CROPULDUS:

HARRISTURG, June 12 .- The governor late Saturday afternoon approved the sup-plement to the Baker ballot law, the state dental examiners' bill, the Philadelphia Bourse bill, the bill authorizing capitalization of corporations not exceeding $30,000, 000, and the bill to prevent incorporation of boom companies on streams not more than thirty five miles long.

The governor disapproved six hills. One of these proposed to prohibit the peddling, selling or hawking merchandise or other gooils in the state without a license, and in vetoing it the governor says he regards it as "a most vexatious and oppressive interference with the free operations of legiti-mate business," and as "a most unwise and unjust discrimination against the citizens, manufacturers and merchants of our
