A 10-Year-Old Boy Falls 400 Feet Down a Stope at Oneida Colliery and is Instantly Killed-Augustus Dry Burned to Death-A Decision in Payor of the State Against Philadelphia County.

HARDISECRO, April 18,-In the matter f the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania va. the city and county of Philadelphia, Judge Simonton yesterday rendered an opinion in which the defense will pay over to the state the sum of $887,898.55. This is a closing of litigation growing out of the malfewance of John Bardsley while he was city treasurer, he having as the fiscal agent of that city collected this money, but failed to pay it into the treasury of the state. On the principal well established in law that the principal in a transaction is responsible for the action of an agent Philadelphia is held to pay this money into the state trensmry which its agent, John Bardaley, pur loined from its treasury.

The application was for the purpose of suit of Thomas C. Platt.

The application was for the purpose of having the coupons of 1892 and 1893 on the first and second preference bonds enshed upon depositing all prior coupons in the registry of the court instead of surrendering them to the company, so that the rights of the complainants would be protected in the pending litigation.

The master says the petitioners are entitled to payment of their coupons maturing relevanty 1, 1892, and also the coupons maturing February 1, 1893, upon deposit

Burned to Death by a Camp Pire. READERO, April 18.—Augustus Dry, of this city, in company with several comthis city, in company with several com-panions, started on a fishing trip to Mill-most, several miles down the Schuyikill, where they expected to spend Sunday. They built a fire, the sir being raw and chilly. As Dry was feeling tired, he laid down to steen near the fire, and during the absence of his companions the wind drove the blaze towards him and ignited his clothing, burning him in a horrible manner. Several of his toos were burned off, while the skin of his toes were burned off, while the skin on his legs and body hung in shreds. The man was brought to the Resding hospital in a wagon, but died several hours after being admitted to that institution. Hs was 42 years of age, and had been married three times. HERE. Dear Sir:—I was an invalid for years, suffering from kidney trouble and female weakness. Physicians prescribed for me and I took various remedies, but to benefit resulted. Our daily paper noticed the success of Dr. Bavid Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, of Rondout, N. Y., in cases similar to my own. I purchased it. The first bottle taken in small doses, but very regular, improved me wonderfully. My complexion eleared, appetite improved, sheep was sound and refreshing, and a little further use entirely cured me. There never was a medicine for woman-kind, like Favorite Remedy. With all my heart, let me urge them to me it. Relief will be the result.'
