It was the center from which the patriotic pulse of a liberty loving people, enjoying the manifold bless-ings of a land of the free and a home of the brave, best through the nation. There were many in the White City yesterday whose minds went back to that glorious Fourth of July of the Centennial year in the Quaker City, when, commencing with the tolling of the midnight hour, the patriotic impulses of a populace can riot; when for more than half a day men and women old and young, native and alien, marched almost without a break up Chestnul street and saluted with bared heads and ringing shouts the old landmark of liberty in In-dependence square; when Sherman, Sher-Lian and Domi Pedro, all now numbered with those that have gene, stord arm in arm before the old Liberty Bell and
