night have committed the crime. The concensus of opinion here is that Miss Borden will be acquitted in short order or that the jury will disagree. In the fermer event, it is understood that there will be no jubilation, but she will retire quickly from the scene of so much unpleasantness as quickly as possible. In the latter event, there may come a new Sal or a case of nolle prosequi later onshe being allowed to go on her own rec egnizance provided her counsel stands in guilty mind.

It may not be fair to assume that the jury has sampled public opinion sufficient by to diaganose its present condition, and yet, there is a strong feeling that this as-sumption will be entirely correct. CARTER MEDICINE CO., New York. SMALL PILL, SMALL DOSE, SMALL PRICE

The scenes about the court house yesterday afternoon were disgraceful. There was no system about the method of seating people and ladies were tossed about the walks, in the corridors and on the stairs in the most reckless and carsless manner. The exhibitions were disgusting, whether of the utter helplessness and lack of ability of the officers to control the mobility of the officers. or of the pushing, crowding, surging masses of perspiring humanicy in their efforts to elbow their neighbors out of

When Miss Borden came in she was rushed and crowded about just as every body was and there was just a touch of asperity in her manner as she entered the court-room and faced the bu zing crowd. The buzzing censed as she took her seat,

Gov. Robinson resumed his argument by saying that the jury was to use its best judgment in the premises. He called at-tention to various phases in the case in review in brief, and said: It is very dangerous to take the ground that if she did not do it you cannot see who did The extraordinary danger of jumping conclusions should be well unders ood you. The fact that it has been done in the daylight is nothing. Miss Lizzle, there can be no question, was trouing downstairs, and you remember the ironed downstairs, and you remember the ironed handkerchiels were put away. So you will see that this is genuine and not fletion, and these little things go to establish the facts of greater things. Gov. Robinson commented on the absence of blood from the defendant's flesh, hands and clothing. Either the jury might find defendant not guilty, because not proved guilty, or because they were convinced she was innocent. He claimed that her previous character, her open. that her previous character, her open frank, conduct while under suspicion, and her manner since arrest, and particularly during the trial showed her to be inno-

It was 3 o'clock when Gov. Robinson closed his plea, and a recess of five min-ntes was allowed before District Attorney Knowiton took up his work. He made a brilliant argument. The court adjourned before he had concluded.

HIS LIFE WAS CRUSHED OUT. An Elevator Boy Instantly Billed in New

Fork. NEW YORK, Jone 20 .- William Hynderson, colored, an elevator boy, 19 years old, was crushed to pulp between the floor of elevator and top of the doorway on the ground floor of the six story spartment ouse, at No. 113 East Stateenth street, yesterday. The apartment house is an adjunct of the Westminster hotel, and it is cupled chiefly by families.

Henderson's body hung wedged in an upright position between the elevator floor and the shaft casing with his legs dangling a the elevator entrance for fully twenty finutes before it was noticed by Bellboy Mitchell, who went over from the hotel with letters to deliver.

Meantime several passing guests had seen the body hanging there and others on the upper floors had been vainly ringing the hell for the elevator to take them down. Mitchell informed Engineer Bernard Shelon, who lowered the elevator enough to elease the body, which dropped to the bot om of the shaft and been dead for some time.

Henderson relieved Elevator Boy James mith at noon. No one saw the secident, but it is supposed that Henderson had a call from one of the upper floors, and, folowing a practice common among elevator mys, he moved the lever rope and then tarted to jump inside.

Manager King, of the Westminster, said a probably stumbled and fell face downyard to the floor of the elevator, with the ower half of his body protruding from the doorway. He was then squeezed between the elevator floor and the top of the shaft doorway. The casing above the doorway was wrenched loose, and the elevator st ped automatically and held the body p ned there. In the youth's pockets were found a gold watch and chain, $5 and a letter addressed ront. Manager King said he engaged

Henderson a month ago.

He came from Savannah, Ga., and so far as known he has no relatives in New He was very intelligent, and popular with the guests.

The Withdrawal of Daly's Tammany Makes Lamplighter, the Defeated Faverite of the Brooklyn Handiesp, a Hot Favorite-The Jock-ys and Other Noted Horses in the Ruce.

New York, June 20.-One week ago the Suburban Handicap, which will be run at Sheepshead Bay to-day, gave promise of being the most brilliant contest of the kind seen in years, but in the short space of ten days Tammany, the great rival of Lamplighter; His Highness, four-year-old of remurkable speed; Diablo, winner of the Brooklyn Handicap this spring, and, in all probability, Pessara, winner of the Metropolitan Handicap in Dr. Charence Eibash, the hotel physician, 1892, have gone amiss, and will not face the summoned, but he said Henderson the starter for the Concy Island Club's big however, that the disabling of the horses to a friend in Savannah, (is. He wore a named will make the Suburbana certainty gold ring and two studs in his white shirt for Lamplighter, as Mr. Lorillard's chamfor Lamplighter, as Mr. Lorillard's cham pion carries 120 pounds, and meets such bandy horses as Hanquet Charale, Dr. Hasbrouck, Raceland, Mars, The Pepper and Lawlander, and were only Banquel and Lamplighter to start, the contest would be close and interesting. Dwyer gelding is better at present than at any time in his career. Therefore, while the luck of the Coney Island Jockey in having so many good horses unable t take part in the Suburban is to be de

The fact that Banquet will start lends interest to the race, as it is probable his plunger owner will back him. Some time ago Mr. Dwyer thought of sending Banquet to Chicago with Don Alonzo, but after Tammany broke down he concluded to keep him here and send him for the big struggle. With Lamly up he will beat more than beat him. He has not been raced hard of late, and from his last two races he is better than ever he was in his Everybody admits that Banquet will be Lamplighter's most dangerous opponent, the little gelding's mile and a quarter at Morris Park in 2:05 8-4, with 130 pounds up, being the best performance of the sea-son from a time standpoint. It is a singu-iar fact, however, that Lamplighter has always beaten Banquet. Mr. Dwyer will, unless he changes his mind, start Raceland to help Banquet. Charade's easy victory in the Metroplitan Handleap at Morris Pa k made some close observers think that the black colt that is owned by Bookmaket Jones had a chance for the Suburban, bur those who have carefully followed the career of the son of Charaxus have always maintained that the distance is a furlong too far for him. This argument was borne out in the Brooklyn Handicap this spring, and again at Morris Park a few days ago, LAMET. where he ran upplaced to Picknicker in the New York Jocky Club's Handienp. Dr. Hasbronek's race at Sheepshead Bay on Saturday was a sort of trial for the Suburban. This great sprinter has not been asked to run over a mile except on one or two occasions, and there has always been the gravest doubt as to his staying powers. Many persons content that a horse of such dazzling speed as Dr. Has-bronck undoubtedly possesses can be made to perform very creditably up to a mile and a furiong, and in some instances at a mile and a quarter.

The pace on Saturday in the early part of the race in which Dr. Hasbrouck part was very fast, and Doggett kept him in check as much as possible. Lowlander another Suburban candidate, whose weigh is 105 pounds, was in the race, and he carried the Doctor along for the first seven furlongs at a very smart clip. Both were tired when challenged by the light weighted Kilkenny, and had to give we to the Raucocas colt in the home-stretch A horse that cannot be overlooked is th Morris representative. Mars, who is h very handliy at 112 pounds.
