HAPPENINGS IN MANY LOCALITIES.

A New Foundry Company Chartered at Harrisburg—John McKean Cut in Two by a Train at St. Clair—Fatal Wreck on the Pennsylvania Railroad—Other Important State Happenings.

ALLENTOWN, April 21.—The whereabouts of Cora Stout and Annie Wagner, two young girls who were enticed from here a few days ago by a well-dressed man, was learned, when a telegram was received from Superintendent Linden, of Philadelphia, that the girls were in custody there and would be held until the arrival of Allentown officers. Detective Smith went to Philadelphia and returned with the Stout girl, the says when they reached Philadelphia the stranger requested them to follow him and enter the place he went into. "We followed him for some time," she says, "when I concluded not to go any farther, and finally made application in an intelligence office for a position as a hired girl. While wandering about the city, I accidentally met Annie Wagner, and shortly afterwards was arrested. I am glad to get back, and hope my parents will forgive me."

Changes in the National Guard.

HARRISBURG, April 21.—The Nestlé military bill to complete the battalion organization of the National Guard of the state, recently re-committed to the house military committee, was discussed before the committee yesterday by Adjutant General Greenleaf, Brigadier General Wiley and Colonel, Colonel Case and O'Neill, and Captain Jones, of the Sheridan Troop. The bill was amended so as to limit the number of battalions to two in each regiment, with an adjutant and sergeant major to each battalion. The officers are to be appointed by the major, and approved by the regimental command, reducing the annual appropriation to Division headquarters for expenses from $1,000 to $700; increasing the allowance for the same purpose to brigade headquarters from $300 to $400; providing for an allowance of $100 annually for that headquarters; and reducing the bond required from regimental quartermasters to $5,000. The bill as amended provides for regimental court martial and a material reduction of the division staff.

The Presbytery Adjourns.

ESTON, April 21.—The Lehigh Presbytery adjourned yesterday afternoon to meet on June 24 at White Haven. There were several spirited debates during the day. Rev. H. M. Voorhees, of Delaware Water Gap, in a report upon the state of religion said the great drawback to good work in the hands of the Presbytery was progressive enclaves. Efforts were made to have him withdraw this, but he declined to do so.

Three Out of Seven Drowned.

LOCK HAVEN, April 21.—A steamer soon used in transporting fire clay from the Queen's Run Company's mines to the works in this city capsized yesterday afternoon near the middle of the river in a heavy gale of wind. Seven men were on the boat, three of whom were drowned. Those drowned were Bud Reed, aged 20, of this city; Fred Sim, of Haleson, and an unknown man, who with Sim had been fishing and took passage on the boat to ride to this city. None of the bodies have been recovered.

Collided With a Shifter.

READING, April 21.—A serious wreck occurred on the Schuylkill division of the Pennsylvania railroad near Conshohocken, which was caused by a coal train colliding with a shifter. Some twelve cars were wrecked and the tracks badly blocked. Brakeman William F. Veranda, of Pottsville, was killed, and Conductor George L. Kirk, of Pottsville, was badly injured. J. Z. Holladay, of Spring Hill, also received painful bruises.

Torturing, Life Destroying Dyspepsia Cured. Another Triumph for Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy.

Dr. James S. Dean, Commander of Gen. Grant Post, G. A. R., Rondout, N. Y., and Chief U. S. Mail Agent of the Ulster & Delaware Railroad and one of the most popular and well known Gentlemen in the East, whose veracity is beyond question says:

"I was all run down with DYSPEPSIA. I doctored and doctored but it all resulted the same way. I grew worse. I suffered untold misery night and day. My case was pronounced incurable. I suffered this way for fully TWO YEARS. I chanced to meet Dr. Kennedy on the street about that time, and I told him of my condition and he said, 'JIMMY,' you need not suffer so, come to my office and I'll give you a bottle of FAVORITE REMEDY, take it morning, noon and night, and it will cure you. I took the medicine as directed, but had no confidence in a cure, as my case had been pronounced incurable. After using it a week I began to feel better, and in a short while after that I was ENTIRELY CURED. 'I had thought it entirely cured. That terrible distress, everything I ate, breaking up over in my throat had all gone and I have not had a moment discomfort since. To-day there isn't a healthier man in this country and my appetite is grand. I believe I could eat a KEG OF NAILS if I had to and digest them with ease. FAVORITE REMEDY is the foe of Dyspepsia and poor health. Yours truly,
JAMES S. DEAN,
Rondout, March 19th, 1893."

Many Lives Lost as a Result of Yesterday's Storms.

HAVOC AND DISOLATION WROUGHT.

