The Chicago police should be disarmed before the Viking anchors off the coast of Lake Michigan.

Colonel Watterston's political farewell show signs of as frequent recurrence as signs of prime dooms.

The Populists are holding a picnic in Kansas, but the signs are that they will have no picnic at the polls.

There must have been a grim earnestness about the way those British ironclads played war with each other in the Mediterranean.

A new theory is formulated as to the origin of cholera. It will be valuable, of course, only as it may aid in producing a condition to keep cholera away.

A new law requires assessors to make a semi-annual report of all births and deaths in their respective districts.

As a citizen he was a living goal to his community; as a representative a strength to his party; as a man, a noble, courteous, kind-hearted and true.

The Paving Question. It is with much gratification and self-pride that the Herald views the successful culmination of its labors in behalf of more substantial and enduring streets for this town.

Why? Why is Strictly Pure White Lead the best paint? Because it will outlast all other paints, give a handsomer finish, be less costly to the wood, and the first cost will be less.

It required the united efforts of Judge Kerr, a good lawyer, two constables and the janitor to separate the combatants.

Colored Men in Convention. CHICAGO, June 23.—A national convention of the Colored Men's National Protective Association is in session to-day at Columbus Hall in the Art Institute.
