, so much approved this season by the feminine fancy. To some, coats only are the correct garment. To those we would say coats are equally fashionable and stylish, many of these having capes also attached—sometimes one, two or three, as the taste or inclination of the wearer may desire.

We have this season, for the first time, added a Millinery Department, and have spared neither trouble nor expense to make it a success. The result exceeds our most sanguine expectations. This department will be under the same management and conducted on the same principles that have always characterized our entire business. We shall keep everything in trimmed and untrimmed hats, novelties of every description. Having secured a trimmer noted for her artistic and skillful work, we are enabled to suit all tastes. We invite a careful inspection of our entire store. All welcome.
