NEW SCHOOL BOARD.

Business of the Old Body Wound Up.

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED.

Patrolman, President, Frank Hanna, Secretary, P. J. Ferguson, Treasurer, and J. Boyle, Esq., Solicitor—Vacancies in the High School and at Turkey Run filled temporarily.

The School Board met last evening in the High school building to wind up the business for the fiscal year and re-organize for the ensuing year. Messrs. Hanna, Ferguson, Boyle, Hanna, Davenport, Muldoon, O'Hearn, Ogden, Titman, Hman, Tremla, Brennan, Dewitt, Manley, Gallagher, M. P. Whitaker and J. Coyte, Esq., were among those present.

The resignation of William N. Ehrhart from the position of principal of the High School was presented, read and accepted. A request for permission to use one of the West Chest street school rooms for Sunday school purposes pending the completion of repairs in the Evangelical church was granted.

Superintendent Freeman then proceeded to make his report. The enrollment for the year is 2,703, of which 1,256 were boys and 1,447 girls. The average daily attendance for the year was 928 boys and 1,042 girls, a total of 1,970. The average percentage of attendance was 91 for boys and 88 for girls.

Mr. Freeman said the year just ended had been a successful one, and the school buildings in excellent repair, the board has an efficient corps of janitors and a very excellent corps of teachers. The superintendent spoke of additional school room required. He said the High school pupils now number 84, of which 17 will graduate this term. He has been examined a class of 56 grammar school scholars and about 50 of them will be seeking admission to the High School. The present accommodations will be insufficient.

Mr. Freeman suggested that the grammar school room (changed from the High school building to its new structure, when completed. He suggested that a commercial course, specifying bookkeeping, typewriting and stenography. With a few remarks Mr. Freeman made his formal retirement as superintendent. He was evidently much affected and did not wish to prolong the parting. All the room gave him a hearty farewell shake of the hand.

The finance committee presented its report showing a balance of $1,364.81 in the treasury. The old board then adjourned sine die.

ORGANIZATION.

H. J. Muldoon was made temporary chairman and Frank Hanna temporary secretary. The new and elected members then presented their credentials and the board proceeded to organize permanently.

The following permanent officers were elected without opposition: President, Patrick Conroy; Secretary, Frank Hanna; Treasurer, P. J. Ferguson; Solicitor, J. R. Coyte, Esq. And it was decided that the salaries of these officers remain the same as last year.

On motion of Mr. Gallagher, the school rules of last year were adopted, with the exception of rule 19, which was changed so far as it related to the time for electing teachers.

The rule now provides that the School Board shall meet within 12 days after the end of the school term for the purpose of electing teachers. This change was made necessary on account of the school term having been extended to ten months.

Mr. M. P. Whitaker, the new superintendent, tendered a verbal resignation from his position as teacher in the Turkey Run school and Miss Kate Hogan was elected to fill the position for the balance of the term.

Miss Clara Cline, who has been assistant in the High School was elected to succeed Mr. Ehrhart as principal for the balance of the term.

Miss Jennie Carter was elected to fill the place vacated by Miss Cline.

The board decided to subscribe for the School Journal and have a copy mailed to each School Director and teacher, monthly.

The bond of the treasurer was fixed at $30,000, same as last year.

It was decided to publish the financial statement of the board for the year in all the town papers.

Mr. Whitaker was then called upon for remarks. He paid a splendid compliment to Mr. Freeman, in speaking of himself Mr. Whitaker said he had spent the best days of his life in schoolwork. He had one consolation in the face of the criticism to which he had been subjected since his election to the superintendency and that was, the majority of the people who criticized him did not know him. He said he cherished no personal enmity to anybody and did not desire to do so for his own sake, and for the sake of the schools. He did not want to see the standing of the schools interfered with in any way.

Director Davenport said he didn't think there was a man on the board who could say the minority members had made any injurious remark against Mr. Whitaker, as a man. They had none to make. What the majority had done was in accord with the Bedsteads.

I have about two hundred fine style, suitable for odd

law. Mr. Davenport also said that if Mr. Whitaker is capable of filling the position satisfactorily he will have the hearty support of the minority members and he will have nothing to embarrass his work. "We bear no malice to Mr. Whitaker and did not take the action with any personal feeling."

Mr. Whitaker said he did not specify any one member of the board. His remarks were general. Mr. Whitaker and Mr. Davenport then agreed that if there was any feeling it would be wiped out by time.

