A GOOD SHOW.

Walter L. Main's Circus at the Trotting Park.

Contrary to the expectations of many the stock of Walter L. Main's circus did not appear in a half lame and blind condition. The wild animals, horses and supplies turned up in very good condition and having a few scratches on some of the steeds one would find no evidence of the wreck the shows experienced in the western part of the state.

This morning a parade was given and everybody pronounced it very satisfactory. The manager makes an excellent showing considering the recent adventures, as given this afternoon, is equal to any seen here for some time. An excellent side show is also on the grounds. W. Fred Aymer, the press representative of the show, paid a visit to the Herald office and we are prepared to say we found his modest representations fulfilled to the letter.

Assaulted and Robbed.

Simon Nama, a Hebrew peddler of town, in company with George Algray, an employe of Main's circus, were attacked last evening at the Centre street crossing of the Lehigh Valley railroad by five unknown men. They were on their way to the circus grounds, and Nama was approached by one of the five known men with the request for a chew of tobacco. He pulled out an empty pouch to show he had no tobacco, and as he did so was attacked by the men and robbed of two silver watches. In the meantime his circus friend had walked ahead, and when he heard Nama's cries for help returned to the latter's rescue, but the men had made their escape. No arrests have yet been made.

USE DANA'S RABSAPELLIA, ITS "THE KIND THAT CURES."

Accident at Delano. Joseph Novicki, of town, met with a serious accident at Delano this morning. He was moving a family from this town to the former place, and when he arrived at Delano the harness broke and while repairing it the horses became frightened and ran away, the wagon passing over Novicki's right leg, breaking it below the knee. The horses were not caught until they reached Quakake.

Coming Events.

- June 19 to 24.—Fair and festival in Robbin's hall under the auspices of the English Lutheran church.
- July 3 & 4.—Independence Day festival in Robbin's opera house, under the auspices of Camp 49, Sons of Veterans.

Successful Festival.

One of the most successful festivals held this season was that conducted under the auspices of the joint committee of the three camps of the P. O. S. of A., on Friday and Saturday evenings. The hall was handsomely decorated, and the fancy articles were unique and pretty. Quite a nice sum was realized for the display of fireworks here on the Fourth.

Fire Alarm Boxes.

The following list shows the location of the alarm boxes of the Shenandoah Fire Department:

- 1.—Coal and Bowers streets.
- 2.—Bowers and Centre streets.
- 3.—Bridge and Centre streets.
- 4.—Main and Centre streets.
- 5.—Main and Poplar streets.
- 6.—Main and Coal streets.
- 7.—Gilbert and Centre streets.
- 8.—Gilbert and Cherry streets.
- 9.—Chestnut and Coal streets.

To send an alarm open the box, pull down the hook once and let go. When an alarm is sent in the fire bell will sound the number of the box and repeat the alarm four times.

HOW TO LOCATE ALARMS.

If the alarm is sounded from box 16 the fire bell will strike one, then twice and strike five which will indicate that the fire is in the vicinity of No. 16 box. Every alarm is repeated four times.

PEOPLE who go out of town to purchase their Carpets should call at Fricke's Carpet Store and get prices and have the different grades explained, so they will not be taken in.

FRACKVILLE FANCIES.

"Man About Town's" Budget Well Worth Reading.

While passing one of our public lounging places the other day I accidentally heard a big raw boned son of Adam contemptuously remark, "Oh, the women will soon wear the breeches." I wonder how many lords of creation really know that that modern insignia of masculinity was originally and properly provided for women. The women of Judah, it seems, were the first wearers of the garment in blotted form, and man partaking the convenience and comfort of this article of dress, evaded by the superior intelligence of woman, appropriated the same for his own use, and doomed his womanhood to enslave their limbs with flowing robes which render it impossible for them to cope with man in the usual avocations.

