FIRST EDITION.
FORT CARBON.

George Knowles, formerly assistant yard master at St. Clair weigh scales, died in the Harrisburg asylum Tuesday evening, where he had been for the past two years. His remains will be brought to his home for interment. Deceased was 78 years old and leaves a wife and son to mourn his untimely demise.

J. E. Stevens' sons, Edwin and Walter, two victims of the scarlet fever epidemic, are improving.

Mooney's Hotel, on "Quality Hill," is establishing quite a reputation as a summer resort, and why not there is not a place to be found in the coal regions that affords such splendid inducements for grand scenery and pure air.

George Watson has purchased two blooded horses from a Berks county party.

Knauss Tempin, yardmaster at St. Clair, has again been attacked with sun stroke.

Good Will Hose Company, No. 1, are making elaborate arrangements for their strawberry festival to be held on the 23d, 24d and 25th of this month. Help the boys along.

Harry Wannamaker's oldest son is lying very low with scarlet fever.

Mrs. N. W. Major made a dying trip to Philadelphia yesterday.

Our School Board held a special meeting Tuesday evening to decide as to the rate of mills for school tax.

Howard Brenner, formerly of Port Carbon, now of Ashland, where he holds a good position in the P. & R. Fourth street office, is spending a few days with his many friends, Washington Camp No. 134, P. O. S. of A., are going to have a big time on the 20th. Some prominent members of the order have signified their intention to participate and help the boys enjoy themselves.

USE DANA'S SASSAPARILLA, ITS "THE KIND THAT CURES."

THE CIRCUS.

The Street Display of Vans, Animals and Bands a Fine One.

Thousands of people from city and country packed our streets this morning to witness the street parade of Walter L. Main's show, which was an inspiring scene to the beholders. There were the usual clowns, the lady equestrians, the numerous animal vans, the elephants, camels and Shetlands and a magnificent tandem team of six white horses. There is an entire absence of the usual fakir followers in evidence, the show being a clean one in every respect. A great crowd thronged the tents this afternoon, and a still larger crowd may be expected to-night. The show is one of the most reputable on the road. Be sure to attend this evening.—The Crescent, Appleton, Wis. Main's circus will appear in Shenandoah on Monday, June 19th.

A New Invention.

Photographer Bretz, of Pottsville, has recently invented a new camera that is recognized by the profession as the greatest invention of recent years. The views are 45x18 inches, taking in 180 degrees at one exposure. The work of this instrument is so finely executed that topographical surveys could be made from them.

Googling Leads to Consumption,
Kemp's Balm will stop the cough at once.

Watered Milk.

It cost Mathias Lutz, of Frankford, Philadelphia, yesterday, $25 and costs for selling watered milk. If the law was enforced in Shenandoah the borough treasury would be greatly enriched in a short time. For watered milk this town takes the lakersy.

Coming Events.

PEOPLE who go out of town to purchase their Carpets should call at Fricke's Carpet Store and get prices and have the different grades explained, so they will not be taken in.

LAKESIDE PARK.
Its Popularity as a Summer Resort on the Increase.

The popularity of Lakeside Park, (East Mahanoy Junction), as a summer resort is on the increase. Its advantages in this respect have been greatly added to this season by the management, and the hotel accommodations have also been improved, together with many new features for the amusement of the patrons. This resort has become so popular that three different companies have applied for rights of way to connect it with this town and Mahanoy City and before many weeks the construction of one of the roads will be under way.

The following is a list of the dates secured and the names of the societies:

June 20.—Annunciation T. A. Band, Shenandoah.

June 27.—Junior Class, High school, Mahanoy City.

July 4.—Tannagh orchestra.

July 5.—Lutheran Sunday school, Girardville.

July 15.—M. E. Sunday school, Gilberton.

July 20.—M. E. and P. M. Sunday schools, Girardville.

July 26.—Wm. Penn Sunday school.

Farmers Meet at Berthelheim.

BERTHELHEIM, June 15.—The summer meeting of the Pennsylvania board of agriculture and general farmers' institute convened in Citizens' Hall here yesterday, and will continue in session two days. The meetings are public, and the attendance was unusually large. The session was called to order by Burgess Paul Kemp-Smith, who delivered the address of welcome. Hon. E. E. Pattison, governor, and president of the board, responded.

The program was made up of essays and discussions, as follows: "The Coming Road," A. Grundy, Lewisburg; "Road Making," J. A. Herr, Cedar Springs, Pa.; "The Future of the Farm," H. L. Jayneburg; "Another Year's Experience with Feeds," Professor B. H. Hoags; "A Talk About Seeds," Professor Thomas Mac Jan, botanist of board, Germantown; "A Tale for Forest Culture," Hon. Jeremiah S. Jess, Hellestown.

He Tried to Commit Suicide.

PHILADELPHIA, June 15.—William Heims, aged 60, who resides at No. 403 North Third street, attempted suicide Tuesday night by cutting his wrists with a knife.

Two men walking along Snyder avenue near Point House road, heard groans, striking matches and looking around they found Heims lying in a ditch alongside of the road bleeding from a gash in his throat. An officer was summoned and the wound of the man removed to St. Agnes' Hospital.

