THE NEWS OF THE DAY!

THE SCHOOL BOARD HOLDS A SPECIAL MEETING.

ANOTHER NEW SCHOOL BUILDING

It will be a frame structure of six rooms including accommodations for the school directors—other items.

SCHOOL Directors Brennan, Conry, Hauna, Gable, Ogden, Burke, Bachman, O'Hearn, Trezise, Muldoon and Gallagher attended a special meeting in the Superintendent's office last evening to consider a report of the building and repairs committee relative to the building of additional quarters on the vacant lot at the rear of the West Centre street school building. At one time it was intended to put a building at the rear of the High School building for a grammar school, library and directors' room, but that idea was abandoned.

The committee presented plans prepared by Mr. Reilly, an architect of Pottsville, providing for the erection of a brick connecting addition to the West Centre street building consisting of six rooms, one to be used as a meeting room for the directors. Superintendent Freeman suggested other plans. He favored the erection of a six-room frame building on the Centre street lot and urged that to have the structure independent of the old would afford more light and better satisfaction in every way. After considerable discussion the board instructed the building and repairs committee to notify the architect to prepare plans on the ideas suggested by Mr. Freeman and when they are ready the board will hold a special meeting to consider them.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. O. A. Keim spent to-day at Pottsville. Constable Boland went fishing this morning. S. D. Hess was among the visitors to the county seat yesterday. Mrs. J. S. Williams spent to-day visiting friends at Mahanoy City. Mrs. T. D. Davis, of North Jardin street, went to Mahanoy City to-day to visit friends. Charles Lyons, traveling freight agent for the Lehigh Valley fast freight line, was in town to-day. Miss Sue H. Daniell, of Shamokin, is visiting her brother, James Daniell, of North White street. Mrs. J. M. Robbins and Miss Maggie Jacoby went to Philadelphia this morning to spend a few days. The late Silas Thompson was a member of Plank Ridge Lodge No. 890, I. O. O. F., instead of Shenandoah Lodge. Alfred Hoover, elder of the Presbyterian church, went to Easton to-day to attend the meeting of the Lehigh Presbytery. Dr. Hochstetler, who had his office in Shappin's drug store, returned to New York to-day to accept a position with an insurance company. Ross J. Thomas, of West Coal street, was tendered a surprise party on Monday night in honor of his 53rd anniversary. About twenty couples enjoyed the festivities. Miss Jessie McDonald, of Providence, R. I., who was the guest of her uncle, James Daniell, of North White street, for several weeks, has left for her home delighted with the results of the visit.

Of Interest to Buyers.

Max Schmidt has not moved into his spacious and elegant new quarters on North Main street yet, the improvements need a few more finishing touches before the removal can be made. Meanwhile Mr. Schmidt is disposing of his stock at his old quarters on South Main street and is selling dry goods and notions at ten per cent. off on the dollar. Secure bargains now and also be ready for the grand opening.

When you are troubled with dizziness your appetite all gone, and you feel bad generally, take a few doses of Dr. Henry Taylor's Mandrake Bitters, and you will be surprised at the improvement in your feelings. Every bottle warranted to give satisfaction.

Taught a Lesson.

Grzegorz Skrobulis was arrested yesterday afternoon for making an indecent public exposure of his person at the lower end of Main street. Squire Shoemaker imposed a fine which, with the costs, amounted to $8.17. As Skrobulis was unable to pay he was committed to the lockup to spend five days.

A Card.

Owing to alterations I want to make in my building, preparatory to the opening of the additional branches of dry goods and carpets to my present business, I am now offering all of the present stock in the building at an immense reduction for cash only, so please don't ask for credit.

Respectfully,
J. J. FRANKY.

A Workman Killed.

John Hardinger, a rear coal train brakeman on the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad, was killed at 9 o'clock last night by falling beneath his train at the North Mahanoy colliery, at Mahanoy City. Hardinger resided at Mahanoy Place and left a wife and two children.

THE WORLD'S FAIR.

Many of our people are asking, "What will it cost to see the Columbian Exposition?" The editor of the HERALD's teachers' contest has arrived at various estimates upon reliable information which he has gleaned. As the Exposition grounds cover 700 acres, containing fifty-two exposition State buildings, besides those of foreign nations, the live stock exhibit and a number of exhibits which are outside, such as Esquimaux and other villages, which may be termed side shows, twenty-one in number, it is not probable that one person can cover the ground in a day. Suppose he can, the itemized account is as follows: Admission to grounds and buildings, 50 cents; side shows, $5.25; electric boat, 25 cents; elevated railway, 10 cents; alighting railway, 10 cents; ice railway, 10 cents; luncheon, 50 cents; round trip fare from city by rail or water, 25 cents; total, $7.05.

For a man of ordinary means living in Shenandoah and who decides to devote one week to visiting the Fair the following table of expenses is made up: Railroad (round trip) $30; sleeping-car berth (round trip) $10; room, $6; meals in Chicago, $5; admission to grounds, $5; side shows, $5.25; electric boats, elevated, sliding and ice railroads, 55 cents; one trip to and from grounds on lake steamer, 25 cents; five trips on street car, 50 cents; total, $94.55.

Rheumatism is quickly cured by using Arnica and Oil Liniment.

Fair to-night. Robbins' opera house. "Green goods" don't seem to take in town. Bean soup and hard tack at the G. A. R. fair this evening.

A large number of our citizens will visit New York next week to witness the naval review.

A Polish frolic on North Bowers street, yesterday afternoon, made it quite lively in that neighborhood.