The left ears of the School Directors must have been annoyingly itching during the past week. Every cool nook in the town was kept pretty warm discussing the hitch on the board and the meritorious demerit of either side. On one thing every nook was unanimously warm and one-sided, and that the treasurer and the means of election. If the grave charges alleged are true, then indeed our board through the Boarders completely in the shade. However, it may be that all these ugly rumors emanated from temporary winds stirred by disappointment, and of course, like all vapors, will present nothing tangible in court. One thing is certain, the displacement of Jerry Price has met with most pronounced disapproval by the majority of our people. He has been one of the most efficient and obliging of our officials and is not in a position to be indifferent to the reverses of the position. Then, too, the board, had it not been dead to all sense of obligations, should have re-elected him.

Our borough fathers are busy as bees in May trying to secure a water supply for our borough. Now that the town is financially on a good footing they are acting on every practical suggestion offered. Some time ago a wisecracker, that knows every ravine and rivulet in our environment, told our borough fathers of a beautiful stream, whose silvery tones, rattling over the rocks and dancing through mossy banks, was just what they sought. It, of course, had a never failing supply and the "water committee" with a few friends, all full of expectancy—visited the stream designated. Imagine their feelings, after toiling under a hot sun for half an hour, to discover a stream that would not fill a water bucket in half an hour. Our official being very thirsty endeavored to slack his thirst, but his "dry" was too much for the capacity of the "silvery rivulet" and he drank it dry.

Frackville has in the person of Mark Honesty a man with a history worth knowing. Born in the Emerald Isle, in one of its richest and greenest counties, he at an early age took service on board of one of Her Britannic Majesty's line of battle ships, and sailed the raging marine until he had enjoyed the unique experience of having circumnavigated the globe. Like all his countrymen, he had a yearning for the Stars and Stripes, and after his time of service in the British navy had expired he took ship for the United States, where he enlisted as a jolly tar under Uncle Sam. After his services for our country terminated, he wandered into the coal regions, and four years ago, while walking on the Reading road near Middleport, was struck by a locomotive which dislocated his vertebrae. He was removed to the Mincers' Hospital, where he remained a patient for three years. One year ago he left the hospital a cripple for life, and since then he has endeavored to support himself by keeping cigars, tobacco and candies. If our people wish to learn something instructive concerning any other part of the habitable globe, just step into the little shop opposite the Meredith House and be courteously entertained.

We met a very enthusiastic Democrat on Wednesday who declares this is a Democratic year in this county from stem to stern. In speaking of our delegate election he was very positive that Lawler and Keifer were straight-out Democrats whose political integrity have never been questioned. They are men without any axes to grind, and their fight will be made without any Republican combinations coming to their assistance. It is pretty near time our friends, the enemy, keep their hands off our delegate election, and as Lawler and Keifer are two men that will not brook such interference they have the confidence of our people and will be elected. I don't see what is to be gained by big local fights. It only leaves sore that sometimes take years to heal up. This fight against these men is the result of a political sore, and we hope for the good of the party the promoters of it will not waste any more energy in disrupting our Democratic friends for the edification of the enemy. Mark my words, every loyal Democrat will vote for Lawler and Keifer.

Man About Town.

We do not like to reproach the patriotism of our good people, but in the matter of our Fourth of July celebration we do seem very lax. It should not devolve upon one or two, nor upon any particular organization. It is a matter in which the whole town should move, and to do so successfully it is high time some more, with hot and in view, be made. Gilberton is setting an example that our people might copy with profit. Let us put our shoulders to the wheel and make the coming Fourth a glorious day, one that will stir up the blood of patriotism in our children and give them an inspiration to follow in the footsteps of the men who kindled the flame of liberty and inspired the human race with a true conception of government.

LAKESIDE ELECTRIC ROAD.

The Route by Which Lakeside Park is to be Reached.

While in conversation with one of the projectors of the Lakeside electric railway Saturday evening a Herald reporter obtained a description of the proposed route from this town to Lakeside park. After running along Centre street to the eastern limits of this town the road will take the most possible line to Mahanoy City, via Ellensburg. Should the Mahanoy City authorities do as the Borough Council of this place did and give the company a right of way the road will run through one of the principal streets of our sister borough, but should the privilege be denied the electric railway company will be content to run the road close to the Lehigh Valley depot, which is understood to be on or very near the Mahanoy City limits. The electric line will then be continued to Delano, via Shoemakers, Bowers, Park Place and other intermediate patches. From Delano it will run down the ravine over the public road until it strikes certain private lands, over which it will pass to a point on the eastern border of the creek that empties into the Lakeside dam. The line will follow this creek to the dam and continue to the picnic grounds which have been used for camp meeting purposes. It will then strike the public road, cross the bridge and take the public road to Barnesville.