The board then adjourned. The regular monthly meeting will be held to-morrow night.

A GRAND OPENING.

Brilliant Event at Max Schmidt's New Place.

Max Schmidt last night threw open the doors of his new dry goods, notions and fancy goods establishment on North Main street. It was an auspicious opening and something entirely new. The store presented a magnificent appearance. The large assortment of new goods were arranged on shelves, counters, in show cases and in the two immense front show windows in a most attractive style. The windows presented a lovely appearance and ladies gazed at them without tiring. At 8 o'clock last evening the Grand Band marched up to the store and after playing a selection on the pavement filed into the place and took seats at the rear. A concert which lasted about two hours was then given. The programme was as follows:

March, "Beethoven"..... Sousa
March, "Major Jones"..... Sousa
Overture, "The Electric Light"..... DeWitt
"New York by Electric Light"
Kangaroo Dance
Jazz, "The Marines"..... T. B. Brooks
"A Trip to the Country"
The band was in excellent trim and gave the selections with refreshing snap and vim. The first march played is Sousa's latest and is still in manuscript form, never having been published. "The Trip to the Country" is a new, humorous descriptive piece which the Grand Band is just introducing and it met with great favor last night. The synopsis is given as follows: "A hot and sultry day in the city;" "The street car;" "Reflections interrupted by a hand organ slightly out of tune;" "The organ moves on;" "Hurried preparations for a trip to the country;" "Walking toward the station;" "The engine whistles;" "Running to make the train;" "All aboard!" "The train steams out of the station;" "Engine whistles at crossing;" "Engine whistles at station;" "Station lagged;" "All out for Scranton!" "Free bus to the hotel!" "The bus ride;" "All out of the bus;" "Meditation interrupted by a serenade of the local band;" "The band breaks down;" "The rest is descriptive of the tuning up of a violin, a country dance and the return to the city, ending with "There's no Place Like Home."

Mr. Schmidt entertained the band and other visitors royally. He gave each a small but very fragrant bouquet attached to a card bearing his compliments and after the concert gave an excellent luncheon in one of the upper apartments of his elegant new residence.

It was an excellent stroke of enterprise on the part of Mr. Schmidt. The public had a splendid opportunity to view the new place and get an idea of the stock. At one time the store was packed with people and many were unable to gain admission.

The store is now open for business and Mr. Schmidt starts out with the hearty good wishes of many beside the HERALD.

Points.

The members of the Schuykill Press Association have fixed on Wednesday, June 14, as the date of their "outing" at Cold Springs. It will be a failure because the State Association holds forth the same week. It would have been better had a later date been decided upon.

Quay, Cooper, Leach and few lesser political lights of the Republican party, some from this county, were at Atlantic City over Sunday. The laid-headed statesman from Schuykill Haven, Hon. S. A. Leach, is slated for Auditor General.

Obituary.

Robert J., the 14-year-old son of John M. and Annie Hughes, of Wm. Penn, died this morning from inflammation of the bowels after an illness of nine days. The funeral will take place at 3 p. m. on Thursday from the family residence at Wm. Penn and the remains will be interred in the Odd Fellows cemetery here.

Necessity is the mother of invention. The manufacturers of "Admiral" cigarettes evidently recognized this when they produced that peerless brand. THE POPULAR CONTEST

"Herald's" Favorite Teachers' Vacation.

GIVE EARNEST SUPPORT.

The Weary Pedagogue will Find Pleasure at the World's Fair, Niagara Falls or Boston Through Your Influence—Vote Early and Often for Your Favorite.

The exhibit of the British Red Cross Society at the World's Fair is alone worthy of the trip to Chicago. One of the most interesting sections of the exhibit is that in which doll models are used to depict children in all stages of suffering.

Here a maternity nurse in pure white holds in her motherly arms an infant in long robes. On a steel tent bedstead lies a little one who has undergone the operation of tracheotomy. Beside the bed stands the steel steamers which furnish the warm air she breathes through the tube in her throat. On another bed is a little girl under 3 years of age slung for fracture of femur, for vertical extension. Special clothing increases the little limbs and flannel covers the chest. There is, too, the model of a child suffering with hip disease, limbs extended by means of the Bryant splint, and the same child convalescent and lying on a flat couch, clothed in flannel. Another little one in long, woolen garments is in the arms of the nurse, all ready for an operation.

