COMING CAMPAIGN.

The following editorial from the Frackville ftem is worthy of reproduction into our columns:

As the coming campaign and elec tion will be the most important held in this county for many years, it is our Intention to devote no little attention to the subject of politics, in hopes that we may induce a large class of our best citizens to give the subject more consideration than they have heretofore done. We believe it to be the duty of every good citizen not only to take an interest, but an active part In the political control of his county, in other words, the control of his home or local government. We will give the matter personal supervision and gather from the best sources of all sec-tions of the county the most reliable MeVicar, Mayor Stuart, President Hart