Post 114, G. A. R., will be inspected by Assistant Inspector Abbott, of Port Carbon, on Friday evening, 28th inst.

The most intelligent of our foreign population, those who are of a saving disposition and hard money, have gotten into their heads that gold is getting scarce and will sooner or later command a premium, are exchanging their paper money for the yellow metal.

Go to the Grand Army fair to-night. We have always said that Shenandoah was the best "sucker" town in the country and we still adhere to the statement. Hundreds of dollars are being sent to Chicago and other places every week by our hard working people who hate at the alluring lulls held out to them.

USE DANA'S SARSAPARILLA, ITS "THE KIND THAT CURES."

Commences To-night. The Grand Army fair will open to-night, Robbins' opera house, where it is to be held, has been handsomely decorated for the occasion and the display of fancy and useful articles will be very fine. The ladies have gone to considerable trouble in getting up this affair and we hope to see their efforts appreciated by a large turnout. It will be continued for several days.

OUR POTTSVILLE LETTERS

ONE ON POLITICS THE OTHER ON COURT DOINGS.

SOME VERY INTERESTING TOPICS

The Chances of Wadlinger for the Judgeship—Muldoon's Candidacy for County Treasurer.

Special HERALD correspondence.

POTTSVILLE, April 15. If all signs do not fail the prediction made in your columns on Thursday last that "there will be a Kilkenny fight when the Democratic convention meets" is just as sure to be verified as that the circulation of the HERALD has more than tripled since the inauguration of its World's Fair teachers' contest. The nationality, known as the Irish-American element, which predominates in the Democratic organization of this county, are jumping into the melee quite lively and when the rows and ructions begin in earnest it will be a Dunnybrook fair with the command—"Whenever you see a head hit it—"

But it should be borne in mind that to nominate the above ticket and make it a winner, the Shenandoah post office middle must be first fixed up by agreeing on a unanimous recommendation of J. K. P. Scully for the appointment. Without this is done our friends, the enemy, will all be at sea again.

ANOTHER POTTSVILLE LETTER

This One Refers to Proceedings at the Court.

POTTSVILLE, April 15.—The weekly sessions of motion court opened Monday morning with Judges Bechtel and Weidman on the bench. Judge Bechtel disposed of a number of opinions and then Judge Weidman followed with the reading of his opinion on the petition to set aside the election held in the Shenandoah water case. The HERALD was the only paper that yesterday gave this important opinion in full.

Judge Bechtel disposed of the injunction prayed for by M. P. Fowler, et al., in the same case. The opinion was oral, following the reasons set forth by Judge Weidman, and refused the injunction. There was close attention during the reading of the opinions as those cases have aroused much interest throughout the county. The contest was waged by counsel on both sides with exceptional ability. The same battle, it would seem, will be fought in Mahanoy City. There the Borough Council have advertised for bids for the erection of borough water works and on Monday D. C. Henning and John W. Ryan, Esqs., asked for an injunction to restrain the Council from receiving bids. The court took the papers. M. C. Reinhold and George W. Wadlinger, Esqs., represent the borough.

The court has granted a charter to St. Anthony's Roman Catholic Society of Mahanoy City. The retail liquor license of B. J. Yost at East Mahanoy Junction has been transferred to Silas Hoffmeyer.

Frank Leno, of Gilberton through his counsel, M. M. Burke, Esq., obtained a transfer of the license of John Hotopis in Shenandoah.

The Butler township schools imbrigo was in court again Monday. A bill in equity was presented asking for a rule to show cause why an injunction should not issue restraining certain teachers from teaching. An answer was also made to the bill presented a week ago seeking the reinstatement of School Director Nelson, who was "hounded" by the majority.

By consent of counsel, Messrs. Bechtel, Burke and Pomeroy, the Green license case argument went over to Monday next.

Attorneys Seltzer and Schalk exchanged severe compliments in the argument of the Dande trespass case from Shenandoah.

Application was made on Monday for the transfer of the retail liquor licenses of Michael Curley and William P. Delaney, of Shenandoah. Judge Weidman took the papers.

The Monday afternoon session of court was taken up with arguments for an injunction to restrain the erection of dynamite works on Messer Run in Union township, and the petition for the dissolution of the German Beneficial Society of Girardville. M. E. F.

of your restless political pushers, who always wants office and is never without one, and dips his toes into the mess and sets it going. The result is the announcement that Judge Weidman is to have no walk-over in the Democratic convention, but no less a personage than George J. Wadlinger, the party's nominee of 1891, is now a full-fledged candidate and, as he has the organization at his back and because many of his former opposers regret their action in voting for his opponent two years ago and want to set themselves right this time, Mr. W. will carry off the prize to be given out this year, the goal of which is a ten years' seat on the bench. This time Wadlinger will be elected if he gets the nomination, unless the ticket he goes on is over-crowded with too many of one nationality and the candidates should happen to be mostly from one section. A ticket suggests itself which would insure George's success beyond a question and if the nomination of it could be reversed by commencing at the bottom he would win both nomination and election.

For Judge—George J. Wadlinger, Pottsville.

For Treasurer—H. J. Muldoon, Shenandoah.

For Prothonotary—Sol. Cleaver Kick, Pottsville.

For Recorder—Henry Scheurman, Mahanoy City.

For Register—Ed. Hummel, Pinegrove.

For Court Clerk—John Reber, Pottsville.

For Commissioner—Jere. Seitzinger, Pottsville.

For Commissioner—P. J. Ferguson, West Mahanoy township.

For Poor Director—Pierre Coudan, Port Carbon.

And anybody at all for Auditors.
