M. H. Kehler's Change

Monroe H. Kehler, who was for many years one of the foremost merchants of this town, but lately lived in retirement, to-day noved his family to Camden, N. J., where he has secured a location and is creeting a fourcory brick building with the intention of mlarking in the queensware business. On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Kehler were tendered a farewell party at the residence of Mr. J. K. Kehler, on North Main street Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Cehler, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Kehler, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kehler, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Yost, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. William S. Snyder, Misses Ida Kehler and will be charged for any service in or about water rents also seem very anxious. Ciara Yost, Mrs. Louise Snyder, John Snyder, Harry Yost and Elijah Kehler. Games and vocal and instrumental music were indulged in and before departing for their homes th quests were given an excellent supper. Mr. Kehler was one of our most popular and nterprising citizens and he takes the best vishes of his former townsmen with him.

The Tri- Weekly, in speaking of the opening of the Mahanoy-Girardville branch wants to know "How is this electric road run, anyhow? Is it intended as a feeder to Shenandoah trade, or as a business enterprise? Ever since the Mahanoy valley branch has been in operation Shenandoah has been kicking because Mahanoy City is on equal terms with it in regard to electric railway facilities. Mahanoy City has nover ques tioned Shenandonh's right to whatever benefits it may receive from the road down the Shenandoah valley, but our neighbor is constantly endeavoring to invade territory which is naturally tributary to us. The extension of the electric road from St. Nicholar to Shenandosh is hardly a business enterprise. It will simply divide, not increase to any material extent, the traffic of the and. Mahanoy City wishes impartial treatnent from the electric rallway people and will be satisfied with nothing less." Say, friend Parker, give us an easier question the
