YALE FRESHMEN WIN.

The Columbia Crew Finishes Thirteen

being run into the eel grass by a possibly areless coxswain along the east side.
At 5:43 Referee Brooks gave the signal

Yale got away slowly, but in fine shape, and Harvard splashed and foundered aim-

Columbia's lead was, however, destined to prove short li-d. A hundred yards from the start Columbia and Yale were tied, and Harvard a few feet behind. Columbia and Harvard's company proved too slow for Yale at this juncture of the contest and the blue oars began digging into the water for a lead, which increased with every yard that was traversed to the zoal by the naval station

Just above the half mile flag the Harvard 'Varsity eight was slowly riding up the course in the steam yacht Cora. A volley of Harvard cheers from the 'Varsity oarsmen inspired the freshmen, and new life seemed infused into the red boat, The gap between the two rear boats closed like a flash, and the race to escape a tallender's disgrace became fierce.

Yale was five lengths ahead at the mile cost, and Harvard had worked out a lead of a length. Here Harvard settled down to a mile of the prettiest, though far from the most effective, oarsmanship ever exhibited by a freshman eight on the Thames. Yale's lead was constantly increasing over both her rivals, and Harvard was also continually drawing away from Columbia. At the mile and a half Harvard had two ngths lead over the Columbia crew, rithmetic and aggravatingly easy looking stroke, six lengths in the lead. Half a mile from the finish the race was

Columbia and eight behind Yale. Harvard finished in excellent form, sending the shell along at a sharp and even rate. Columbia died game, rowing over the line in better form than characterized the carsmanship of the boat during most That the record was not broken is due to the strong wind, which, though following the oarsmen, kept the sea choppy and made the feat impossible. Yale seemed to be rowing under instructions not to try for the record, judging from her careful work on the last mile.

The official time of the winning boat was 10:23; Harvard 10.47; Columbia, 11.03. Bellaire's Murder Mystery. Bellaire, O., June 29.—Neil McCabe, a prominent young man of this place, was found dead by a roadside, and investiga-tion showed that he had been murdered. His sweetheart, Miss Tilly Cutshaw, is now in jail charged with complicity in the murder. She says she was walking with asy to take. When she next heard of him he was dead. The impression is that the young lady knows more of the murder than she has told, and that McCabe was killed by a rival for her hand in her presence, and that she is trying to shield the murderer. Four Fatally Burned. SAGINAW, Mich., June 29.—A fire, insignificant in its financial loss, wiped out an entire family, with a single exception. Catherine Neumann and her four children occupied the second story of a frame building, which was set on fire by an ex-ploding lamp. The victims are Tilda Neumann, aged 20 years; Lena Neumann, aged 15; Frank Neumann, aged 12. Mrs. Neumann is terribly burned about the head and face, and will die. The only person in the building saved was Alma Neumann, aged 17, who was taken out, having sustained only slight injuries.

Burying the Victims. NEWARE, N.J., Ivne 20.—The bodies of the five people who were killed by a train on the Eric railroad at Avondale on Satur-day were laid to rest in Evergreen cemetery, Elizabeth. The funeral was the largest attended of any ever held here. Summer avenue, on which the pretty cottage stands where the Williams family resided, was filled with people from curb to curb and police officers had to clear the way for the months. It is a proper to the months of the mon way for the mourners to get into the carringes.

Cemedian Hopper Wedded. NEWARK, June 29.—Comedian DeWolff Hopper visited Newark yesterday afternoon and drove to the residence of the Rev. Nelson A. MacNichol, pastor of the Halsey Street Methodist church, where a marriage ceremony was performed. The elergyman, while admitting that the famous comedian was the groom, refused positively to divulge the name of the bride. She is said to be Edna Wallace, of New York.

Pittsaulia, June 20.—Two hundred pud-lers employed in Spang, Chalfant & Co.'s iron works at Etna are on a strike. The trouble began two weeks ago when several puddlers were discharged. The demand of the workmen that their associates be reinstated was unbeeded. Several fruit less conferences between the firm and employes have been held on the subject. The strikers declare they will not return, while the firm say they will have all the men they can use as soon as they are prepared to commence work again.

New State Postmasters. Washington, June 29.—The following Pennsylvania postmasters have just been appointed: Akersville, James S. Akers; Dalton, F. L. Van Fleet; Glen White, Lewis Donough; Grant, Price Davis; Lan-der, Homer H. Preston; Laurel, W. E. Towson; Owl Creek, Matthew W. Mellott, Penn Run, William Shellito; Rome, William L. Three Killed by a Cavein, WHITEWOOD, S. D., June 29.—A cavein twenty miles from its mouth. This re-coursed to a tremen near the Homestake dues the channel to the narrowest limits possible for use, and the government is nine yesterday afternoon and six men were buried alive. A force of men was at ready at a moment's notice to complete the block to prevent the ingress and egress nce set to work, and three men were res-ued alive. Charles Brenemin, foreman, ad the others have not been found. Siam has

Siam has a standing army of 12,000 men and has a population of about 6,000,000 to draw from in the event of war. The army is to some extent officered by Europeans. The government has ten fully equipped war vessels. Forts with heavy guns are at the mouth of the river, into which vessels drawing over thirteen feet of water can not enter.§

The population of Bangkok is about 500,-000, about half of whom are Chinese. The city presents a beautiful appearance from the river, the numerous temples adding to its pleturesqueness; as do also the floating houses, which are built on rafts. There are a few houses in the city built of brick and stone, but the greater part of the buildings are of wood. Cathelle, Baptist and Presbyterian missions and schools are located in the capital, and two news-papers, one in English and the other Th iamese, are issued. The troubles between France and Slam.

The troubles between France and Siam, which are of long standing, appear from the Times' dispatch to have reached a most acute phase. The troubles had their origin in a boundary dispute, and considerable Torturing Erysipelas. fighting between the French and Siames has been done along the Aonam frontier.