There are also many nurses in this exhibit. Sweetest of all, because quaintest of all, are the native Indian nurses who are in hospitals in Cairo and Bombay. In Cairo is the Arab nurse in blue-striped gown, white apron and native headress. Nurse Amalia, in the Gama hospital, Bombay, is in pink trousers, with overalls of white and white headress. The Hindoo nurse, Radahai, in holiday attire, stands resplendent in robe of changeable green silk, with golden, bordering, while next to her stands the Nurse Doolah in blue and silver. Another Hindoo nurse is in holiday garb and crimson and gold with gayly flowered vest. Nurse Penmahal is in blue and red, while marshaling her line stands English Sister Mary in white, with bow of blue at the neck, her blond hair half covered with lace, a charming contrast to her black-robed assistants. The wall of the room in which is placed this exhibit is hung with the portraits of distinguished and philanthropic women.

Long-Headed Pottsvillians.

Several young county seat bloods, whose papas will not allow them to visit the World's Fair in a Pullman palace car, have adopted a plan which will enable them to visit the white city on a large scale at small cost. They have chartered a freight car, and will furnish it in a manner that will discount the famous private car of ex-President McLeod. The car will have two departments, one used for culinary purposes and the other as a sleeping department. The top of the car will be used as an observatory, and will enable the young men to view the scenery on the trip to an advantage that the ordinary Pullman does not afford. The advantage of making the trip in this manner is that they can travel as freight, classed as live cattle, and the cost to each will not exceed $10. The car will be attached to through freight trains, thus making the trip in as limited a time as the fast passenger trains. Another advantage gained by these long-headed Pottsville youths is that they will use the car during their stay at Chicago, as a hotel, and will not be compelled to excessive hotel rates.

OBES'S OBSERVATIONS.

What He Sees and Hears During His Travels.

The sudden warm spell yesterday was felt by the men who were engaged in breaking stone for the streets and several of them were obliged to give up the labor. One of them said that handling a scoop in a coal gangway was the best after all.

It is now stated that the water syndicate has gone out of business. Contractor Quinn is said to have been the stumbling block. His figures for withdrawal were too high.

A committee of business men has been appointed to negotiate with the Thomas Coal Company for a lease on the vacant space north of the hook and ladder house with a view to transforming the place into a park for pleases. One of the committee said the town is losing thousands of dollars every week because it has no attractions to keep the pleasure seekers at home or to draw them from other places. If the committee can make suitable arrangements with the Thomas Coal Company a canvas will be made among all the business people of the town with a view to invoking their support towards putting the ground in shape and advertising it liberally.

Painters, carpenters and plumbers find their services in great demand now. So many new buildings are being erected these workmen have become scarce.

One of our townsmen said yesterday that if the unsolved robberies keep multiplying it will be necessary to send for some of Pinkerton's men. Something will have to be done for the town seems to be at the mercy of one of the slickest gangs that ever infested the place. Suspicion is directed against a gang which is no doubt the guilty source, but not the slightest evidence can be secured against it. The gang embraces some old timers who are as bold, daring and shrewd as any professional burglars in the country and they would make the keenest detectives do some hard thinking. It is quite evident that they are more than a match for the local authorities and, unless they should lose their heads and become reckless, their career will not be cut short without the aid of some excellent secret service.

I heard George Palmer say the other day that he would go into a movement to pave Main street between Lloyd and Coal. He said his signature would be ready as soon as somebody started the list. M. L. Kemmerer has also become a paving enthusiast and says that Main street, between Centre and Lloyd should be paved by all means.

Ex-Superintendent Freeman, when speaking of his retirement from the management of our schools the other day, said he had tired of school work and would try to divorce himself from it forever. He goes to his new home in Providence, Rhode Island, and after his house is put in order he will take his family to Chicago, where they will spend several weeks viewing the sights at the World's Fair. When Mr. Freeman returns to Providence he will cast all cares aside and spend a year in ease and pleasure. Meanwhile he will keep his weather eye open for some mercantile pursuit. It is said Mr. Freeman has a good supply of this world's goods and therefore he should experience little difficulty in securing an opening in the mercantile field. But many of his friends think that the school field will claim him again before a great while, and Mr. Freeman smilingly says he fears it will, too.

Mr. Ehrhart changed his mind on Sunday and when the pupils filed into the High school room yesterday morning they found him at his old desk. He retained charge of the school until last evening. Mr. Whitaker, the new superintendent, spent yesterday acquainting himself with the duties of the office.

