Washington, May 2 .- According to the Gerry law the Chinese must go on May 6, the date upon which the act becomes operative. It is not probable, however, that Chinese who have failed to comply with the provisions of the law will be molested. Assistant Secretary Spaulding said yes-terday that, while the law goes into effect on the 6th, the government will not take any steps to enforce it until the supreme court decides upon the constitutionality of the act. A test case will be brought before the supreme court next week and be ac corded a speedy decision. Until the court renders a decision John Chinaman will not be disturbed by the agents of the government.

The Court of Appeals Organized. Washington, May 2.—That for which the District has long fought is now an established fact, and the court of appeals of the District of Columbia is a part of its judicial system.

The organization of the court took place in the general term court room yesterday in the presence of the largest gathering ever seen in the room. As would be naturally supposed, the members of the District har formed the great majority of those present, but in the throng were innumerable laymen as well.

able laymen as well.

The students of the law school of the Georgetown university, of the faculty of which Judge Morris is dean, also were present in large numbers to witness the ceromonies. So great was the throng that it filled the space in front of the bench and conflowed away out into the corridors.

everflowed away out into the corridors. The door at the right of the bench, open ing into the consultation room of the court in general term, was thrown open and Crier Robert Ball announced, "The Chief Justice of the United States." Marshal Raussiel escorted Chief Justice Fuller shal Raussiell escorted Chief Justice Fuller to the middle seat on the bench, the chief justice being immediately followed by Chief Justice Alvey and Justices Morris and Shepard, who stood at the right of the bench. Chief Justice Bingham and Justices Cox, Hagaer, McComns and Cole of District supreme court followed and stood to the left of the bench. As Chief Justice Fuller entered warvone arrass and remained Fuller entered everyone arose and remained standing throughout the brief ceremonic which followed.

The Supply of Gold. Washington, May 2.—Secretary Carlisle will return to Washington to-night and be at the treasury to-morrow. It is expected that be will then put into motion the machine to build up the treasury gold, as it is understood here that he has made arrange-ments as the result of his New York cenments as the result of his New York cen-ference to secure a considerable stock of gold there. His Chicago conference is looked forward to with interest and it is believed the Chicago banks will supply some of their $20,000,000 of gold as the New York banks will some of their $57,-000,000 cold 900,000 gold.

In the meantime Acting Secretary Ham-lin is receiving daily small offers of gold, three being accepted yesterday. But little of the gold accepted, especially that from Boston, has yet appeared upon the treasury books, and the debt statement issued yesterday did not show it all, but in point of fact showed less than $98,000,-000. Sufficient has been accepted to make thenetgold about $1,125,000; but it is stated unofficially this morning that $500,000 had been engaged for export to-day, and during the week past $200,000 in gold was taken for shipment to Canada, so that the margin of free gold is thin.

Says He Wasn't Consulted.

Washington, May 2.—In regard to the figures recently published purporting to show by reports to the comptroller of the currency that the amount of gold held in Chicago exceeded that held in New York, and that the west had more gold than the east, Comptroller Eckels says he was not consulted.

He says that some newspaper men entered his office and took from the file hanging therein some sheets of old reports and from them the figures were made up. Mr. Eckels had nothing to do with the statement. He says he does not care to deny it, as it was only by implication that his name was mentioned. However, he admits that the figures as published were errors.

IN THE HOUSE.

A resolution was passed by the house last night, the preamble of which reiterated the serious charges which have from time to time been made against the state insans asylum at Warren. The resolution authorized the appointment by the governor of a committee of five representatives and three senators with power to make a thorough investigation. The names of a number of patients who suffered death as a result of ill-treatment at the hands of attendants, and a score of others permountly injured, were given.

It was alleged that the keepers had fre-

That for slight deviations themselves. That for slight deviations from prescribed rules patients had been locked, four or five together, in one cell and allowed to fight with each other until hey were crippled and bleeding.

From beginning to end the charges wer bitter, the most serious being that centiousness was unrestrained among th attaches. Each allegation was specific in itself, and the statement was made that the State board of charities had in its pos-session proofs substantiating the different acts described.

in addition to the above a resolution reciting that various acts of violence had been perpetrated and that mismanageut xisted in the Danville asylum was introinced. It was referred to a committee. Besides the above only matters of a routine nature were considered. THE CANADIANS ARE SURPRISED To Learn of the Failure of Erastus Wiman of New York. Tonoxro, Ont., May 2.—Great surprise is expressed here at the news of Erastus Wiman's reported assignment. He is well known throughout Cauada, and his career has kept him in close touch with Canadian business men.

The news that Mr. Wiman is in financial officialty revives the story of his connection with the Great Northwestern Telegraph Company, of Canada, in the presidency of which he was succeeded about a year ago by H. W. Dwight.

While Mr. Wiman was at the head of the Montreal branch of R. G. Dun & Co.'s agency, he became impressed with the folly of the ruinous cut rate competition being carried on by the Montreal Telegraph Com-pany and its smaller rival, the Dominion pany and its smaller rival, the Deminion Telegraph Company.

These two companies were then doing business throughout Causda, and each had offices in all the principal cities in the Do-minion. In order to secure business they were taking messages as low as fifteen contained by Jewing no profits in the busicents each, leaving no profits in the busi

Mr. Wiman, seeing the profits thus thrown away, and realizing the opportu-nity there was for making money if a monopoly could be secured, proposed to some representative capitalists that a third company should be formed to acquire a controlling interest in each counter. controlling interest in each company and amalgamate them.

The Great Northwestern Telegraph Com pany was organized on the lines proposed by him, and the promoters brought about the amalgamation of the two companies. As a reward for his clever stroke of business in securing for the new company a monopoly of a very profitable business. Mr. Winan was made its president.

The terms of the amalgamation provided that the Great Northwestern should guarantee the shareholders of the Montreal company 8 per cent, and those of the Domit company 6 per cent. per annum, and also pay a rental for their lines under a lease for ninety years.

For several years these dividends were not forthcoming at the time agreed and propositions were made that they should be reduced. This led to tedious litigation, and in the end hir. Wiman was heaten and the stipulated dividends limit to be paid:
