IMPROVEMENTS TO BE MADE

Preparations Being Made to Extend the Line Down South Main Street to the Pennsylvania Depot.

LECTRIC railway mat ters were given a boon in town to-day by visit on the part of Capt. J. F. Bailey, one the leading lights of the Schoylkill Traction Company. The object of the visit was to view the street below the resent terminos of the milroad on Main treet and figure on an extension of the time o the Pennsylvania Railroad depot, which will allow the laying of a double track at the ower end of the street. When the "trailers" are put in use it will be necessary to have a louble track at the terminus in order to hift the motors for the return trips.

When asked about the proposed St. Nicholas extension Mr. Hailey said that arrive in New York city from Germany nany residents of the town had suggested that a building of a line from the Main street terminus to Wiggan's, by way of the Pennsylvania railroad, would make a much nore favorable connection with Mahanoy City than the proposed Indian Ridge coate The civil engineers will survey this Pennsylvania route next week and make a compari
