When the HERALD started its public school teachers' contest last January it promised that as the affair progressed the inducements to the contestants would be increased if the returns warranted the publishers in doing so. As shown by the table published at the head of this column, the contest has been and is a great success. Already third and fourth place prizes (trips to Niagara Falls) have been announced. On Saturday next we will announce prizes to the teachers who may secure the fifth and sixth places. Full particulars will be given in the HERALD of next Saturday. Watch for them.

Meanwhile let the friends of the contestants who wish to enjoy the advantages of the great special excursion to the World's Fair bear in mind that now is the time to make application. The number of the party will be limited and the first to come will be first served. Application should be made at once to the HERALD office, either by mail or in person.

Points.
Dull times.
Carpenters are still scarce.
Old potatoes are getting scarce.
Saloon men complain most these days.
Garden making season is nearly over.
Push forward the soldiers' monument.
Delightful weather the past few days.
Big trout catches are not heard of these days.

Weiderhold is busy getting his house in order.
The sewer on Main street is nearly completed.
Butter continues to bring good war-time prices.
A desirable property for sale. See advertisement.
Good servant girls wanted. Apply at HERALD office.
The Traction company is not complaining. Business is good.
Don't forget your favorite teacher. Vote for her or him early and often.
Bare-footed children are becoming numerous since warm weather set in.
None but tax-paying citizens should be permitted to work on the new water works.
Take a walk around town and note the improvements. Every one appears to be busy.

Forty-two girls are kept busy at the Ashland hosiery mill. They earn from $2 to $4 a week.
Ashland School Board has adopted the Fuller & Warren system of heating and ventilation.
Look for the HERALD in the Pennsylvania state building at Chicago. It is kept on file for all corners.
W. J. Lloyd, of town has assumed the management of the restaurant under the Palace theatre at Girardville.
Rev. Grubler's lecture on the manners and customs of the people of Palestine at the church this evening. Don't miss it.
A number of town people went to Shamokin this morning to attend the wedding of Miss Jennie Williams and Thomas Sanger.
The company houses on South White street have been greatly improved by the carpenters and are now being painted a bright red color.
A special Pennsylvania Railroad train, in tended to take people to the circus at Pottsville, left town empty this morning, but a number of people went down on the regular train.
The assault and battery case of Elizabeth Jones against Mary A. Head, both of town, was tried at Pottsville yesterday. A verdict of not guilty was rendered. One-third the costs were put on Mrs. Head and two-thirds on Mrs. Jones.

World's Fair Holiday Trip!

EVENING HERALD CONTEST

10 Days at the World's Fair

With accommodations at a first-class Chicago hotel, and transportation to and from Chicago, including sleeping berths, all free of cost.

To the 2 Most Popular Teachers.

CONTEST CLOSES JULY 1st, 1893, at 6 P. M.

The two teachers who receive the largest number of votes will be taken to the World's Fair and royally entertained by the HERALD. Cut out this coupon, and on the blank lines write the name of the Public School Teacher, north of the Broad Mountain, in Schuylkill county, whom you consider most popular, and send it to the "CONTEST EDITOR, EVENING HERALD, SHENANDOAH, PA." Every coupon properly filled out counts as one vote for one teacher. Every person, young or old, can vote, and vote as often as they please. Coupon must be in the hands of the editor within ten (10) days after the date it bears.

AHEAD AGAIN!

We have mounted another rung on the ladder of popularity. It is the Standard Grand this time, a drop-head, half-cabinet at a reasonable price. The head rises automatically to its place when the seat is laid back. With a single movement the head disappears, the cabinet closes, and you have an elegant ornamental piece of furniture. Drop in and look at it. And while we are talking of cabinet work we might mention the different kinds of wood the Standard is made up in—Antique Oak, XVI Century Oak, Walnut, Hungarian Oak, Mahogany and Sycamore.

No. 4 NORTH MAIN STREET,

Grand Display of
FINE DRESS GOODS

DRESS GOODS is such a bewildering topic that we will not attempt a full description, but give a partial outline, which you can fill in by a personal inspection. There are the plain and changable diagonals; plain, plaid, striped and invisible plaid serges; fancy mixtures in all sorts of odd weaves, dots, threads, cross-threads, hair-lines, lines here and there, many at a glance appearing alike, but upon examination are found entirely different. Our assortment of silks is complete—china silks, china surah, plain surah, bengaline, plain, figured and changeable silks, in all the new shot effects. Full line of fancy braids to match any color of dress goods.

.....In Wraps We find the most stylish and the prevailing mode to be the Cape, in some of its variations, single, double or triple capes. Some are plain, others very highly decorated, with fancy indecent braid, butterfly colors, or some full arrangement at the neck, so much approved this season by the feminine fancy. To some, coats only are the correct garment. To those we would say coats are equally fashionable and stylish, many of these having capes also attached—sometimes one, two or three, as the taste or inclination of the wearer may desire.

We have this season, for the first time, added a Millinery Department, and have spared neither trouble nor expense to make it a success. The result exceeds our most sanguine expectations. This department will be under the same management and conducted on the same principles that have always characterized our entire business. We shall keep everything in trimmed and untrimmed hats, novelties of every description. Having secured a trimmer noted for her artistic and skillful work, we are enabled to suit all tastes. We invite a careful inspection of our entire store. All welcome.
