THIRD EDITION

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Plays to be Produced at Ferguson's Theatre.

On Monday evening of next week, Thos. E. Shea, who is known to the whole region as one of the best all-around actors on the boards, will open at Ferguson's theatre for a three-night stand. Shea is a great actor. There is no limit to his capabilities, and he will have them all with him. From the cast, as we have read it, the company is a most excellent one and fully capable of giving splendid support to the star in whose lead they follow. Great is Shea, great is his company, and great will be the pleasure afforded to the audience that will flock to see him next week. The opening bill will be that delightful comedy, "Mixed Up."

"THE FAST MAIL"

There are seven railroad melodramas on the road this season, but "The Fast Mail," the original, stands pre-eminent above them all. "The Fast Mail" will be produced at Ferguson's theatre on Thursday evening, April 20th.

Prevention Better Than Cure.

Many persons are afflicted with skin eruptions, boils or ulcers. Brandt's Pills taken freely will in a short time effect a complete cure of all such troubles. Ulcers of long standing have been cured by them. Carbuncles have been checked in their incipency by them. The worst fever sores, bed sores, and the like have been driven from the skin by them. Only begin to time and a few of Brandt's Pills will prevent many a sickness. Brandt's Pills are purely vegetable, absolutely harmless, and safe to take at any time.

His face and hands suffered terribly and all the hair was burned from his head. Skanowicz said he went up the breast with a safety lamp to try the gas and it ignited. He went to the Miners' Hospital this afternoon.

Sportsmen on Deck.

The trout season opened to-day and that accounted for the absence of a number of our townsmen, several of whom left last night in order to be at the streams by daylight. Dr. Stein returned this afternoon and said scores of fishermen are out with their lines and rods.

And So It Goes!
When Sewing Machines are mentioned the name of the STANDARD rises instinctively to the lips. Why? Because it will sew as much in four hours as others do in five. Because it is a labor-saver, and makes less noise than any machine on the market. Pay no attention to the disparaging talk of our competitors, as that only proves that it is their most dangerous rival. Call and see it for yourself.

Grand Display of FINE DRESS GOODS

DRESS GOODS is such a bewildering topic that we will not attempt a full description, but give a partial outline, which you can fill in by a personal inspection. There are the plain and changeable diagonals; plain, plaid, striped and invisible plaid serges; fancy mixtures in all sorts of odd weaves, dots, threads, cross-threads, hair-lines, lines here and there, many at a glance appearing alike, but upon examination are found entirely different. Our assortment of silks is complete—china silks, china surah, plain surah, bengaline, plain, figured and changeable silks, in all the new shot effects. Full line of fancy braids to match any color of dress goods.

....In Wraps We find the most stylish and the prevailing mode to be the Cape, in some of its variations. Some are plain, others very highly decorated, with fancy indecent braid, butterfly colors, or some full arrangement at the neck, so much approved this season by the feminine fancy. To some, coats only are the correct garment. To those we would say coats are equally fashionable and stylish, many of these having capes also attached—sometimes one, two or three, as the taste or inclination of the wearer may desire.

We have this season, for the first time, added a Millinery Department, and have spared neither trouble nor expense to make it a success. The result exceeds our most sanguine expectations. This department will be under the same management and conducted on the same principles that have always characterized our entire business. We shall keep everything in trimmed and untrimmed hats, novelties of every description. Having secured a trimmer noted for her artistic and skillful work, we are enabled to suit all tastes. We invite a careful inspection of our entire store. All welcome.
