AT KEITER'S

THE VETERANS' FAIR OPEN

IT WAS FORMALLY OPENED LAST NIGHT.

THERE ARE MANY ATTRACTIONS.

The Women's Relief Corps and Ladies' Aid Society have all things in excellent order. The result last night.

RARE treat is in store for any one who will spare a few minutes to visit Robbins' open house and view the many attractions of the fair now in progress there under the auspices of Watkins Waters Post, No. 149, G. A. R. The fair opened last night and although the rain deterred many people from leaving their homes, quite a number made their way to see the treat prepared by the veterans and their wives and daughters.

The hall is elaborately decorated with the national colors in forms of flags, bunting and banners, and above the inner entrance, along the galleries and above and about the booths there is an abundance of beautifully colored streamers and wreaths. There are seven booths on the floor and all are loaded down with everything imaginable pleasing to the eye, and suitable for household purposes. Large, comfortable rocking chairs of the latest style, handsome rugs, beautiful satin, silk and plush pillows, lovely pictures and frames, novelties for the mantel, great old-fashioned quilts, cloths, and an immeasurable quantity of other articles, beside wearing apparel for the young and old hang about the booths and rest upon the tables. One of the features of the confectionery booth is a large, handsomely ornamented fruit cake donated by W. V. Otto, the confectioner. Several tempting offers for this cake were refused last night because the management has not decided upon a method for disposing of it. It has been suggested that it be offered as a prize for a grand cake walk.

The booths are arranged on the north and south sides of the hall and are in charge of the following committees: Stand No. 1, Mrs. Sarah Richards, Mrs. Lizzie Tosh and Mrs. Lena Shane, No. 2, Mrs. Casie Lewis, Mrs. Jane Lang, Mrs. Mary Davidson, Mrs. Clara Spears and Mrs. Catherine Rogers, No. 3, Mrs. Pierce Walker, Mrs. Lizzie Townsend, Mrs. Jane Morgan and Mrs. Laura Goodhead, No. 4, Mrs. Amelia Otto, Mrs. Clara Price, Mrs. Mary Stauffenberger, Mrs. Maria Gibson and Mrs. Morgan Brown, No. 5, Mrs. Emma Fiest, Mrs. Ruth Hopkins, Mrs. Annie Brown and Mrs. Clara Waters, No. 6, Mrs. Pauline Boyer, Mrs. Bella Bowman, Mrs. Helene and Mrs. Kate McCutcheon, No. 7, Mrs. Lillie Daddow, Mrs. Lizzie Bartsch and Mrs. Sarah Troutman.

All these ladies are members of the Women's Relief Corps, which is auxiliary to the G. A. R., or the Ladies' Aid Society, auxiliary to the Sons of Veterans, and they have worked hard to make the fair attractive for everybody in order that the receipts may be swelled to the highest figure possible and the widows' and orphans' fund of the G. A. R. may be substantially replenished.

Last night the Grant Band volunteered its services and announced the opening of the fair by giving a street parade and a concert at the hall. The Grant Band is one of the warmest friends the veterans have and it showed this last night by giving an excellent programme of music.

In order to add to the attractions the management of the fair has arranged to give an entertainment on the stage every evening, for which no extra charge will be made.

Those who may desire refreshments while at the fair will find an abundant supply of that good, old fashioned, savory, Grand Army style of bean soup which is nicely served by a committee of the veterans and the Women's Relief Corps.

Two things which attracted much attention on the stage last night were a handsome portrait of the lamented old war veteran, Winfield Scott Hancock, which rested in a beautiful frame and was presented by Conrade W. A. Keagy, the photographer, and a "Standard" sewing machine placed there by T. B. Shaffer. All patrons of the fair will have a chance to secure the picture and machine.

One of the handsome rocking chairs on exhibition was donated by J. P. Williams & Son.

As an additional inducement to patrons the management of the fair presents to each visitor upon entering a numbered ticket and before the fair closes each evening one holder of such tickets receives a handsome prize, which was in the form of an order for a ton of coal last night and Mrs. John Daddow, of North Jardin street, held the lucky ticket.

WORLD'S FAIR.

The musical features of the ceremonies opening the Exposition on May 1, include "Columbus March and Hymn," by Prof. John K. Pane; "In Praise of God," Beethoven, and "Hallelujah Chorus," Handel. The composers to be represented on the program dedicating the Women's building of the Exposition are Ingobry Von Brouard, of Weimar, Germany, march for orchestra; Miss Frances Elliott, of London, England, dramatic overture; Mrs. H. H. A. Beach, of Boston, Mass., "Jubilate," for mixed voices and orchestra, and orchestra, written for the occasion. A chorus of 1,500 voices, orchestra and military band will participate in the ceremonies opening the Exposition. A mixed chorus of 300 voices and orchestra will take part in the program dedicating the Woman's building. The exercises will be held in Music Hall.

The dedication of the grand Turkish mosque in Midway Plaisance will be the first ceremony of its kind ever performed outside the confines of Turkey. Robert Levy, of Constantinople, who holds patents from the Sultan, has extended invitations to all nobles of the Ancient Arabic Order of the Mystic Shrine to be present at the ceremonies which will be held Friday, April 25.

INITIATORY CONTEST.

THE SONS OF AMERICA HAVE A PRESENT TIME.

There was an initiatory contest in the room of W. C. No. 460, P. O. S. of A., at Mahanay City, last evening between the teams of Camp 281, of Gilberton, and Camp 72, of Lehighton. Both teams went through the work without the aid of a ritual. S. L. Brown, of Camp 112, of town, J. H. Eisenhower, of Camp 124, Mahanay City, and A. J. Hay, of Camp 66, Frackville, acted as judges and decided in favor of the Gilberton team, which went through the beautiful new ritual of the order with the omission of but one sentence. The judges paid the Delano team a high compliment. The visitors present represented Camps 68, 72, 112, 125, 167, 265 and 284. Camp 125, of Girardville, will have an initiation next Wednesday with the full paraphernalia, and all members of the order are invited to attend.

ELECTRIC RAILWAY NEWS.

THE COMPANY PURSES ITS POLICY AGAINST DISTURBERS.

There are some people who are not sufficiently convinced that their conduct while passengers on the Schuylkill Traction Company's lines is subject to restriction. One of these people, Thomas McGinty, was taken before "Squire" May at Mahanay City by Special Officer Amour and fined last night Amour took James Dougherty and Anthony O'Donnell before "Squire" Cardin. Amour is on the lookout for three others.

The summer cars are being placed on trucks and fixed up for the summer traffic.

It was expected that the Mahanay-Plains Girardville branch would be opened for general traffic next Sunday, but owing to the delay in the arrival of the connections for the new large dynamo at the power house, the opening may be postponed for another week.

MARRIED AT PHILADELPHIA.

William J. James, of South Jardin street, the efficient clerk at the Cambridge colliery, left yesterday for Philadelphia, where he will take unto himself a partner for life. The fortunate young lady is Miss Mattie C. Rogers, of Frackville, and the ceremonies occurred to-day in the City of Brotherly Love. Mr. and Mrs. James will reside in Frackville for the present, until arrangements are made to permanently locate in this town. The bridal party were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents and have the good wishes of a large circle of friends for a happy voyage through life. The HERALD wishes to be numbered among the latter.
