His Personal Experience.
Hon. James W. Husted, while serving his sixth term as Speaker of the Assembly of the State of New York, writes:
"STATE OF N. Y., ASSEMBLY CHAMBER, ALBANY, JAN. 16, 1890.
I desire once more to bear my testimony to the value of Alcock's Porous Plasters. I have used them for twenty-five years past, and can conscientiously commend them as the best external remedy that I have known. Years ago, when thrown from a carriage and seriously injured, I gave them a thorough trial. In a very short time the pain that I was suffering disappeared, and within a week I was entirely relieved. On another occasion, when suffering from a severe cough, which threatened pulmonary difficulties, which I was recommended to go to Florida to relieve, I determined to test the plasters again. I applied them to my chest and between the shoulder blades, and in less than a fortnight was entirely cured. On still another occasion when suffering from an attack of rheumatism in the shoulder to such an extent that I could scarcely raise my arm, I again resorted to the plasters, and within a very few days the rheumatism entirely disappeared. I have them constantly by me, whether at home or abroad. My family as well as myself have found them to be a sovereign remedy, both for external and internal troubles. I never had but one kidney difficulty in my life, and the application of the plasters cured me in a week. I desire, as I said before, to bear my testimony in a public way to their efficacy, and I know of no better way of doing it than by giving you my personal experience."

Women to the Rescue.
Mrs. Sarah James and Mrs. Phillip Mader, of East Coal street, are collecting for Mrs. Jane Hart, a worthy widow who has been afflicted by the killing of her son, Benjamin, on the railroad near Scranton. Mrs. Hart is very poor and has no money with which to pay the funeral expenses. She has no support other than that derived from a small boy working in the breaker. The woman is the widow of an old soldier. Any aid will be thankfully received by the collectors above named.

CHINA MEN CHARGED WITH RIOTING.

A Dozen Almond-Eyed Celestials in Trouble in Georgia.
ATLANTA, Ga., May 17.—A dozen China-men were arraigned in the recorder's court here to answer for a riot which occurred in their quarter.
The case assumed interest when it was developed in evidence that the riot arose over the traitorous conduct of several of their number in having registered and deposited their photographs in the federal court.

Those loyal to the emperor of China upbraided those who were so weak as to comply with the American law, and the results were broken arms, bruised noses and cracked heads. Heavy fines were imposed on the participants.

Injuries Added to Insults.
A Hungarian with badly bruised and cut face and much torn clothing invoked the aid of the law yesterday. The Hungarian resides in that part of Coal street known as "the flats." On Tuesday night his wife ushered into the household a new boarder in the form of an Italian laborer. Yesterday the Hungarian concluded that the new boarder was assuming too much authority and attempted to eject him. The Italian, much like the snake, turned when stepped upon and stung his assailant with disastrous results. The Hungarian sustained two black eyes, his nose was bulged and his face was tattooed in such a manner it looked like that of a Piji cannibal. In addition to all this the Italian fired the lord of the house into the street. This was too much for the Hungarian and he appealed for the transgressor's arrest.

Grand Display of

FINE DRESS GOODS

DRESS GOODS is such a bewildering topic that we will not attempt a full description, but give a partial outline, which you can fill in by a personal inspection. There are the plain and changeable diagonals; plain, plaid, striped and invisible plaid serges; fancy mixtures in all sorts of odd weaves, dots, threads, cross-threads, hair-lines, lines here and there, many at a glance appearing alike, but upon examination are found entirely different. Our assortment of silks is complete—china silks, china surah, plain surah, bengaline, plain, figured and changeable silks, in all the new shot effects. Full line of fancy braids to match any color of dress goods.

....In Wraps

We find the most stylish and the prevailing mode to be the Cape, in some of its variations, single double or triple capes. Some are plain, others very highly decorated, with fancy indecent braid, butterfly colors or some full arrangement at the neck, so much approved this season by the feminine fancy. To some, coats only are the correct garment. To those we would say coats are equally fashionable and stylish, many of these having capes also attached—sometimes one, two or three, as the taste or inclination of the wearer may desire.

We have this season, for the first time, added a Millinery Department, and have spared neither trouble nor expense to make it a success. The result exceeds our most sanguine expectations. This department will be under the same management and conducted on the same principles that have always characterized our entire business. We shall keep everything in trimmed and untrimmed hats, novelties of every description. Having secured a trimmer noted for his artistic and skillful work, we are enabled to suit all tastes. We invite a careful inspection of our entire store. All welcome.
