Senator Teller Sees No Chance for Alarm in the Action of India in Demonstrating Silver-Gold Miners Urge Resumption of Hydraulic Mining.

Denver, June 30.—Silver mining and smelting in Colorado will cease. This decision was reached at a meeting of all the leading mine owners and managers of the state held at the Brown Palace hotel yesterday afternoon.

On motion of David H. Moffat, the chair appointed a committee of five on resolutions as follows: J. J. Flanagan, chairman; D. H. Moffat, R. C. Brown, W. Thiescher and D. M. Hyman.

That the world cannot transact its business without the use of silver as money, that the actual cost and value of the metal far exceeds the incorrect values which they have formed.
