PENNSYLVANIA HAPPENINGS.

News Gathered from All Sections of the Keystone State.

READING, May 25.—Theodore Heinle was admitted to the Reading hospital here with a bullet hole in his head. After he was undressed and examined another bullet wound was found in his left breast, near the heart. He was under the influence of liquor, and had been brought to the police station by Officers Maurer and Good. As his condition improved he became more rational and said that he had been on his terms for over six months with a man named John Polinski, who was a rival dealer in butter and eggs.

Tuesday evening, according to the story, Polinski induced him to walk along the river bank after the rain storm, and then shot him twice. Heinle has been conducting a small store on Court street, above Sixth; but no trace can be found of the man whom he calls Polinski, and who he claims is a rival. The police are of the opinion that Heinle's wounds are self-inflicted, as the wound in his forehead appears to be burned with powder on the outside, showing that the shot was at close range. His recovery is considered doubtful.

Serious Trouble in a Church.

WILKES-BARRE, May 25.—The dangerous and disgraceful scenes that three Plymouth people into a constant turmoil and dread three years ago, owing to the church war, are likely to break out afresh. By a recent decision of the bishop Rev. Father Koswiko, who was driven out three years ago, has been ordered back to the parish.

He forcibly took possession of the church Tuesday night, but was not allowed to enter the parsonage, the housekeeper standing guard with a revolver. The people are up in arms, and any slight encouragement would precipitate a riot. Three years ago this church was at war. Graves were broken open and desecrated, and attempts were made to blow up the priest's house with dynamite. Not until the "Polish King," Martin Wilkes, was sent to the penitentiary for a year was the trouble abated. Wilkes is now again in Plymouth.

Fatally Shot His Brother.

SHENANDOAH, May 25.—At Dunmore, James and Gus Fitzpatrick, brothers, quarreled over the ownership of a revolver. Finally the latter, who is 16 years old, got hold of the weapon and the former grappled with him to take it away. While doing so, Gus turned the muzzle of the revolver against his older brother and pulled the trigger. The bullet entered the body and produced a wound from which James will probably die. The man who did the shooting says he did so purposely, as he feared the superior strength of his brother when he rushed at him.

Was Dragged to Death.

MEMA, May 25.—George Russell, a 13-year-old son of Joseph Russell, of Upper Providence, was thrown from a young horse he was riding yesterday and instantly killed. His feet caught in the stirrup and he was dragged along the road, head down ward. The horse was caught after it had run about 100 yards and the boy released, but he died a few minutes afterwards. He was employed, when the accident happened, in hunting stray horses for Perry Cooper, a son of Collector Cooper.

A Water Main Bursts at Lancaster.

LANCASTER, May 25.—A break in the 18-inch water main that supplies the reservoir caused a general suspension of manufacturing business yesterday. Not an establishment where steam is used was in operation. Travel was suspended on the electric railways for several hours, when trenches were dug and water for the engines was secured from neighboring wells. The evening papers were gotten out as usual by procuring water for their engines from pumps.

May Have Been Faulty Deal With.

CONNELEWILLE, May 25.—E. L. Shaffer, aged 29, the son of Richard Shaffer, one of the wealthiest farmers in Northern Fayette county, has been mysteriously missing since Sunday night, when he left some words to drive to his home three miles away. On Monday morning the horse traced home, covered with mud and blood. His friends believe he has met with foul play. On Saturday he received three anonymous letters threatening his life.

The case of Mrs. Edward Myers, of Athens, N. Y., furnishes an apt illustration of a woman's power of endurance. This lady had been treated for months in the usual way for Erysipelas of the hand, without benefit. She said her hand had become a mass of it putrid flesh, and her life depended on it. She had become a mass of it putrid flesh, and her life depended on it. She had become a mass of it putrid flesh, and her life depended on it.

TO WELCOME EULALIA

Programme for Her Reception at New York To-day.

GRAND BALL TO-MORROW NIGHT

Expected That the Infanta and Her Suite Will Reach the Metropolis About 4 O'clock This Afternoon—A Visit Yesterday to the Tomb of Washington—Distinguished Officials in the Party.

New York, May 25.—This afternoon at about 4 o'clock the Infanta and suite, accompanied by Commander Davis, U. S. A., are expected to arrive at Jersey City from Washington. The special committee on reception will receive the party and take them on a steamer to the Thirty-fourth street pier, North river, and thence, with Troop A. N. G., S. N. Y., as an escort, the party will be taken in carriages to the Hotel Savoy, at Fifty-ninth street and Fifth avenue.

Mayor Gilroy and the Committee of One Hundred and the Auxiliary Committee will receive the royal visitors at the hotel and formally welcome them to New York. The Saragossa Military Band will be at the hotel and furnish music when the Infanta arrives at the Savoy.

In the evening the representatives of the Spanish colony of New York will march in torchlight procession from Fifty-first street, near Ninth avenue, to the Savoy, preceded by the Saragossa Band, and surround the Infanta about 8 o'clock. Later, if the Infanta so desires, she and her suite may visit the Grand Central Theatre, where boxes have been provided for the party.

Ward McAllister said this morning: "The Spanish Infanta will be received here with all the ceremony and deference due to royalty, but at the same time she must conform to the etiquette which rules here.

"The same custom obtains in European countries. When royalty of one country visits another court, then the etiquette of that court is observed to the letter. So it should be here. All social amenities which are due to ladies of rank will be strictly observed, but as to kissing of hands there will be none of that. Neither, when one is presented to the Infanta, will it be necessary to back away. These things in America are all unknown.

"Let us leave none of them. The etiquette and customs of New York society will be in order at the ball to the Infanta. Anything else would be out of place."

Mr. McAllister is to serve on the Reception Committee at the ball on Friday.

The arrangements for Friday's ball are rapidly approaching completion. So great has been the demand for boxes that eight new ones are to be erected. As far as is known now the box-holders will be as follows: Mrs. John Jacob Astor, Mrs. George P. Andrews, Mrs. J. H. V. Arnold, Mrs. Percy Alden, Mrs. Edward J. Berwind, Mrs. Frederic P. Benedict, Miss de Borral, Mrs. J. M. Coburn, Mrs. Chester W. Chapin, Mrs. Margaret of Casa Argentin, Mrs. Josephine Mrs. J. H. Francis, Mrs. C. G. de Garayzarin, Frederick Goldberg, Mrs. Edward B.
