Political.
Who wants to run for Gov'nor?
There ain't a single town But's trottin' out her candidate, from Billville clean to Brown.
An' the Karulis fresh from Washin'ton that missed a Clevelan' place, I turned the cattle-out to graze an' galloped in the race!
Who wants to run for Gov'nor?
Each feller's got a stake, An' the plum crop's jes a bloom'n in the cross roads' o' the state An' the man that missed the mission, an' the other feller, too, Is climbin' of them plum trees an' reachin' for a few!

Who wants to run for Gov'nor?
Jes' let 'em come to law!
The race track's jes' the biggest that a feller ever saw!
An' the plums are hangin' heavy, an' the peach is gettin' brown, An' the feller with the longest reach'll pull the biggest down!

—Atlantic Constitution.
Candidates for the local post office are haunting for signers for their petitions.
Out in Indiana civil service rules don't count. A new postmaster hustled out of office the old letter-carriers and put in new ones. Of course there is much indignation, but you can bet your last cent he will be permitted to have his way and there it will end.

The civil service examinations for letter carriers and clerks will be held in town next month. Up to the present time there are very few applicants. Before the order was issued there were hundreds who thought they knew all about the business and could fill the positions without much trouble but, where are they now?
The Penrose bill passed the Legislature finally and if the Governor signs it it will only be turning out one set of medals to put others in their places.

The candidates for the local post office now number seven—Monaghan, Mellet, Masters, Cardin, Hess, Quinn and Scheilly. Six of these will be disappointed.

MOVED TO NEW JERSEY.

Domestic Sewing Machine Company Changes Its Headquarters.

New York, May 24.—A sensation in the affairs of the Domestic Sewing Machine company, which has been attached by the Astor Place bank, the attachments aggregating $27,343, has been caused by the sudden removal of the executive offices of the company from 853 Broadway to Newark, N. J.

It is said that this action is due to avoid other attachments being placed here, and to protect the receipts of the company, which is a foreign corporation. It is also said that the removal is made to avoid the payment of taxes here.

The store of the company at No. 853 Broadway continues in charge of the sheriff to-day, but without any interference in the business. The officers of the company are very reticent.

Those who are familiar with the company's condition say that the tightness of the money market has found it in straits.
It has large quantities of paper out which is held by many banks. The Broadway bank is said to hold $100,000 worth. What action the banks will take cannot be learned. They are known not to hold the same views as the Astor Bank people with regard to the statements of Vice-President Black.

The Union Square bank is one of the banks with which the sewing machine company had dealings. The president of the bank said yesterday that the standing of the company is satisfactory to them. He blames the cause of the company's difficulties to tight money.

A Victim of Smallpox.
LANCASTER, May 24.—David Deaner, a prosperous farmer, died yesterday from smallpox. This is the first death from that disease in this county this year. There were only half a dozen cases of the disease, and all were in the same neighborhood in the county, ten miles from this city.

A Terrible Storm at Wilkes-Barre.
WILKES-BARRE, May 24.—A terrific wind storm began here yesterday afternoon and continued for two hours. From what can be learned it prevailed throughout the Wyoming valley, doing considerable damage to buildings and crops in the country districts. It was followed by rain and hail.

Easton Visited by a Hurricane.
EASTON, May 24.—A hurricane swept over this section last night. Many shade trees and several buildings were damaged and some windows smashed. Telephone wires were broken and instruments burned out. There is no telephone connection with outside town points.

Ellis Bard Pardoned.
LANCASTER, May 24.—President Cleveland has pardoned Ellis Bard, ex-cashier of the Lincoln national bank, of this county, who was serving a sentence of five years in the Eastern penitentiary for embezzling $39,000 from his institution.

Henry Leonard Dead.
LANCASTER, May 24.—Henry Leonard, for eighteen years janitor at Franklin and Marshall college, died yesterday, aged 69 years. He was well known and a great favorite of the hundreds of students who attended this college since 1875.

Run on the Elmira Savings Bank.
ELMIRA, N. Y., May 24.—The suspension of the Elmira National bank has caused a big run to be made on the Elmira Savings bank. Hundreds of excited de-positors crowded around the bank all day yesterday, but the bank kept right along business and the depositors will all be paid in full. All amounts under $100 have been paid on demand. The usual time allowed by law will be taken for all deposits over $100.

No. 4 NORTH MAIN STREET,

Grand Display of FINE DRESS GOODS

DRESS GOODS is such a bewildering topic that we will not attempt a full description, but give a partial outline, which you can fill in by a personal inspection. There are the plain and changeable diagonals; plain, plaid, striped and invisible plaid serges; fancy mixtures in all sorts of odd weaves, dots, threads, cross-threads, hair-lines, lines here and there, many at a glance appearing alike, but upon examination are found entirely different. Our assortment of silks is complete—china silks, china surah, plain surah, bengaline, plain, figured and changeable silks, in all the new shot effects. Full line of fancy braids to match any color of dress goods.

....In Wraps We find the most stylish and the prevailing mode to be the Cape, in some of its variations, single, double or triple capes. Some are plain, others very highly decorated, with fancy indecent braid, butterfly colors, or some full arrangement at the neck, so much approved this season by the feminine fancy. To some, coats only are the correct garment. To those we would say coats are equally fashionable and stylish, many of these having capes also attached—sometimes one, two or three, as the taste or inclination of the wearer may desire.

We have this season, for the first time, added a Millinery Department, and have spared neither trouble nor expense to make it a success. The result exceeds our most sanguine expectations. This department will be under the same management and conducted on the same principles that have always characterized our entire business. We shall keep everything in trimmed and untrimmed hats, novelties of every description. Having secured a trimmer noted for her artistic and skillful work, we are enabled to suit all tastes. We invite a careful inspection of our entire store. All welcome.
