AT KEITER'S

AT THE COUNTY COURT,

NOTES OF CASES BY A SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.

JUDGE PERSHING ON DUTY AGAIN.

He Was on the Bench Yesterday and Disposed of a Number of Cases—Some Shenandoah Matters Passed Upon.

POTTSTOWN, May 1. SHORTLY after ten o'clock this morning the "O, Yes! O, Yes!" of Court Crier Graver in court room No. 1 announced the opening of the May term of criminal court with a full attendance of the Bench and Bar, and the seats all occupied by jurors and litigants. For the first time since his sudden illness several months ago, President Judge Pershing occupied his place on the bench. Barring a faint paroxysm, the Judge looks very well. He was warmly welcomed by the attorneys. A number of opinions were handed down in No. 1, after which Judges Weidman and Bechtel heard motions and arguments in Nos. 2 and 3 and Judge Pershing charged the grand jury and heard constable's returns in No. 1. In the afternoon the court was engaged in jury trials.

Judge Bechtel appointed Charles F. Klindendust, of Mahanoy City, deputy constable under his brother, Joseph B. Klindendust. The court refused a new trial in the Shenandoah case of McNamara vs. Toole. A number of bonds of Justices of the Peace were approved by the court, among them those of Squires Garden, Monaghan, Davis and Eynkiewicz, of Shenandoah.

An attachment was issued by the Hoover Mercantile Company, of Ashland, against Joseph Rogers, of Shenandoah, under the fraudulent debtors' Act of 1869, through C. A. Burkert, Esq., who represents the company. Rogers confessed a judgment for $1,000 to his brother-in-law and on this an execution was issued. Creditors claim the judgment was confessed to defraud them.

Attorneys Whitehouse and Foster filed a bill in equity for John Marsden, praying relief against Charles Sheenk, administrator of Samuel Dorcas, et al. The bill sets out that Marsden is the owner in fee of certain real estate in Pottsville. That during the life time of Dorcas Marsden executed a bond and mortgage to him and against the said real estate; that before Dorcas' death Marsden paid off this indebtedness. The complainant prays that the defendants be enjoined from demanding payment on the bond and mortgage and that the court order and decree satisfaction and cancellation of the same.

G. Meade Peters, the popular bartender, has gone to Lakeside. He can now be found at Schoener's restaurant. 4-27-93.

The Tempest Company. A re-engagement of three nights will be played at Ferguson's theatre this week, beginning on Thursday evening, by the J. L. Tempest Company. "Joe" will be presented on the first night, "Plucking of a Rose" on the second, and "Honest Rube" on the third. The company is so favorably known here that an introduction is not necessary. The plays also have an established reputation as among the best ever produced here. They are cleverly written, abound in pretty, thrilling and amusing situations and embrace some wonderful and very beautiful scenic effects.

Obituary. Thomas J. Price died at his residence on North White street this morning in his 68th year. The deceased was an old miner and had been a resident of the town for many years. His relations with the editor of this paper had always been of the most pleasant character and it is with deep regret that his death is announced. He had been a subscriber of the paper since its first issue. The funeral will take place on Thursday, at 2 p. m.

The Drop in Wages. EDITOR HERALD:—I noticed in your paper the drawing of collieries to determine the rate of wages for the next two years. Where are Tyson, the president of the Safe Deposit Bank of Pottsville, and others to sign the drawing of collieries? Is it because they are drawing penitentiaries, or is it to dupe the workman? Where does the drop come in? In the large cities they pay exorbitant prices for coal. Do they do it to accumulate money to re-organize the P. & R. company to the amount of $30,000,000.

WORLD'S FAIR ROUTES. People who take the water route for the World's Fair will have ample opportunity to view the world's wonder—Niagara Falls, Prospect Park, twelve acres in extent, adjoins the American Falls, with a frontage of several hundred feet, both above and below the cataract, of which it commands a fine view. One may stand within a foot of the precipice at the edge of the cataract and peer down into the clouds of mist below, where on the rocks he can see people standing undisturbed and all the fury of the churning waters about them and looking up at the great volume of water rolling down so (seemingly) perilously near them. In no place can one better appreciate the Falls than from these rocks below. Passing down a spiral staircase from Goat Island, accompanied by a trusty guide and clad in a water-proof suit, the traveler can make a trip in behind the cataract in the "Cave of the Winds," over slippery rocks, half drowned in the spray, and with a sense of daring which is entirely irrecusable with the fact that he is in fact perfectly safe; and emerging through the wall of water at a point where the fall is less violent, he breathes again, his heart sinks back to its proper place, and looking up he feels what he has passed through seems but a fitting initiation ceremony necessary to make him fully appreciate the grandeur displayed from this point of vantage.

