THIRD EDITION

SUMMER EXCURSION
Routes and Dates via the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The 1893 edition of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company's annual book of Summer Excursion Routes has just been issued. It is tastefully gotten up and presents in a most practical and comprehensive manner about four hundred popular summer resorts, from which excellent selections may be made for either limited trips or extended sojourns during the summer and early fall months.

The great variety of routes suggested, the complete schedules of rates, the graphic and exhaustive descriptions of the different places, the explanatory maps and the illustrations, make this volume a most valuable guide.

Copies of the book may be obtained at any ticket office of the Pennsylvania Railroad on payment of ten cents, or upon application to the General Passenger Agent, Pennsylvania Railroad, Philadelphia, it will be forwarded upon the receipt of twenty cents.

Base Ball Notes.
The Jeannette club plays at Mahanoy City on Saturday.

The Cuban Giants will be here again in the near future.

Come, Pottsville, get a move on yourself. We are waiting for you.

The first thing the Lakeside Electric Railway Company will undertake will be the construction of a road from town to the base ball grounds.

Dates are being made for games here between the Hazleton, Jeannette and Phoenixville teams.

The home management is on the lookout for an extra battery.

The rumored engagement of Heckman as short stop for the home team is off. Heckman is said to be adverse to leaving Shamokin.

Two of the Danville players may be added to the Shamokin team in the near future. They will probably be given a trial in the next game here. The management will hold their names for the present.

Owing to the condition the grounds at the Trotting park were left in there will be no game with the home team until the latter part of this, or first part of next week.

Wife of Possessor.
Mrs. Lavey, through her attorneys, S. G. M. Hopper and M. M. Burke, Esqs, has caused a writ of possession to be issued against her son, ex-Police John Lavey.

The proceeding is incidental to a law suit which has been pending between Mrs. Lavey and her son for some time. It seems that Mrs. Lavey has a life interest in the estate left by her deceased husband and one of the houses belonging to the estate is occupied by the son, who claims that his mother should not require him to pay rent. The case was tried and Mrs. Lavey won it. John then appealed and retained possession of the house without paying rent. Mrs. Lavey's attorneys have advised her that the appeal does not act as a stay of proceedings, hence the writ has been taken out and the son has been given ten days notice within which to vacate the premises.

Merry Young Folks.
A surprise party was held at the residence of T. S. Roberts on East Coal street last evening, the occasion being the 13th anniversary of Miss Maggie Roberts. Instrumental and vocal music and games were indulged in for several hours and refreshments were served. Among those present were Misses Katie and Jennie Hagenbuch, Lizzy Brooks, Carrie Levine, May and Carrie Beddall, Cleo Lesig, Florence Klina, Crispin Burkhardt, Annie Keithan, Gussie Boser, Blanche Kemmerer, Mary Jones, Bertha Holdeman, Bertha Newhouser, Sarah Horricks, Annie Shaffer, and Masters William Watson, Bert Davis, Fred. Holderman, George Yost, John Major, Harry and John Fulmer, Thomas and Edward Roberts.

Wife Beaters.
The June heat seems to have had effect upon some of our townsmen who are hunking Monday night Squire Carlin committed one to the lockup for beating his wife, Squire Walker hauled up another for a similar offense, and yesterday a third residing in the First ward danced upon his wife's body. Verily these are dog days and some women have a dog's life.

Robbed as a THIEF.
While Sam Lee, the Chinaman, was watching the circus parade yesterday somebody stole into his laundry on North Main street and robbed the till of five dollars.

Coming Events.
June 19 to 24.—Fair and festival in Robinson hall under the auspices of the English Lutheran church.
July 3 to 4.—Independence Day festival in Robinson opera house, under the auspices of Camp 49, Sons of Veterans.

