AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Plays to be Produced at Ferguson's Theatre.

Thos. E. Shea and his own excellent company of actors, singers, dancers and comedians, commences a three-night engagement at Ferguson's theatre (this Monday evening, April 17th). Shea comes to us this season better equipped than ever before. "Mixed Up," the delightful comedy, will be given this evening. The play and company is looked upon as one of the best that visits this city. The repertoire for this engagement will be Shea's three great successes: To-night "Mixed Up," Tuesday, "Escaped from Sing Sing," Wednesday, "Barred Out."

"THE FAST MAIL."
Lincoln J. Carter, author and manager of "The Fast Mail," has written and produced six melodramas, all of which have proved artistic and financial successes. "The Fast Mail" will be produced at Ferguson's theatre on Thursday evening, April 20th.

Flag Fancies.
Blount's name should have been blint. That American flag should have never come down.

It was enough to make an American's blood boil.

They won't "Bally around the (American) flag" in Honolulu now.

We might have been saved the disgrace of pulling down the emblem of the free if the American voter had known what was to follow the voting for a change.

Blount has flagged the American spirit of patriotism.

THE G. A. R. FAIR.

A Feast for Eyes and Ears Will be Ready Wednesday Night.

After several weeks of hard work on the part of several committees the arrangements for the Grand Army fair are in such a condition as to warrant a positive announcement that the doors will be thrown open next Wednesday evening. The fair will be held in Robbins' opera house and will continue two weeks. The object is a worthy one namely: to raise funds for the replenishment of the widows' and orphans' fund of Watkin Waters Post, No. 146. This fund has been of invaluable service to the widows and families of veterans of the civil war and there is nothing that appeals stronger to the good will of the public.

The committees have spared no time or expense in making the arrangements for this fair and the public will find it a source of splendid pastime while it remains open. The hall will be elaborately decorated and the floor will be studded with handsome booths of unique designs where the patrons will have the privilege of purchasing pretty souvenirs of the occasion. In addition to these attractions there will be a concert and entertainment on the stage every evening, and in order that they shall not become monotonous there will be a nightly change of programme. Refreshments of all kinds will also be at hand for any who may desire them. Remember that the fair opens next Wednesday night.

PASSED AN ENORMOUS ICE BERG.

Reports Brought in by the British Bark Ariadne.

LONDON, April 17.—The British bark Ariadne has arrived here from Tacoma. She confirms the reports heretofore received of the phenomenal ice-drift from the Antarctic Ocean.

On January 17, in latitude 50 degrees south, longitude 45 degrees west, which is some 200 miles west of Wellington Island, off the southern part of the Chilian coast, the Ariadne arrived off the tail of an iceberg, or more properly, an ice floe, which extended farther than the eye could see. The Ariadne cleared the northern end of the ice after sailing along its front for thirty miles and shaped her course for Cape Horn.

Many other icebergs were seen but none was of such enormous proportions as the one referred to.

BADLY SCALDED ON SHIPBOARD.

A Passenger on the Steamship New York meets with a Painful Accident.

New York, April 17.—It was learned on the arrival of the steamship New York, that Mrs. Romero, wife of Cayetano Romero, Mexican Consul at Paris, and sister-in-law of the Mexican Minister at Washington, had been severely scalded on the steamer's outward trip by the bursting of a steam pipe in her room. When the steamer arrived at Southampton she was unable to walk and had to be transferred to a hospital, where she now is.

Friday morning an explosion of coal gas occurred in the coal bunkers of the steamer, and Engineer Conway and a helper were badly burned.

When Sewing Machines are mentioned the name of the STANDARD rises instinctively to the lips. Why? Because it will sew as much in four hours as others do in five. Because it is a labor-saver, and makes less noise than any machine on the market. Pay no attention to the disparaging talk of our competitors, as that only proves that it is their most dangerous rival. Call and see it for yourself.

OBJECTED TO THE INJUNCTION.

A New York Property Owner Objects to the Construction of a Tunnel.

New York, April 17.—Ex-Secretary Tracy, as counsel for the Atlantic Avenue Railroad Company, was in the supreme court, Brooklyn, before Judge Bartlett, on Saturday in opposition to a motion for an injunction against the company.

Joseph J. Barke, the owner of the property at 509 First street, asked to have the company enjoined from constructing a feed tunnel from their power house along First street to Third, Fifth, Seventh and Ninth avenues. The plaintiff objected to the tunnel because he claimed that it would interfere with the gas and water pipes; and also on the ground that there would be danger from the electric tunnel. Judge Bartlett adjourned the case for further hearing next Wednesday.

Stranded on the Jersey Coast.

AMERY PARK, N. J., April 17.—During the storm which prevailed along the upper New Jersey coast Saturday the schooner R. O. McGill was stranded on the beach a short distance north of the inlet at Manasquan. The crew, the captain and three men, embarked in one of the small boats and reached the shore with great difficulty, as the surf was running very high. She was on her way to Keyport with a cargo of seal oysters from Chesapeake bay. The total loss is $4,200.

This Will Must Not be Contested.

New York, April 15.—The will of Johann Sophie Eilers, a widow, who died on March 16, has been filed for probate. About $50,000 is distributed among relatives. This is one of the clauses of the will: "Should any one of the legatees contest, or attempt to contest, this, my last will and testament, or prevent in any way its probate, may the curse of God descend upon them."

More Arrivals at Hampton Roads.

FOREIGNERS MONROE, April 18.—Two new vessels arrived at Hampton Roads yesterday to participate in the naval review—the Giovanni Battista and the Jean Bart, making seventeen men-of-war now in the harbor. The Giovanni Battista is not a stranger to American waters, having participated in last review in New York, but her arrival was nevertheless the occasion for much ceremony.

Grand Display of FINE DRESS GOODS

DRESS GOODS is such a bewildering topic that we will not attempt a full description, but give a partial outline, which you can fill in by a personal inspection. There are the plain and changeable diagonals; plain, plaid, striped and invisible plaid serges; fancy mixtures in all sorts of odd weaves, dots, threads, cross-threads, hair-lines, lines here and there, many at a glance appearing alike, but upon examination are found entirely different. Our assortment of silks is complete—china silks, china surah, plain surah, bengaline, plain, figured and changeable silks, in all the new shot effects. Full line of fancy braids to match any color of dress goods.

....In Wraps
We find the most stylish and the prevailing mode to be the Cape, in some of its variations. Some are plain, others very highly decorated, with fancy iridescent braid, butterfly colors, or some full arrangement at the neck, so much approved this season by the feminine fancy. To some, coats only are the correct garment. To those we would say coats are equally fashionable and stylish, many of these having capes also attached—sometimes one, two or three, as the taste or inclination of the wearer may desire.

We have this season, for the first time, added a Millinery Department, and have spared neither trouble nor expense to make it a success. The result exceeds our most sanguine expectations. This department will be under the same management and conducted on the same principles that have always characterized our entire business. We shall keep everything in trimmed and untrimmed hats, novelties of every description. Having secured a trimmer noted for her artistic and skillful work, we are enabled to suit all tastes. We invite a careful inspection of our entire store. All welcome.