Valuable Property in Several States Destroyed and Many People Killed—The Water Works at Milwaukee Wrecked with Fearfully Fatal Results—World's Fair Buildings Damaged.

MINNAP, Miss., April 21.—A frightful tornado crossed Jasper and Clarke counties in a northwesterly direction. A settlement of negro cabins was destroyed and many of the unfortunate perished.

Colonel Perry's magnificent plantation was swept clean, but none of his family was injured.

Dr. T. J. Krouse, one of the largest plantation owners in the south, was a heavy loser. Every stick of timber on his place was carried away and every house demolished. Dr. Krouse was badly injured. His son had his skull crushed and his wife and daughter were hurt.

A negro on Dr. Krouse's plantation named Henry Gerson, with his wife and five children, were imprisoned under the ruins of his cabin, and fire originating from the kitchen stove slowly roasted them to death.

Three miles east of Barnett the wind struck a neighborhood of farms. Tom Lee's dwelling was swept away, his legs broken and other members of the family slightly injured. John Smith's house was leveled and he received serious injuries. Frank McCormick's turpentine still was smashed. R. F. Logan's store was destroyed and his stock of merchandise is now floating in already upon the branches of the river trees. Logan's wife and children were buried in the ruins, which caught fire and would have cremated them but for the timely arrival of neighbors. A little further on three negro cabins were struck. Two negroes were killed and several badly wounded.

Twenty miles east of Barnett, the storm crossed the Memphis and Ohio railroad tracks. The telegraph poles and wires for a distance of five miles along the track of the New Orleans and Northwestern railroad are down.

Crossing the Memphis and Ohio tracks north of Sumner, the storm created havoc among the negro cabins on the different plantations. Reports of the damage indicate an awful loss of life and property. All along the thirty miles of the cyclone's path it swept the carcasses of horses, cut the rail and disarranged the live stock, while crops are ruined. The loss will reach into the hundreds of thousands of dollars.

World's Fair Buildings Suffer.

CHICAGO, April 21.—Yesterday the World's Fair grounds combated the most violent rain and wind storm that has visited Chicago in many years. At times the wind attained a velocity of nearly sixty miles an hour and roared like artillery.

The Manufacturers' building suffered most. Tons of water came in through the roof, but mainly in portions, where no exit was known until they were opened. Some idea of the force of the gale can be gathered from the fact that the waves from the lake swept up the big stone bench, across the spacious promenade and flooded the promenade, Casino and music hall, or nearly 500 feet from the regular water mark in calm weather. The bamboo fence around the Japanese village was leveled, and the whitening forced over, with great damage to property in the partially completed structures.

Reports just received from the park say there is a hole 250 feet large in the Manufacturers' building over the Russian and English exhibits. Part of the roof of the music hall has given way, and a large section of glass in front of the roof of the hotel-cum-cultural building. There are numerous leaks in the government, electricity and utility buildings.

The big roof of Buffalo Bill's building was blown 100 feet away. Nearly the entire front of the Guatemala building is gone.

At Fifty-Fifth street down to Thirty-Ninth street an enormous sea swept over the breakwater of the Illinois Central track, and threatened to sweep away all the new tracks to the fair. A force of 100 workmen and all of the available engines were kept all night to prevent the track being swept away.

The three-masted schooner L. P. Drenforth, crew aboard, was driven ashore at the foot of Melrose street, four miles north of the mouth of the Chicago river. The schooner had buffeted the high seas for hours, but after daybreak a flag of distress was hoisted.

The Worst Storm in Years.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 21.—The worst gale that has swept over Lake Michigan for years prevailed all day yesterday, doing an immense amount of damage to shipping and property along the lake front. Many times during the day the wind attained a velocity of sixty-eight miles an hour, sweeping huge seas over the breakwater and wrecking many small buildings occupied by "squatters" along the beach. More than a dozen coal barges, freight steamers and schooners were stove in and almost wrecked by being pounded against their piers by the massive waves that came tumbling in with such force as to sweep everything before them.

Several tugs and other small craft were driven ashore and battered to pieces, the terrible force of the storm rendering the breakwaters of very little value so far as affording shelter was concerned.

Much apprehension is felt for the safety of vessels that are known to have been caught outside in the storm. It is the opinion of vessel men here that none but the staunchest boats could have weathered the gale of yesterday and the news of death and disaster on the lake will be no surprise to them.

Chicago Gets the Krupp Gun.

CHICAGO, April 21.—The monster Krupp gun sent to the World's Fair will be presented to the city of Chicago by its maker. It will be mounted in a fort off Hyde Park, in position to build which was given to Colonel Robert L. Bar, of Chicago, by the secretary of war. The fort will be located on five acres of made ground and built according to the very latest plans of fortifications.