The action of the Borough Council in deciding to settle the suit against the three Poles who were arrested for creating a public nuisance at home and saving the expense of going to court, is looked upon by most of the people as a wise one. The borough ordinances provide ample punishment for such offenders when they are properly enforced, and the courts do not deal out the relief in borough cases which the citizens of this town look for. Our town is a most unfortunate litigant. The experience of the past ten years have shown that it is cheaper for the town authorities to throw up their hands and deliver when a demand is made upon them than to seek relief before juries, and the results in cases where the borough has been prosecutor show up no better. This is due in a great measure to our jury system. The first thing the jurors seem to give attention to is the discovery of which litigant can best afford to pay the costs. It is a notorious fact that the merits of a case is a secondary matter with most men who serve on juries in this county. The question of costs seems paramount with them. A recent case in which one of our townsmen was interested is in point. He brought suit for $50 on an old book account. When the jurors retired one of them said "I move that we decide in favor of the defendant. He is a poor man and the other fellow is rich and can afford to pay the costs." Another juror with more respect for the oath he took when he was placed in the jury box insisted that the jurors examine the accounts and the merits of the case. This was finally done and our townsmen got a verdict. This is sufficient to convince any one that the borough has to do with juries the better off will its exchequer be. ONE.

HANGING TO A TREE

Discovery Near a Cemetery This Morning.

WAS A CASE OF SUICIDE

A Hungarian the Victim—No One Has Claimed the Body, Which is in Charge of Deputy Coroner Manley—Identity of the Man Established.

THIS morning while a Polish man named Sokolowski was driving his cows to pasture along the southern side of the Annunciation cemetery he found the dead body of a man held in an upright position by a rope suspended from a limb of a young tree.

The position of the body was such that at a distance of a hundred yards it would seem to be the form of a man walking about and looking for something on the ground. Sokolowski reported the case to Sexton McGuire, connected with the Annunciation cemetery, and he in turn notified Dr. Longacre, who was driving to Ringtown and who returned to town with the news.

The body was well dressed and everything indicated that the man had made deliberate preparations for suicide. On one branch of a tree hung his coat and on another his hat. One of the shoes was a few feet distant, having evidently been removed to allow the victim to climb better to get a drop. Stones were also removed from the ground, so not to interfere with the drop and intervening branches of the tree were broken off.

Undertaker Franey took charge of the remains and left them in a conspicuous place, within a closed casket, for identification.

Guided by a pay check of the Wm. Penn colliery found upon the person of the deceased, Deputy Coroner Manley and a HERALD reporter went to Wm. Penn to-day and learned that the deceased was known at the colliery as John Shannock. His last pay check at the colliery was dated May 20, 1893, and was for $5.50. The deceased was a breaker employe. His real name is John Kwalle. He has a wife named Marjanna Kwalle, who resides at Bodarka, Paw Gales, Galicia. In January, 1891, he sent her 150 guilders, equal at that time to $64.50 in American money. Kwalle was a resident of this town about two years and arrived at Wm. Penn from Olyphant about six weeks ago.

The Deputy Coroner notified one Michael Shannock, who is employed at Wm. Penn, of the case, but up to a late hour this afternoon this body had not been claimed. If not claimed by to-night it will be sent to Schuykill Haven. The body is badly decomposed and must have been hanging at least three days. Michael Shannock is believed to be a brother of the deceased.

Two Street Accidents.

A horse hauling a cart for carrying dirt from the site of the new West Centre street school building ran away on that street this morning and at the corner of Centre and Jardin streets knocked down and ran over an old man named Edward Reilly, of North Jardin street, breaking his right leg below the knee. Reilly was sent to the Miners' Hospital.

Louis, the three-year-old, of Mrs. Alice Snyder, was knocked down by a carriage on West Coal street last evening and had his head bruised. The driver was excused from responsibility. The child did not sustain serious injury.

Twenty Years' Experience.

C. D. Fredricks, the well known photographer, 770 Broadway, New York, says: "I have been using Alcock's Porous Plasters for 20 years, and found them one of the best of family medicines. Briefly summing up my experience, I say that when placed on the small of the back Alcock's Plasters fit the body with nervous energy, and thus cure fatigue, brain exhaustion, debility and kidney difficulties. For women child children I have found them invaluable. They never irritate the skin or cause the slightest pain, but cure sore throat, coughs, colds, pains in side, back or chest, indigestion and bowel complaints."