Yesterday he had recovered sufficiently to say that he had attempted suicide. He said that he tried to die two years ago in Germany, and this loss, coupled with his discharge from the place at which he was employed, drove him to commit the act.

The People's Party Convention.

WILLIAMSPORT, June 15.—The state convention of the People's party met in this city yesterday. The session was taken up with organizing the convention, appointment of the committees, etc. No business of special importance was transacted. There are 150 delegates present.

At the afternoon session J. H. Seven son, of Allegheny, was nominated for an associate judge, and F. M. Windsor, of Thompson, for state treasurer. R. A. Thompson, state chairman, and given power to choose a secretary-treasurer.

Weldman Prays for an Indulgence.

LEBANON, June 15.—Gerrit Weldman, solicitor for the president, managers and company of the Berks and Dauphin Turnpike Company, has presented a petition to court, praying for an injunction against the Lebanon and Myerstown Street Railway Company. It is claimed that if the defendant carry out the plans proposed it will prevent the turnpike company from macadamizing portions of the pike and maintaining it in a condition to be used by vehicles. (Wednesday, June 15, was fixed for the hearing by the court.)

Exercises on the Campus.

CHAMBERSBURG, June 15.—Class Day exercises, held on the campus of Wilson college, were specially interesting yesterday. Last evening James Gray, graduation, of Philadelphia, delivered an instructive address to the Greek letter societies in the opera house, on the idea: "Knowledge calls in the highways, and cries her wares in every lane and alley."

A MUSICAL MEDLEY.

The greatest song writer was Schubert. He produced over 1,300 songs.

A physician says that practice at singing wards of consumption.

MARIE VAN ZANDT, the famous prima donna, is the granddaughter of Signor Blitta, the well-known prestidigitator.

The title of court pianist has been conferred by the emperor of Germany on Raoul Koehlschlag, the little eight-year-old boy whose performances are creating a sensation in Berlin.

"NAT" BIRCHALL, who has been appointed United States marshal for Utah, is remembered at Harvard university as the most mellancholic tutor that ever roamed the college yard.

An organist says that a cow moos in a perfect fifth octave, or tenth; a dog barks in fifth or fourth; a donkey brays in a perfect octave, and a horse neighs in a descent on the chromatic scale.

EARL RINGROD, a veteran shoemaker of Deshlerstown, N. J., says he remembers when Christine Nilsson sang to the accompaniment of her brother's violin for the penitents of the country folk of the district near the town of Holmstad, Sweden, and that even then she had a fascinating voice.

CURRENT HUMOR.

ELISE.—"Where does Miss La Smythe get that lovely complexion?" Ethel.—"From Paris, I believe."—N. Y. Herald.

The Columbus stamp has done more to make man a licker than any influence of this generation.—Yonkers Gazette.

DUDELY.—"She said I looked like a very smart man." Miss Payne.—"Dear me. Did she say who the smart man was?"—Harcour's House.

BRIGHT ANSWERS.

A LONDON schoolboy staggered his teacher with this definition of faith: "It is the quality by which we are enabled to believe that which we know is untrue."

At a medical college in Pennsylvania the question was asked: "What are some of the causes of natural death?" A fresh and earnest young man answered: "Hanging, disease and old age."

HELEN KELLES, the blind little prodigy from Boston, asked one of the justices of the supreme court in Washington if he knew a certain Boston lawyer, and upon his replying in the negative retorted brightly: "Why, are you not brother-in-law?"

DICKINSON COLLEGE.
Annual Commencement Exercises Held at That Institution.

CARLEISLE, June 15.—The annual commencement exercises at Dickinson College were held in Boster Memorial Hall yesterday, when a class of thirty-nine received diplomas.

Grand Display of FINE DRESS GOODS

DRESS GOODS is such a bewildering topic that we will not attempt a full description, but give a partial outline, which you can fill in by a personal inspection. There are the plain and changeable diagonals; plain, plaid, striped and invisible plaid serges; fancy mixtures in all sorts of odd weaves, dots, threads, cross-threads, hair-lines, lines here and there, many at a glance appearing alike, but upon examination are found entirely different. Our assortment of silks is complete—china silks, china surah, plain surah, bengaline, plain, figured and changeable silks, in all the new shot effects. Full line of fancy braids to match any color of dress goods.

.....In Wraps

We find the most stylish and the prevailing mode to be the Cape, in some of its variations, single, double or triple capes. Some are plain, others very highly decorated, with fancy indented braid, butterfly colors, or some full arrangement at the neck, so much approved this season by the feminine fancy. To some, coats only are the correct garment. To those we would say coats are equally fashionable and stylish, many of these having capes also attached—sometimes one, two or three, as the taste or inclination of the wearer may desire.

We have this season, for the first time, added a Millinery Department, and have spared neither trouble nor expense to make it a success. The result exceeds our most sanguine expectations. This department will be under the same management and conducted on the same principles that have always characterized our entire business. We shall keep everything in trimmed and untrimmed hats, novelties of every description. Having secured a trimmer noted for her artistic and skillful work, we are enabled to suit all tastes. We invite a careful inspection of our entire store. All welcome.
