THIRD EDITION

TAMAQUA.

Rev. W. P. Burke, formerly rector of Calvary Episcopal church, has moved to Reading.

Miss Belle Shepp is visiting her brother, Rev. William Shepp, in Germantown, Del.

Mrs. George H. Hafeler is visiting relatives in Philadelphia.

Daniel Shepp, Frank P. Spiess, Charles W. Allen, J. C. Fitzpatrick and Frank P. Krebs were among the Tamaquans who observed the naval review in New York last week.

A union meeting of the following organizations was held here Sunday: Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Railroad Firemen, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, Order of Railroad Conductors and Order of Railway Telegraphers.

Special trains arrived from Jersey City, Easton, Scranton, Wilkes Barre and Mauch Chunk. In the morning a secret session was held in the opera house to which only members were admitted. In the afternoon a public meeting was held, which was opened with prayer by Rev. J. S. Lane followed by a selection by the United church choir; address of welcome by Chief Burgess C. S. Shindel; address by Hon. F. P. Spiess; selection by a male quartette; address by C. D. Henry, B. L. E.; address by C. A. Wilson, Chief B. L. E.; address by P. H. Morrissey, Vice Grand Master; B. of R. E. T.; selection by a male trio; address by D. H. Gearhart, O. R. T.; vocal solo by Prof. J. H. Ichler; and address and prayer by Rev. George Gebert. Fully 2,000 strangers were in town, but as ample preparation had been made every one was well provided for. The next meeting will be held in Harrisburg on May 28th.

Coughing Leads to Consumption. Kemp's Balsam will stop the cough at once.

Potato. And is this May weather? This is the season of the year when, simply because a man has had his whiskers shaved off, every bloomin' idiot he meets comments upon the windiness of the wind.

It rained hard last night and those who were caught out without umbrellas were badly soaked.

The funeral of Captain Witte, who ran up the Stars and Stripes at Honolulu, took place in New York Saturday. Commissioner Blount who ordered the flag pulled down, was alive at last accounts.

No need of professional rain makers these days.

The edict has gone forth that the great American peanut cannot be sold within the World's Fair limits. Our Allentown cousins will have cause to weep.

MELUSKY'S CLOSE CALL.

He Was Almost Killed in a Runaway Accident.

Joseph Melusky, one of the most prominent and popular of our Polish citizens, had a very narrow escape from death while driving down Main street yesterday afternoon. He says it was the closest call he ever had and those who witnessed the accident say his escape from death was miraculous.

Where arrangements have been made for street paving at the corner of Main and Oak streets there is a drop of about ten inches.

When Melusky's wagon made the drop yesterday it threw him from the seat to the shafts. At the same time the seat fell upon the horse's back and caused it to run away.

Melusky hung over the shaft helpless as the horse dashed down Main street at a mad pace and the wagon collided with one owned by Christ Schmidt, upsetting it. The runaway continued running and Melusky tried to lift himself from his perilous position, but was unable to do so.

At the Pennsylvania depot the wagon was toppled over with Melusky beneath it and the horse was stopped. When Melusky was taken from beneath the wreck he was moaning and evidently suffering great pain. He was conscious, but when his friends carried him to his home on White street they feared he was fatally injured. An examination by a physician dispelled their fears, however. The young man had sustained fractures of three ribs, two on the left side and one on the right, and a few scalp wounds. To-day he was resting easy and the physician said there was no reason to fear dangerous results.

THE RISING WATER CAUSES ALARM.

A Portion of St. Louis Already Inundated by Back Water.

St. Louis, May 2.—The high water hereabouts is beginning to cause considerable alarm, and grave apprehensions are felt that the disastrous floods of last May will be repeated, if not surpassed. The water has risen at an unprecedented rate since Sunday morning.

On Saturday night the gauge stood 28, and at the same time last night 33 feet was shown. The highest point last year was 36 feet, which was reached on May 19.

A four-foot rise will cover the first floors from Vine to Morgan streets. Numerous cellars are already inundated by back water in the sewers. The lower floors of elevators on both sides of the river are inundated, and the waves are rapidly rising to the second floors.

FINE DRESS GOODS

DRESS GOODS is such a bewildering topic that we will not attempt a full description, but give a partial outline, which you can fill in by a personal inspection. There are the plain and changeable diagonals; plain, plaid, striped and invisible plaid serges; fancy mixtures in all sorts of odd weaves, dots, threads, cross-threads, hair-lines, lines here and there, many at a glance appearing alike, but upon examination are found entirely different. Our assortment of silks is complete—china silks, china surah, plain surah, bengaline, plain, figured and changeable silks, in all the new shot effects. Full line of fancy braids to match any color of dress goods.

.....In Wraps We find the most stylish and the prevailing mode to be the Cape, in some of its variations, single, double or triple capes. Some are plain, others very highly decorated, with fancy indecent braid, butterfly colors, or some full arrangement at the neck, so much approved this season by the feminine fancy. To some, coats only are the correct garment. To those we would say coats are equally fashionable and stylish, many of these having capes also attached—sometimes one, two or three, as the taste or inclination of the wearer may desire.

We have this season, for the first time, added a Millinery Department, and have spared neither trouble nor expense to make it a success. The result exceeds our most sanguine expectations. This department will be under the same management and conducted on the same principles that have always characterized our entire business. We shall keep everything in trimmed and untrimmed hats, novelties of every description. Having secured a trimmer noted for her artistic and skillful work, we are enabled to suit all tastes. We invite a careful inspection of our entire store. All welcome.