It is intended to completely revolutionize the Lakeside property. The camp meeting grounds at the eastern extremity of Lakeside Park will be cleared and be fitted up with refreshment stands, improved swings, drums and other sources of amusements, and the grounds will be used exclusively for Sunday school picnics. The lower dam will be raised about 12 feet, which will throw the two dams into one, and on the knoll opposite the second, or upper dam, a large hotel will be erected.

The present picnic ground will be used more for camp meeting purposes, as the changes at the eastern end of the park will bring the picnic grounds and water supply close together and do away with the danger that attends the frequent crossing of the railroad from the present grounds for water.

OBITUARY.

Death of Abram Williams, an Old Mine Superintendent.

Abram Williams died at his home at the corner of White and Coal streets last night. He succumbed to old age and general debility. Mr. Williams would have been 46 years of age on the 4th of August next. He had been a resident of Schuylkill county for nearly 50 years, having come to this country from Wales when very young, and resided in this town for about 12 years. Mr. Williams was a miner all his life and held many important positions. He was superintendent of the Locust Run colliery, near Ashland, for 12 or 14 years, and subsequently served as superintendent of the Preston collieries, Girardville, at Tower City and at Mahanoy City. His last position was that of inside foreman at Bear Ridge colliery, Mahanoy Place. About ten years ago he retired from mine work and up to the present time conducted a grocery in the house in which he died. The surviving members of the family are the wife and six children, the latter all married. They are Mrs. Jennie West, Philadelphia; William P. and John Williams, Mt. Carmel; Abram P. and Adam P. Williams, of town; and Mrs. G. A. Wilda, also of town. Deceased was a member of the Ashland Masonic Lodge. The funeral will take place on Wednesday, at 2 p. m.

THE TONAWANDA TROUBLE.

Lumber Shovers Will Not Give up the Fight—Village Under Martial Law.

TONAWANDA, N. Y., June 19.—It begins to look as if the two Tonawandas will be upset with the lumber shovers' trouble all summer. The residents of North Tonawanda are watching the strange sights of soldiers marching through the streets, and wondering what the knots of sullen Polish strikers and locked-up union lumber shovers will do, if anything.

Appointed by Secretary Carlisle.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Secretary Carlisle has appointed Joseph F. Kavanaugh of Chicago foreman of the United States Government buildings at the World's Fair. He has also appointed S. Isidore Bradley of Connecticut, Chief Clerk in the office of the United States Treasury Department.

Grand Display of FINE DRESS GOODS

DRESS GOODS is such a bewildering topic that we will not attempt a full description, but give a partial outline, which you can fill in by a personal inspection. There are the plain and changeable diagonals; plain, plaid, striped and invisible plaid serges; fancy mixtures in all sorts of odd weaves, dots, threads, cross-threads, hair-lines, lines here and there, many at a glance appearing alike, but upon examination are found entirely different. Our assortment of silks is complete—china silks, china surah, plain surah, bengaline, plain, figured and changeable silks, in all the new shot effects. Full line of fancy braids to match any color of dress goods.

.....In Wraps

We find the most stylish and the prevailing mode to be the Cape, in some of its variations, single, double or triple capes. Some are plain, others very highly decorated, with fancy induscent braid, butterfly colors, or some full arrangement at the neck, so much approved this season by the feminine fancy. To some, coats only are the correct garment. To those we would say coats are equally fashionable and stylish, many of these having caps also attached—sometimes one, two or three, as the taste or inclination of the wearer may desire.

We have this season, for the first time, added a Millinery Department, and have spared neither trouble nor expense to make it a success. The result exceeds our most sanguine expectations. This department will be under the same management and conducted on the same principles that have always characterized our entire business. We shall keep everything in trimmed and untrimmed hats, novelties of every description. Having secured a trimmer noted for her artistic and skillful work, we are enabled to suit all tastes. We invite a careful inspection of our entire store. All welcome.
