THIRD EDITION

Points.

The most important thing on the tapis for next week is the election of a superintendent of the borough schools to succeed Prof. L. A. Freeman, who will retire at the end of the present term and move to Pawtucket, Rhode Island. The election will take place next Tuesday evening and the Democratic members, forming the majority of the School Board, will elect M. P. Whitaker to fill the position. Mr. Whitaker is at present teacher of one of the mixed schools at Turkey Run at a salary of $65 per month. The salary paid the superintendent is $1,800 per annum.

A report got about yesterday afternoon that J. W. Johnson, the builder, had closed up the Lithuanian church because he had not received the money due on his contract. Mr. Johnson was seen and said that the report was groundless. An upper part of the church has been closed for some time for the safe keeping of his tools. His difference with the church trustees is being adjusted.

Folmer & Albright had a horse sale at the usual mart yesterday afternoon. There was a large attendance, but the bidding was slow until some Gimsville people, who read the announcement of the sale, appeared. They took away a number of the horses.

Mrs. A. Klock, Mrs. Hawley, Mrs. Clara George, F. C. Kreiger and wife, and Peter F. Dillman, all of town, and Mrs. H. Shuman, of Yatesville, attended the funeral of Mrs. J. K. Snyder, at Ashland, yesterday.

A telegram was received in town yesterday announcing the death of Clyde, son of Daniel Walters, at Reading. The deceased was a relative of the P. C. Kreiger family, of East Coal street.

USE DANA'S SASSAPARILLA, ITS "THE KIND THAT CURES."

Enlarged.

The Frackville Weekly Item appeared today enlarged to an 8-page quarto and generally improved in appearance. The change was made necessary by the large advertising patronage. The management and politics of the paper have also been changed. John F. Reynolds has become business manager and the independent policy of the paper has been abandoned for a promulgation of Democratic principles. R. C. Hunt continues as editor.

Kellar To-night.

The greatest of all magicians will appear at Ferguson's theatre to-night and with him his latest wonder, "Cagliostro." This remarkable production electrified the Philadelphia public last season, when it was introduced for the first time during the magician's phenomenal run there. It is a wonderful combination of scientific skill and clever conjuring, and its effect upon an audience said to be truly remarkable. Kellar also brings his masterpiece of magic, "Oh!" the truly astonishing Astarte, Nana Sahib, the Hindoo wonder-worker, and a host of other curious and wonderful things calculated to astonish and mystify.

Best work done at Brennan's Steam Laundry. Everything white and spotless. Lace curtains a specialty. All work guaranteed.

Miners Bring Suit.

John Bohalnik and John Miller, two Polish miners employed at the Gilbert colliery, last night appeared as plaintiffs in a civil suit against the P. & R. C. & I. Co., before "Squire Monaghan, brought to recover $25.50 for work done in the mine. The miners were represented by M. M. Burke, Esq., and J. F. Whalen, Esq., represented the company. After considerable testimony had been taken and arguments made on both sides it was agreed to postpone the case until next Tuesday evening to give the company time to make re-measurements in the place where the men worked.

AHEAD AGAIN!

We have mounted another rung on the ladder of popularity. It is the standard Grand this time, a drop-head, half-cabinet at a reasonable price. The head rises automatically to its place when the seat is laid back. With a single movement the head disappears, the cabinet closes, and you have an elegant ornamental piece of furniture. Drop in and look at it. And while we are talking of cabinet work we might mention the different kinds of wood the Standard is made up in—Antique Oak, XVI Century Oak, Walnut, Hungarian Oak, Mahogany and Sycamore.

Grand Display of

FINE DRESS GOODS

DRESS GOODS is such a bewildering topic that we will not attempt a full description, but give a partial outline, which you can fill in by a personal inspection. There are the plain and changeable diagonals; plain, plaid, striped and invisible plaid serges; fancy mixtures in all sorts of odd weaves, dots, threads, cross-threads, hair-lines, lines here and there, many at a glance appearing alike, but upon examination are found entirely different. Our assortment of silks is complete—china silks, china surah, plain surah, bengaline, plain, figured and changeable silks, in all the new shot effects. Full line of fancy braids to match any color of dress goods.

....In Wraps

We find the most stylish and the prevailing mode to be the Cape, in some of its variations, single, double or triple capes. Some are plain, others very highly decorated, with fancy indented braid, butterfly colors, or some full arrangement at the neck, so much approved this season by the feminine fancy. To some, coats only are the correct garment. To those who would say coats are equally fashionable and stylish, many of these having capes also attached—sometimes one, two or three, at the taste or inclination of the wearer may desire.

We have this season, for the first time, added a Millinery Department, and have spared neither trouble nor expense to make it a success. The result exceeds our most sanguine expectations. This department will be under the same management and conducted on the same principles that have always characterized our entire business. We shall keep everything in trimmed and untrimmed hats, novelties of every description. Having secured a trimmer noted for her artistic and skillful work, we are enabled to suit all tastes. We invite a careful inspection of our entire store. All welcome.