Important Decision. Judge Bechtel yesterday handed down a decision that is very important to creditors of holders of saloon licenses. Creditors of Paul Summa applied to the court for a rule to show cause why the order directing the transfer of Summa's license to Mrs. Breen in this town should not be revoked. Judge Bechtel discharged the rule. As this practically decides that creditors have no lien on saloon licenses and as it is the first decision of the kind the HERALD has made arrangements to publish the opinion in full to-morrow. Several cases hinging on the same point are pending in town.

POSTAL REFORM.

Letter Carriers Hereafter Must Complete Their Work in Eight Hours.

In accordance with instructions from the Postmaster General, the Shenandoah mail carriers started yesterday on the eight hour law, which requires that they must traverse their routes in that time, so that no pay will be needed for over time. Carriers must be equal to the work, or give way to others who are. The carriers are not to be employed consecutive hours each day, but eight hours when needed to go over their routes according to the time the mails are ready for distribution. Each letter carrier will be furnished with a blank form, on which he must make a detailed statement of the character of his route, and the length of time required to cover it. If a carrier is unable to complete his tour within a stated time, the department has ordered that another carrier shall be given the route, and the system of exchange of turns made until a man can be found to do the work.

Some carriers will be forced in many instances to be away from home 10 or 12 hours in order to complete the 8 hours of duty. The department has directed that overtime letter carrier duty must be stopped. The postmaster general says the above rule is according to the law as interpreted by the United States Supreme Court.

The Slattery Case.

About thirty people, most of Poles and Hungarians, went from town to Pottsville this morning to appear as witnesses against Dennis Slattery, charged with robbing H. E. Bowman, who was, until recently, engaged in the grocery business on West Centre street. It was stated to-day that the evidence would show that for the past three years Slattery represented himself to Polish and Hungarian residents of the town as a salesman for a grocery house and the goods he sold them were products of his stealing from Bowman. It is alleged Slattery always delivered the goods at night, explaining to his customers that he was too busy at other places in the day time to make the deliveries. It is said Bowman was offered $400 to make a settlement, but he declined the terms on the grounds that his losses were between $3,000 and $4,000.

The Father of Many Ills.

Constipation leads to a multitude of physical troubles. It is generally the result of carelessness or indifference to the simplest rule of health. Eugene McKay, of Bradford, Ont., writes: "I had for several years been a sufferer from constipation, had taken a great many different remedies, some of which did me good for a time but only for a time, then my trouble came back worse than ever. I was induced by a friend, whom Brandreth's Pills had benefited, to try them. Took two each night for a week, then one every night for about six weeks. Since that time I have not experienced the slightest difficulty whatever, and my bowels move regularly every day. I believe firmly that for sluggishness of the bowels and biliousness Brandreth's Pills are far superior to any other."

The Last Night.

Owing to the disagreeable weather the attendance at the G. A. R. fair last night was poor but, notwithstanding, the receipts were quite encouraging. To-night the fair will close by a grand cake walk. The Grand band will give a concert and play for the walk. The goods remaining on hand last night will be disposed of before the entertainment commences. Go early. No extra charge to participate in the "walk." Ticket No. 4555, held by Michael Kehoe, drew the door prize, a handsome rocker, at the G. A. R. fair last night.

Objected to Snoring. George Bedinski was before Squire Monaghan yesterday afternoon, charged with assault and battery by Charley Cooko. The two men are boarders in the same house and occupy the same bedroom. Sunday afternoon Cooko fell asleep and Bedinski objected to his snoring. Cooko failed to hear the protests in his slumber and Bedinski struck him over the head with a boot. Bedinski furnished $300 bail for trial at court.
