THE past year's profile from the gambling tables at Monte Carlo were 24,000,000 france. No broakings of the bank can ever be sufficient recompense for the broken lives involved in the making up of these wast re-Lurns.

In will be a decided comfort to tours ists who travel with trunks to learn that the rall way authorities have issund an order which makes it obligatory on bargage haudlers to deal more marefully with the trunks entrusted to them. Trunk making ingenuity has been taxed to its u most to effect the building of a trank for travelers that would withstaud the shamefully abusics breatmont usually given the receptules in which the clothing and other valuable matters belonging to travelers are usually contained. But the effort has proved a deal failure. Trunk makers have of course not been to blame for this, nelther have they been finding fault with this truamashing business. It is monor in their pockets all the time and they know it. Their business has prospered greatly, and largely at the expense of the traveling public, "Those who have taken the trouble to note the manner in which trunks are generally handled by baggage men at rallroad stations and in cars cannot but have folt examperated at the otter lack of care displayed by the sumshers,

A GREAT VIOTORY.

The working men of Belgium have won the day. Their courage and devotion have wrested from the Government the right of manhood suffrage. The concession is not all it ought to be, it is true. It is marred by a provision for plural voting by those owning property, graduated according to the amount they possess. But the solid principle of manhood suffrage being established, it is certain that all encroachments on the right of equal auffrage will soon be eradicated. The concessions carries with it the power by which all remaining abuses will by which all remaining nouses will be gradually swept away. The Chamber of Representatives receiled from its stubbern resistance to the popular will. What was denied to justice was conceded to fear.
