A Report Corrected.

EDITOR HERALD :- In justice to all concorned I feel called upon to state that the report of the Lakeside committee meeting of Monday evening last, published in last evenng's Republican, was so incorrect that it es one as baving been purposely garbled. In the first place I did not state to who was the Schuylkill county reporter for the meeting that Mr. Keim had assured me waiting for the grade of the electric road to law journal published at Philadelphia, has privileges. What I did say was that Mr. Keim had said that the people holding yearly ommission to the owners of the park and he has been changed to that effect. throughout the state, especially among the did not think they would be willing to pay an additional commission to outside parties. I also submitted to the committee a list of the yearly privileges and the names and addresses of the holders, all given me by Mr. Keim, so that the committee could write and see if any commission could be secured. The Republican's report also says a motion that 'We do not go to Lakeside on August 15th' was carried without a dissenting voice. This part of the minutes was also badly garbled. John W. Morgan made such a motion, but the vote was 4 in favor and 4 against. Chairuan Edward Reese cast the deciding vote, declaring the motion carried.

MR. LAUDERMAN SURPRISED. A Large Gathering at Ills Residence Last

Daniel Lauderman, outside foreman at the Cohinoor colliery, quietly celebrated his 54th nulversary a few days ago and having eard of it his friends, who are Jegion, desided to follow it up with a jolly surprise. Accordingly last evening they all stormed he residence and a royal welcome they occived. Mr. Lauderman is as wide-a-wake as he is generous and popular, and when his larder is found empty there is indeed something wrong. Last night everything was all right and the larder was well stocked. While the Grant Band was playing Its excellent selections in the garden the family was busy uside preparing the refreshments, which were wet and dry and pleatiful. As soon as the surprising party was scated within the hospitable walls and the last notes of the band died away Mr. William Trezise stepped up to Mr. Lauderman and in a very graceful little address presented him with a handome gold watch chain and locket, and an old-fashioned German long-stemmed pipe with a long, prettily decorated chica bowl. The gifts were tokens of esteem and apreclation, and in receiving them Mr. Lauderman was much affected. He was not prepared to make a speech, but said he would continue to do unto his friends as he had tried to do in the past-treat them as man should treat man. Then the band most important action was the adoption of a played again and more refreshments were passed around. Music by the band, violin, organ and vocal selections made the next few hours pass delightfully, and shortly before midnight the visitors took leave of their host, wishing him many more anniversaries. Among those who were present in addition to the members of the Grant Band were Mesars, T. J. James, George Skeath, John will be closed from the third Thursday of Trezise, William H. Baker, Morris Brown, Richard Reese, Thomas Stoft, John Blickley, John Williams, James Glover, Martin Monaghan, Joseph Long, William T. Trezise, W. J. Watkins, Andrew Doyle, Charles Karkel, Arthur Trezise, John Dillensnyder, Philip and A. J. Lauderman, Jere. Fry. Thomas Redeliff, F. C. Reese, Joseph Peters and Abe.

Mr. Lauderman has been outside foreman matters stand in regard to the protest against at the Kohinoor collicry for the past twenty years and has filled the position so satisfactorily that he has made a host of warm friends in all circles