Fire Alarm Boxes.
The following list shows the location of the alarm boxes of the Shamokin Fire Department:

- 15—Coal and Bowers streets.
 - 16—Bowers and Centre streets.
 - 17—Bridges and Centre streets.
 - 18—Main and Centre streets.
 - 19—Main and Poplar streets.
 - 20—Main and Coal streets.
 - 21—Gilbert and Centre streets.
 - 22—Gilbert and Cherry streets.
 - 23—Chester and Coal streets.
- To sound an alarm open the box, pull down the hook once and let go. When an alarm is sent in the fire bell will sound the number of the box and repeat the alarm four times.

HOW TO LOCATE ALARMS.
If the alarm is sounded from box 15 the fire bell will strike one, then pause and strike five which will indicate that the fire is in the vicinity of No. 15. Every alarm is repeated four times.

PEOPLE who go out of town to purchase their Carpets should call at Fricke's Carpet Store and get prices and have the different grades explained, so they will not be taken in.

PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Reiter, formerly of town, but now of Bethlehem, are the guests of Daniel Sterner.

Mrs. O. B. Williams, of Mt. Carmel, arrived in town this afternoon to spend a few days with friends.

Misses Virgie Holloper and Birdie Wadley are spending the week on the Neverstink Mountain, near Reading.

USE DANA'S BARSAPARILLA, ITS "THE KIND THAT CURES".

YATESVILLE.
Thomas Krasner, formerly of this place and now of Plymouth, spent a few days visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Grundy, of Centreville, Iowa, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. John Ballet. This is the first visit Mr. and Mrs. Grundy have made here since they went away twenty years ago. Time has made little change in them. Their many friends are giving them a cordial welcome.

Michael Stuy, blacksmith at the Knickerbocker colliery, who had his eye injured by being struck with a piece of hot steel, is much improved.

Ashy Ballet, of Gilberton, spent Sunday with his brother, John.

Davis' Condition.
Jacob Davis, who was burned by an explosion of gas in the Packer No. 4 mine yesterday, is now bound in bed and his condition was not very favorable to-day and Dr. Callen is not prepared to say that there were no internal injuries. He did not think there were any yesterday, but the developments during the night indicated otherwise; still it is not thought there is danger of fatal results. All such cases are more or less critical for the first nine days.

House Breakers.
Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zerby, of Lost Creek, attended a festival in the Union Sunday school room, at the above place. While away from home some unknown person entered Mr. Zerby's residence through the back window, but fortunately he had occasion to go home earlier than anticipated, and upon his approach to the house the unknown parties made their escape empty handed.

Points.
A contractor was in town yesterday looking for three hundred men to work on the new reservoir at Pinegrove, but failed to secure any.

Grand Display of FINE DRESS GOODS
DRESS GOODS is such a bewildering topic that we will not attempt a full description, but give a partial outline, which you can fill in by a personal inspection. There are the plain and changeable diagonals; plain, plaid, striped and invisible plaid serges; fancy mixtures in all sorts of odd weaves, dots, threads, cross-threads, hair-lines, lines here and there, many at a glance appearing alike, but upon examination are found entirely different. Our assortment of silks is complete—china silks, china surah, plain surah, bengaline, plain, figured and changeable silks, in all the new shot effects. Full line of fancy braids to match any color of dress goods.

In Wraps
We find the most stylish and the prevailing mode to be the Cape, in some of its variations. Some are plain, others very highly decorated, with fancy indignant braid, butterfly colors, or some full arrangement of the neck, so much approved this season by the feminine fancy. To some, coats only are the correct garment. To those we would say, coats are equally fashionable and stylish, many of those having capes also attached—sometimes one, two or three, as the taste or inclination of the wearer may desire.
We have this season, for the first time, added a Millinery Department, and have spared neither trouble nor expense to make it a success. The result exceeds our most sanguine expectations. This department will be under the same management and conducted on the same principles that have always characterized our entire business. We shall keep everything in trimmed and untrimmed hats, novelties of every description. Having secured a trimmer noted for her artistic and skillful work, we are enabled to suit all tastes. We invite a careful inspection of our entire store. All welcome.
