Miss Marie O'Connor, one of Mahanoy Place's fair young ladies, is the guest of the O'Connor family of town.

Miss Laura Watkins and Mrs. Edward Price, of Mahanoy City, were among our visitors to town on Monday.

Mrs. L. Snyder, accompanied by her daughter, Irene, are spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Hicks.

About 7 o'clock Monday evening our quiet little town was again startled by the cry of fire. Upon investigation it was found that the building owned by William Price, on Railroad street, was wrapped in flames. In a short time the fire had spread to the two adjoining houses and for a while it looked as if the entire square would be destroyed.

The bucket brigade was on the scene promptly and did well, considering their means. A number of our young men fought the flames bravely and it was only by their efforts the remainder of the square was saved. The properties of John Elliott, George Michaels and William Price were burned to the ground, and the one owned by Michael Baker is very badly damaged. The fire was caused by a spark from a passing engine. The damage will exceed $4,000, which is partly covered by insurance. This is the second fire we had within a week and a great deal of the damage done could be stopped if we had a fire company. It has been the custom for the past number of years to talk about a fire company for a few days after a fire and then drop the subject until another fire takes place. This should be stopped, and a fire company organized immediately. There are a number of young men of town who are willing to form a company if the borough would provide the apparatus, etc.

THREE LARGE FUNERALS.
Malachi Cleary, Mrs. Price and Mrs. O'Neill laid to rest.

There were three large funerals in town this morning, and in consequence there were many out-of-town people here during the day. The funeral of the late Malachi J. Cleary took place from the family residence on West Centre street and hundreds of people, including many of the county officials, followed the remains to the Annunciation church and cemetery. Among the prominent people in attendance were David Duffy, of St. Clair; District Attorney Ryan, Warden J. P. Martin, Recorder Scheurman, Henry Lisch, chairman of the Democratic Standing Committee, and County Treasurer Pepper.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Margaret Price took place this morning from her late residence on East Oak street. The attendance was large. The remains were taken to Potsville for interment.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary O'Neill also took place this morning. Mass was celebrated at the Annunciation church. The funeral proceeded to St. Clair on the 12:52 Lehigh Valley train.

Political Paragraphs.
There are seven candidates for County Treasurer in Shenandoah, all Democrats.

The Republican county ticket this year will be a winner. With so many of our best citizens coming out for office there ought to be no trouble to make a strong combination that will win.

The candidacy of Speaker Thompson for the State Treasurership may knock out Congressman Stone, of Warren county, for the Governorship.

It is now almost certain that ex-Speaker and present member of the Legislature, Hon. Henry K. Boyer, will succeed J. Donald Cameron as United States Senator, something Philadelphia has been clamoring for for many years and will put a damper on the chances of Judge Fall of that city for the Supreme Judgeship.

The announcement that Judge W. F. Sedler, of Carlisle, would be a candidate again for Supreme Judge has taken many of his friends by surprise, as it was almost understood he had retired from the field.

Representative Andrews, whose election has been confirmed by the Legislature, is looking after the interests of his constituents with almost a fatherly care. His long experience in legislative matters gives him an opportunity to get in his work in good shape. Representative Louch, if anything, is a ambitious. He is aspiring to be Lieutenant Governor.

An Anniversary.
The third anniversary of Camp No. 40, Patriotic Order of True Americans, was celebrated in Robbins' lower hall last evening. An elaborate programme of vocal and instrumental music, reading and recitations was given and the affair proved one of the most enjoyable of the kind held in this town for some time.

When Sewing Machines are mentioned the name of the STANDARD rises instinctively to the lips. Why? Because it will sew as much in four hours as others do in five. Because it is a labor-saver, and makes less noise than any machine on the market. Pay no attention to the disparaging talk of our competitors, as that only proves that it is their most dangerous rival. Call and see it for yourself.

Grand Display of
FINE DRESS GOODS

DRESS GOODS is such a bewildering topic that we will not attempt a full description, but give a partial outline, which you can fill in by a personal inspection. There are the plain and changable diagonals; plain, plaid, striped and invisible plaid serges; fancy mixtures in all sorts of odd weaves, dots, threads, cross-threads, hair-lines, lines here and there, many at a glance appearing alike, but upon examination are found entirely different. Our assortment of silks is complete—china silks, china surah, plain surah, bengaline, plain, figured and changeable silks, in all the new shot effects. Full line of fancy braids to match any color of dress goods.

....In Wraps
We find the most stylish and the prevailing mode to be the Cape, in some of its variations, single, double or triple capes. Some are plain, others very highly decorated, with fancy indecent braid, butterfly colors, or some full arrangement at the neck, so much approved this season by the feminine fancy. To some, coats only are the correct garment. To those we would say coats are equally fashionable and stylish, many of these having capes also attached—sometimes one, two or three, as the taste or inclination of the wearer may desire.

We have this season, for the first time, added a Millinery Department, and have spared neither trouble nor expense to make it a success. The result exceeds our most sanguine expectations. This department will be under the same management and conducted on the same principles that have always characterized our entire business. We shall keep everything in trimmed and untrimmed hats, novelties of every description. Having secured a trimmer noted for her artistic and skillful work, we are enabled to suit all tastes. We invite a careful inspection of our entire store. All welcome.
